JOHN SMITH

A MAP OF VIRGINIA OXFORD 1612

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

NUMBER 557

THE ENGLISH  EXPERIENCE

ITS RECORD IN EARLY PRINTED BOOKS PUBLISHED IN FACSIMILE

The publishers acknowledge their gratitude to the Trustees of the British Museum for their permission to reproduce the Library's copy, Shelfmark: G. 7120
S.T.C.No. 22791

Collation: []$^{1}, *^{4}$, A-E ${ }^{4} ; \mathrm{A}^{-} \mathrm{O}^{4}, \mathrm{P}^{2}+$ fold. map

Published in 1973 by Theatrum Orbis Terrarum Ltd., O.Z. Voorburgwal 85, Amsterdam

&

Da Capo Press Inc.

- a subsidiary of Plenum Publishing Corporation 277 West 17th Street, New York N.Y. 1011

Printed in the Netherlands
ISBN 9022105571
Library of Congress Catalog Card Number 72-6031

A $M A P O F \cup I R G I N I A$.

VVITH A DESCRIPTI-

 ON OF THE COVNTREY,THE Commodities, People, Government and Religion.VVritten by Captaine Smith, , ometimes Governour of the Countrey.

WHEREVNTO IS ANNEXED THE proceedings cfthofe Colonies, fince their firft departure from England, with the d:fcourfes, Orations, and relations of the Salvages, and the accidents that befell them in all their Iournies and difcoveries.

TAKENFAITHFVLLT eASTHEX mere written out of the wratings of Docior Rvsefle. Tho. Strdeey.

Anas Todilil. Ieffra Abot.

Richard Wiefrn. Will. Phettiplace. Nathaniel Puvele. Richard Pots.

And the relations of divers other diligent obfervers there prefent then, and now many of them in England.

$$
B_{y} V V . S .
$$

AT OXFORD,
Printed by Joreph Barnes. 1682.

$$
\begin{aligned}
& F 229 \\
& .569 \\
& 1612 a \end{aligned}
$$

THE RIGHT VVOR-

SHIPFVLL THOMAS WATSON, AND Iohn Bingiey, es QViers: P. F. Wifheth all Health and Happineffe.

$S$ there is nothing more pretions in Nun then vertue, fo there is nothing wor fe then batefull ingratitude. Though it be farre beyond my power, to requite, or deferue, the leaft of your fauours, yet would I not neiglect the opportwnitic, to expreffe my thankefulneffe. Being thus conftraiwed both by dutic and affection, I hope you will pardon me for prefenting your Wor/hips with this little Booke; bowbeit, it is not mine by Birtl, yet it is by Gift, and purchafe from the Preffe. I efteeme of it as the beft gift 1 can giue, and Icannot give it to any, to mee more deare then your felues, and worthie Progenie, Friends, and Well-willers to this noble action, for whofe recreation, and true fatisfaction, I haue occafioned the Imprefion, which if it giue you content, my charge and paines is highly recompenced. So dedicating my best abilities to the exquifite iudgenent of your right worthie vertues;

I euer reft
your Worfhips true and faithfull feruant.

Philif Fote.

TO THE HAND.

 Eaft I Sbouldwrong any in deducating this Booke to one: 1 baue con. cluded it Jbal be particular to none. I found it only dedicated to a Hand, and to that hand I addreffe it. Now for that this bufine $\iint$ e is common to the world, this booke may beft fat is. fie the world, becaufe it was penned in the Land it treateth of. If it bee dilliked of men, then I would recommend it to women, for being dearely bought, and farre fought, it Jhould be good for Ladies. When all mess reiected Chriftopher Collumbus : that ever renowned Queene Izabell of Spaine, could pawre ber Iewels to fupply his wants; whomallthewifemen (as they thought thern(elwes) of that agecontemned. I need not (ay what was his noorthine $\iint$, ber noblene $\iint e^{2}$, and their ignor ance, that $\int_{0}$ fcornefully did jpit at his wants, feeing the whole world is enriched with bis golden fortunes. Cannot this fuccelf. full example moue the incredulous of this time, to coufider, to conceaue, or apprehend Virginia, which might be, or breed ws a fecond India? bath not England an Izabell, as well as Spaine, nor yet a Collumbus as well as Genua? yes furely it bath, whofe defires are no leffe then was worthy Collum bus,their certainties more, their experiences so way wan. ting, only there wants but an Izabell, foit were not froms Spairue.

T. $A$.

Becaule many doe defire to knowe the maner of their language, 1 baue inferted thefefen words.

Ka ka torawincs yowo. What call youthis.
Nemarough.a man.
Crenepo.a womain.
Marowancheffo a boy.
rehawkans.Hnufes.
Matchcores.Skins,or garments.
Mockafins.Shooes.
Tuffan.Beds.
rokatawer.Fire.
CAttamp. Abowe.
Attonce.Arrowes.
Monacookes.Swords.
Aumoughhowgh. A Targec.
Pawcuffacks. Gunnes.
Tomabacks.Axes.
Tockabacks.Pickaxes.
Pamefacks.Kniues.
Accoopprets.Sheares.
pampecones.Pipes.
Mattaßin.Copper.
$V \iint_{\text {awo a Sin.Iron, Braffe, Silver, orany white mettal. }}$ Muffes Woods.
Attafkuf Leanes,weeds, or graffe chepin.Land.
Shacquohocan. A tone.
wepenter, a cookold.
Suckabanna. Water.
Noughmaf. Firh.

Necuttoughtyfinough. 500.
Necutt wernquaough. 1000.
Rawcofowghs.Daies.
Kefliooghes.Sunnes.
Toppquough.Nights.
Nepawowe howghs. Moones, Pawpuxfoughes. Yeares.
Pummabumps Starres.
Ofies.Heavens.
Okes.Gods.
Quiyoughcofucks.Pettie Gods, and their affinities.
Righcomoughes. Deaths.
Kekughes.Liues.
Mowchick noyawgh tawgh noeragh kaquere mecher.
I am verie hungrie?what fhall I eate?
Tawnor nehiegh Powhatan. where dwels Powwahtan. Mache, nebiegh yowroogh, orapaks. Now hedwels a great way hence at orapaks.
Vttapitchewayne anpechitchs nehawper werowacomoco. Youlie, he ftaide ever at werowocomoco. Kator nebiegh mattagh neer vttapitchewayne. Truely he is there I doe not lie.
Spaughtynere keragh werowance mawmarinough kekaten wawgh peyaquaugh. Run you then to the king mawma* rynough and bid him come hither.
Vitcke, epeya weyack wighwhip. Get you gone, and come againe quickly.
Kekaten pokabontas patiaquagh niugh tanks manotyens neer mowobick rawrenock audowgh. Bid Pokahontas bring hither two little Baskets, & I wil giue her white beads to make her a chaine.

THE DESCRIPTION OE VIRGINIA BYCAP. TAINE SMITH.

IRGINI $A$ is a Country in $C$ America that lyeth betweene the degrees of 34 and 44 of the north latitude. Thelatitude. The bounds thercof on the Eaft fide are the great Ocean. On the South lyeth Florida : on the North nova Francia. As for the Weft thereof, the limits are vnknowne. Of all this counrry wee purpofe not to lpeake, but only of that part which was planted by the Englifh men in the yeare of our Lord, 1606. And this is under the degrees $37.3^{8}$.and 39 . The temperature of this countrie doth agree well with Englifh conftitutions being once feafoned to the country. Which appeared by this, that though by many occafions our people fell ficke; yet did they recover by very finall meanes 8 continued in health, though there were other great caufes, not only to haue made them ficke, but even to end their daies, &e.

The fommer is hot as in Spaine; the winter colde as in The trotrature. Fraunce or England. The heat of fommer is in Iune, Iulie, and Auguit, but commonly the coole Breefes affwage the vehemencic of the heat. The chiefe of winter is halfe Dccember, Ianuary, February, and halfe March. The colde is extreame fharpe, but here the proverbe is true that no extreame long continueth.

In the yeare 1607. was an extraordinary frolt in moft of Europe, and this froft was founde as extreame in Virginia. But the next yeare for 8 . or 10. daies of ill weather, other 14 daies would be as Sommer.

The windes here are variable, but the like thunder and the windes. Fightning to purifie the aire, I haue foldome either feene or

2

The voyages and dijcoveries of heard in Europe. From the Southweft came the greateft guftes with thunder and heat. The Northweft winde is comonly coole and bringeth faire weather with it. From the North is the greateft cold, and from the Eaft and SouthEaft as from the Barmadas, fogs and raines.

Some times there are great droughts other times much raine, yet great neceffity of neither, by reafon we fee not but that all the variety of ncedfull fruits in $\mathcal{E u r o p e}$ may be there in great plenty by the induftry of men, as appeareth by thofe we there planted.
Tbe entrances. There is but one entraunce by fea into this country and that is at the mouth of a very goodly Bay the wideneffe where of is neare 18.0 or 20.niles. The cape on the South-
Cape Hsary. fide is called Cape Henry in honour of our moft noble Prince. The fhew of the land there is a white hilly fand like vnto the Downes, and along the fhores great plentic of Pines and Firres.

Cape Cbarles.

The north Cape is called Cape Charles in honour of the worthy Duke of Yorke. Within is a country that may haue the prerogatiue over the molt plealant places of Europe, $A$ fia, Africa, or eAmerica, for large and pleafant navigable rivers, heaven & earth never agreed better to frame a place for mans habitation being of our conftitutions, were it fully manured and inhabited by induftrious people. here are mountaines, hils, plaines, valleyes, rivers and brookes, all running molt pleafantly into a faire Bay cópaffed but for the mouth with fruitfull and delightfome land. In the Bay and rivers are many Ines both great and fmall, fome woo$d y$, fome plaine, molt of the m low and not inhabited. This Bay lieth North and South in which the water foweth neare 200 miles & hath a channell for 140 miles, of depth betwixt 7 and 15 fadome, holding in breadth for the molt part 10 or 14 miles. Fro the head of the Bay at the north, the land is mountanous, & fo in a manner from thence by a Southweft line; So that the more Southward, the farther: offrom the Bay are thofe mounetaines. From which fall?

Captaine Iohn Smith in Virginia.

certaine brookes which after come to fine principall navigable rivers. Thefe run from the Northwelt into the South ealt, and fo into the welt fide of the Bay, where the fall of every River is within 20 or 15 miles one of an other.

The mountaines are of diverfe natures for at the head of The mountaines. the Bay the rockes are of a compofition like milntanes. Some of imarble, &ce. And many peeces of chriftall we foüd as throwne downe by water from the mountaines. For in winter the fe mountaines are covered with much fnow, &x when it diffolverh the waters fall with fuch violence, that it cauleth great inundations in the narrow valleyes which yet is farce perceived being once in the rivers. Thefe wasers wafh from the rocks fuch gliftering tinctures that the ground in fome places feemeth as guilded, where both the socks and the earth are fo fplendent to behold, that better zudgemients then ours might baue beene perfwaded, they contained more then probabilities. The velture of the earth in moft places doeth manifeltly proue the nature of the foile so be lufty and very rich. The coulor of the earth we found The foile, in diverfeplaces, refembleth bole Armoniac, terra figillata ad lemnia, Fullers earth marle and divers other fuch appearances. But generally for the moft part the earth is a black fandy mould, in fome places a fat flimy clay, in other places a very barren gravell, But the beft ground is knowne by the vefture it beareth, as by the greatneffe of trees or abundance of weedes, & c.

The country is not mountanous nor yet low but fuch The vallyes. pleafant plaine hils & fertle valleyes, one prettily croffing an other, and watered fo conveniently with their fweete brookes and chriftall fprings, as if art it felfe had devifed them. By the rivers are many plaine marifhes containing Plaines. fome 20 fome 100 fome 200 Acres, fome more, fome leffe. Other plaines there are fewe, but only where the Savages inhabit:but all overgrowne with trees and weedes being a plaine wildernes as God firft made ir.

On the weft fide of the Bay, wee faid were 5. faire and

The voyages and difcoveries of delightfull navigable rivers, of which wee will nowe proceed to report. The firlt of thofe rivers and the next to the mouth of the Bay hath his courfe from the Weft and by Therivar Paw. batan.

The braxches. mans body.From the South there fals into this river. Firlt the pleafant river of Apamatuck.next more to the Eaft are the two rivers of Qaijorigbcobanocke. A little farther is a Bay wherein falleth 3 or 4 prettie brookes & creekes that halfe intiench the Intabitants of Warraskeyac then the river of NandJamund, and liafly the brooke of Chifapenck. From the North fide is the river of Cbickabamania, the backeriver of Iames Townc; another by the Cedar Ifle, where we lived io weekes vpon oifters, then a convenient harbour for fifher boats or fmal boats at Kecoughtan, that fo conv eniently turneth it felfe into Bayes and Creeks that make that place very pleafant to inhabit, their cornefields being girded therein in a manner as Peninfutaes. The moft of the cle rivers arc inhabited by feverall inations, or rather familics Of the name of the rivers. They haue alfo in every of thofe places fonic Gouernour, as their king, which they Eames Tompre. callwerowinces. In a Peninfula on the North fide of this rive: ate the Englifl planted in a place by thê called Iames

Captaine Tohn Smyth in Virginia．

Towne，in honour of the Kings molt excellent Maieftie； vpon which fide are allo many places vnder the Werow－ ances．

The firf and next the rivers month are the Kecoughtans，The feverallin－ who befides their women and children，haue not palt 20 ．babilants． fighting men．The Pafpabeghes on whofe land is feated the Englini Colony，fome 40 ．miles from the Bay hauc not patt 40．The river called Chickabamania neere 200．The Weanocks 100．The Arrombatocks 30．The place called Porbatan，lome 40．On the South fide this river the Ap－ pamatucks haue 60 fighting men．The Q wyougcobanocks．， 25．The Warraskoyacks 40．The Nandfamunds 200．The Cbefapeacks are able to matic 100 ．Of this lalt place the Bay beareth the name．In all thefe places is a feve rall com－ mander，which they call Werowance，except the Cbickba－ manians，who are governed by the Prieltes and their Affi－ ftants of their Elders called Caw－cawwafoughes．In fomer no place affordeth more plentic of Sturgeon，nor in winter moreabundance of fowle，efpecially 1 n the time of froft． There was once taken $9_{2}$ Sturgeons at a draught，at ano－ ther draught 68 ．From the laier end of May till the end of Iune are talsen few，but yong Sturgeons of 2 foot or a yard long．From thence till the midft of September，them of 2 or three yards long and fewe others．And in 4 or 5 houres with one netec were ordinarily taken 7 or 8：oftenmore， fe！dome leffe．In the finall rivers all the yeare there is good plentic of finall．fifh，fo that with hookes thofe that would take paines had fufficient．

Fourcteene miles Northward from the river Powhatan，R．Pamavner is the river Pamavnke，which is navigable 60 or 70 myles， but with Catches and frall Barkes 30 or 40 myles farther． At the ordinary fowing of the falt．water ，it divideth it delfe into two gallant branches．On the South fide inha－ bit the people of roughtanund，who haue about 60 mé for Tre inbabitants． warres．On the North branch Mattapament，who haue 30 men．Where this river is divided the Country is called Pr－ miles lower on the North fide of this river is Wer avocomo$c o$, where their great King inhabited when Captain Smith was deliuered him prifoner ; yet there are not paft 40 able men. But now he hath abandoned that, and liueth at Orapakes by Youghtanund in the wilderneffe; ro or 12 myles lower; on the South fide of this river is Cbiskack, which hath fome 40 or 50 men. Thefe, as alfo Apamatuck, Irrobatock, and Powbatan, are their great kings chiefe alliance and inhabitance. The reft (as they report) his Conquefts.
Paynkataink.R Before we come to the third river that falleth from the mountaine s, there is another river (Some 30 myles navigable ) that commeth from the Inland, the river is called Payankatanke, the Inhabitants are about fome 40 ferviceable men.
Toppabanock, The third navigable riuer is called Toppabanock. (This is navigable fome 30 myles) At the top of it inhabit the people called Mannahoackes amongft the mountaines, but they are aboue the place we defcribe. Vpon this river on The inbabitaxts the North fide are feated a people called Cuttatawomen, with 30 fighting men. Higher on the riuer are the $\mathrm{Mo}^{-}$ raugbtacunds, with 80 able men. Beyond them Toppabanock with 100 men. Far abouc is another Cuitatawomen with 20 men. On the South, far within the river is Nautaughtacund hauing 150 men. This river alfo as the two former, is replenifhed with fifh and foule.
Patawome $k_{,} R$. The fourth river is called Patawomeke & is 6 or 7 miles in breadth. It is navigable 140 miles, of fed as the reft with many fweet rivers and fprings, which fall from the bordering hils. Thefe hils many of them are planted, and yeelde no leffe plenty and variety of fruit then the river exceedeth with abundance of finh. This river is inhabited on both fides. Firfion the South fide at the very entrance is Wighcocomoco & hath fome 130 men, beyond them Sckacawone with 30 .The Onawmanient with 100 . Then Patavomeke with 160 able men. Here doth the river divide it felfe in to 3 or 4 convenient rivers; The greatef of the leaft is called Quiyough treadeth north weft, but the river it felfe turneth North eaft and is fila navigable flreame On the weflerne fide of this bought is 7 amxenent with 40 mcn . On the north of this river is Secow ocomoco with 40 men. Some what further Potapaco with 20. In the Ealt part of the bought of the river, is Pamacacack with 60 me . After Moy orwances with 100 . And laftly Nacotchtanke with 80 able men. The river 10 miles aboue this place maketh his paffage downe a low pleafant vally overfhaddowed in manie places with high rocky mountaines; from whence difill innumerable fivect and pleafant fprings,

Captaine Iobn Smitbinvirginia.

The fifth river is called Pawtuxunt, and is of a leffe pro- Pambuxun, , portion then the reff;but the channell is 16 or 18 fadome decpe in fome places. Here are infinit skuls of divers kinds of fifh more then elfewhere. Vpon this river dwell the people called Acquintanacksuak, Pawtuxunt and Mattapa. nient. 200 men was the greateff ftrength that could bee there perceived. But they inhabit togither, and not fo difperfed as the reft. Thefe of al other were found the molt civill to give intertainement.
Thirty leagues Northward is a river not inhabited, yet na ${ }^{\text {Bolus, } R \text {. }}$ vigable;for the red earth or clay refembling bole Armoniack the Englifh called it Bolus. At the end of the Bay where The head of the it is 6 or 7 miles in breadth, there fall into it 4 fmall rivers, ${ }^{\text {Bay. }}$ 3 of them iffuing from diverfe bogges invironed with high mountaines. There is one that commeth danorth 3 or 4 daies iourny fro the head of the Bay and fals from rocks \& mountaines, vpon this riuer inhabit a people called Safquefabanock. They are feated 2 daies higher then was paf-Safquefabazock lage for the difcovercrs Barge, which was hardly 2 toons, and had in it but 12 men to perform this difcoucry, wherein they lay aboue the fpace of 12 weekes vpon thofe grear waters in thofe vnknowne Countries, hauing nothing but a little meale or oatmeale and water to feed them; \& 1carfe halfe fufficient of that for halfe that time, but that by the

The vovuges and difcoveries of Savages and by the pleatic of fifh they found in all places, they made themfelues provifion as opportunitie lerved; yet had they not a marrince or any that had skill to trim their fayles, vie their oares, or any bufineffe belonging to the Barge, but 2 or 3 . The reft being Gentlemen or as ignorant in fuch toyle and labour, yet neceffitic in a hort time by their Captaincs diligence and example, taught the to become fo perfect, that what they did by fuch fmall meanes, Ileaue to the cenfure of the Reader to iudge by this difcourfe and the annexed Map. But to proceed , 60 of thofe $\mathcal{S a f q u e \int a b a n o c k s , \text { came to the diicouerers with skins, }}$ Bowes, Arrowes, Targets,Beads,Swords, and Tobacco pipes for prefents. Such great and well proportioned men, arc feldome feene, for they feemed like Giants to the Englifh, yea and to the neighbours, yet feemed of an honeft \& fimple difpofition, with much adoe reftraincd from adoring the difcoverers as Gods. Thofe are the moft ftrange people of all thofe Countries, both in language and attire; for their language it may well befeeme their proportions, founding from them, as it were a great voice in a vault, or bshough. caue, as an Eccho. Their attire is she skinnes of Beares, and Woolues, fome haue Caffacks made of Beares heades and skinnes that a mans necke goes through the skinnes neck, and the eares of the beare fatzed to his fhoulders behind, the nofe and teech hanging downe his breaft, and at the end of the nofe hung a Beares Pawe, the halfe nlecues com ming to the cibowes were the neckes of Beares and the armes through the mouth with pawes hanging at their no fes. Onc had the head of a Woolfe hanging in a chaine for a Iewell, his Tobacco pipe 3 quarters of a yard long, prettily carued with a Bird, a Beare, a Deare, or fome fuch devife at the great end, fufficient to beat out the braines of a man, with bewes, and arrowes, and clubs, futable to their greatneffe and conditions. Thefe are fcarfe knowne to Powbatan. They can make neere 600 able and mighty men and are pallifadoed in their Townes to defend them from the Maffawomekes their mortall enimies. 5 of their chiefe Werowances came aboard the difcoverers and croffed the Bay ia their Barge. The picture of the greatcf of them is fignified in the Mappe. The calf of whole leg was 3 guarter of a yard about, and all the reft of his limber fo anfwemable to that proportion, that he feemed the goodlieft man that cur we beheld. His hire, the one file was long, the other fore clone with a ridge over his crown like a cocks combe. His arrowes were flue quarters long, headed with flints or Splinters of fores, in forme like a heart, an inch broad, and an inch and a halle or more long. Thee hee wore in a woolues shine at his back for his quiver, his bow in the one hand and his clubbe in the other, as is described.

Tbe defcription

Captained Lobo Smith in Virginia.

On the Eat five the $\mathcal{B a y}$ is the river of Tockwhogh, \& Tockphogh. Be $_{0}$ upon it a people that can make 100 men, feared forme 7 miles wit hin the river: where they have a Fort very wal pal liladoed and mantelled with the barke of trees. Next to them is $O$ zanies with 60 men. More to the South of that Eat fid of the Bay, the river of Rapabanock, neere vito R pabaanock. R. which is the river of Kuskarawaock. Upon which is feted Kuskarmaock. a people with 200 men. After that is the river of Cants ${ }^{R}$. Wighcocomoco, and on it a people with 100 men. The eeo- Wighcocomocs ple of tho fe rivers arc of little ftature, of another language from the reft, and very rude. But they on the river of Accbanock with 40 men, and they of Accomack 80 men doth equalize any of the Territories of Powhatan \& fpeake his language, who over all tho fe doth rule as king.
Southward they went to forme parts of Cbawonock and cbareseccio. the Mangoags to fearch them there left by $S^{\prime \prime}$ walter Ram leigh; for thole parts to the Towne of Chifapeack hath formerry been difcovered by $M r$ Hcriots and $S^{r}$ Rap Layne. Amonglt thole people are thus many feverall nations of Sundry languages, that environ Powhatans Territories. The fiveral lan The Cbawonokes, the Mangoags, the Monacans, the Man-guges. *stokes, the Mafawomekes, the Powhatans, the Safguefabanocks, the Atquanachukes, the T ockwoghes, and the Kufcarawaokes. Al thofe not any one vnderitandeth another but by Interpreters. Their feverall habitations are more plainly def'cribed by this annexed Mappe, which will prefent to the eie, the way of the mountaines and current of the riuers, with their feucrall turnings, bayes, fhoules, Ifles, Inlets, and creekes, the breadth of the waters, the diftances of places and fuch like. In which Mappe obferue this, that as far as you lee the little Croffes on riuers, mountaines, or other places hauc beene difcovered; the reft was had by information of the Savages, and are fet downe, according to their inftructions.

Offuch things which are naturall in Uirg iniad and hove they vee them.

Uirginia doth afford many excellent vegitables and liuing Creatures, yet graffe there is little or none, but what

Why there is lis slegrafle.

Woods with sbeir frists. ther. Of walnuts there is 2 or 3 kindes; there is a kind eof supgogededypes wood we called Cypres, becaufe both the wood, the fruit, and leafe did molt refemble it, and of thofe trees there are fome necre 3 fadome about at the root very Atraight, and 50,60 , or 80 foot without a braunch. By the dwelling of the Savages are fome great Mulbery trees, and in fome parts of fhe Countrey, they are found growing naturally Mulberics. in prettie groues. There was an aflay made to make filke, $&$ and furely the wormes profpered excellent well, till the mafter workeman fell ficke. During which time they were cater with rats.

Capkaine Iohn Smith in Virginia.

II

In fome parts were found fome Chefnuts whofe wild fruit chefinte. equalize the belt in Firance, Spaine, Germany, or Italy, to their talts that had talted them all. Plumbs there are of 3 forts. The red and white are like rur hedge plumbs, but the other which they call Putchamins, grow as high as a Palmeta:the fruit is like a medler; it is firft greene then yellow, and red when it is ripe; ifit be not ripe it will drawe a mans mouth awrie, with much torment, but when it is ripe, it is as deliciousas an Apricock.

They hauc Cherries and thofe are much like a Damfen, cherries. but for theirtaltes and colour we called them Cherries.we fee fome few Crabs, but very finall and bitter. Of vines Vines. great abundance in many parts that climbe the toppes of the higheft trees in fome placest, but thefe beare but fewe grapes. But by the riuers and Savage habitations where they are not overfhadowed from the funne, they are covered with fruit, though never pruined nor manured. Of thofe hedge grapes wee made neere 20 gallons of wine, which was neare as good as your French Brittifh wine, but certainely they would proue good were they well manured. There is another fort of grape neere as great as a Cherry, this they call Mefaminnes, they bee fatte, and the iuyce thicke. Neither doth the talt fo well pleafe whe they are made in wine. They haue a mall fruit growing on little trese, husked like a Chefnut, but the fruit moft like a very finallacorne. This they call Chechinquamins which they etceme a great daintie. They haue a berry much like our goofeberry, in greatneffe, colour, and taft; thofe they call

The voyages and difcoveries of Rawcomenes, and doe eat them raw or boyled. Of thefe na* turall fruits they liuc a great part of the yeare, which they

How they vfe their frwits spaluut milfe.

Gumisos, cedirs. Saxafras trees. wfe in this manner, The walinuts, Chef huts, eAcornes, and Chechriquamens are dryed to keepe. When they need then they breake them betweene two flones, yet lome part of the walnut flels will cleaue to the fruit. Then doe they dry them againe vpon a mat ouer a hurdle. After they put it into a morter of wood, and beat it very finall:that done they mix it with water, that the fhels may finke to the bottome. This water will be coloured as milke, which they cal Pawcohifcora, and kcepe it for their vfe. The fruit lite medlers they call Putchamins, they caft vppon hurdles on a mat and preferue them as Pruines. Of their Chesnuts and Chechinquamens boyled 4 houres, they make both broath and bread for their chiefe men, or at their greate ffealts. Befides thofe fruit trees, there is awhite populer, and another tree like vnto it, that yecldeth a very cleere and an odoriferous Gumme like Turpentine, which fome called Balfom. There are alfo Cedars atid Saxafras trees. They alfo yeeld gummes in a fmall proportion of themfelues. Wee tryed conclufions to extract it out of the wood, but nature afforded more then our arts.

Bervies.

Matoume.

Stramberries

In the watry valleyes groweth a berry which they call Ocoughtanamnis very much like vnto Capers. Thefe they dry in fommer. When they will eat them they boile them neare halfe a day; for otherwife they differ not much from poyfon. Mattoume groweth as our bents do in meddows. The feede is not much vnlike to rie, though much finaller. this they vfe for a dainty bread buttered with deare fuet.
During Somer there are either frawberries which ripen in April; or mulberries which ripẽ in May & Iunc.Rafpifes hurres; or a fruit that the Inhabitãts call Maracocks, which is a pleafant wholfome fruit much like a lemond. Many ssearbs. bearbes in the fpring time there are commonly difperfed throughout the woods, good for brothes andifallets, as Yiolets, , urnin, Sorrell, &cc. Befides many we vfed whefe names names we know not.

Captaine Iabn SmitbinVirginia.

The chiefe roote they haue for foode is called Tocka- Roots. whoughe, It groweth like a flagge in low muddy frefhes. In one day a Savage will gather fufficient for a weeke. Thefe rootes are much of the greatnes \& t tafic of Potatoes. They vfe to coucr a great many of thê with oke leaues \& ferne, and then couer all with earth in the manner of a colepit; $\mathrm{o}^{-}$ ver it, on each fide, they continue a great fire 24 houres before they dare eat it. Raw it is no better then poifon, 2 being roalted, except it be tender and the heat abated, or fliced and dried in the fun, mixed with forrell and meale or fuch like, it will prickle and torment the throat extreamely, and yet in fommer they vfe this ordinarily for bread.

They baue an other roote which they call wigh facan: as shother feedeth the body, fo this cureth their hurts & difcafes. It is $a$ fimall root which they bruife and apply to the wound. Pocones, is a fmall roote that groweth in the moŭt Pocones a fmall taines, which being dryed & beate in powder turnech red. Roote. And this they vfe for fivellings, aches, annointing their ioints, painting their heads and garments. They account it very pretious and of much worth. Musquafpenne is a roote of the bigneffe of a finger, aud as red as bloud. In drying it will wither almoft to nothing. This they vfe to paint their Mattes, Targets and fuch like.

There is alfo Pellitory of Spaine, Safafrage, and diwers o- Pellithy. ther fimples, which the Apothecaries gathered, and com- Salafrage. mended to be good, and medicinable.

In the low Marifhes growe plots of Onyons contai- Onjons. ning an acre of ground or more in many places; but they are frnall not paft the bigneffe of the Toppe of ones Thumbe.

Ofbeaftes the chiefe are Deare, nothing differing from Their cbiefe ours. In the deferts towards the heads of the riuers, ther are beafs aredeare many, but amonglt the riuers few. There is a beaft they call -Aroughcun, much like a badjer, but vfeth to litic on trees as Aroughcan. Squirrels doe.Their Squirrels fome are neare as greate as squirely

14

 The vopages and difcoveries ofour finalleft fort of wilde rabbits, fome blackifh or blacke and white, but the mof are gray.

A xwall beaff they bame, they call Afapanick but we call

A 1 apanick squirrel fyiss.
opafom.

MuJafens.

Beares. The Beaver. themflying fquirrels, becaufe ipreading their legs, and fo ftuetching the largeneffe of their skins that they haue bin feene to lly 30 or 40 yards. An Opaffom bath a bead like a Swine, & a taile like a Rat, and is of the bignes of a Cat. Vuder her belly fhee hath a bagge, whercin thee lodgeth, carrieth, and fucketh her young. Muflafcus, is a beatt of the forme and nature of our water Rats, but many of thë fmell exceeding ftrongly of muske. TheirHares no bigger then our Conies, and few of them to be found.

Their Beares are very little in comparifon of thofe of Mufcovia and Tartaria. The Beaver is as bigge as an ordinary water dogge, but his legges exceeding fhort. His fore feete like a dogs, his hindei feet like a Swans. His taile fomewhat likethe forme of a Racket bare without haire, which to eate the Savages cttecme a great delicate.

otters.

 They baue many Otters which as the Beavers they take with fnares, and efteeme the skinnes great ornaments, and of all thofe bealts they vfe to feede when they catch them.There is alfo a beaft they call Vetchunquoyes in the forme Vetchunqugyes. of a wilde Cat, their Foxes are like our filuer haired Conies Foxes. Dogges.

Martins.

 Polcats. Weefels,and Minkes.Eirds, of a fimall proportion, and not fimelling like thofe in England. Their Dogges of that country are like their Wolues, and cannot barke but howle, and their wolues not much bigger then our Englifh Foxes. Martins, Powlecats, weefSels and Minkes we know they haue, becaufe we haut feen many of their skinnes, though very feldome any of them aliue. But one thing is frange that we could never perceiue their vermine deftroy our bennes, Egges nor Chickens nor do any hurt, nor their flyes nor ferpents anie waie pernitious, where in the South parts of America they are alwaics dangerous and often deadly.

Ofbirds the Eagle is the greateft devourer. Hawkes there be of diuerfe forts as our Falconers called them. Spa-rowhawkes, Lanarets, Go foawkes, Falcons & O.Scraycs, but they all pray molt vpon fifh. Pattridges there are little biggerthen our Quailes, wilde Turkies are as bigge as our tame. There are woofels or blackbirds with red fhoulders, thrufhes and diuerfe forts of finall birds, fome red, fome blew, fearce fo bigge as a wrenne, but few in Sommer. In winter there are great plenty of Swans, Craynes, gray and white with blacke wings, Herons, Geefe, Brants, Ducke, Wigcon, Dottcrell, Oxeies, Parrats and Pigeons . Ofall thofe forts great abundance, and fome other Atrange kinds to vs vnknowne by name. But in fommer not any or a very few to be feenc.

Capeaine Iohn Smith invirginia.

Offin we were beft acquainted with Surgeon, Grampus, Fifa. Porpus, Seales,Stingraies, whofe tailes are very dangerous. Brettes, mullets, white Salmonds, Trowts, Soles, Plaice, Herrings, Conyfifh,Rockfifh,Eeles,Lampreyes, Catfifh, Shades, Pearch of 3 forts, Crabs, Shrimps, Creuifes, Oyfters, Cocles and Mufcles. But the mof frange finf is'a fimal one fo like che picture of S. George his Dragon, as polfible can be, except hislegs and wings, and the Todefifh which will fwell till it belike to bruft, when it commeth into the aire.

Concerning the entrailes of the earth little can be faide for certainty. There wanted good Refiners.for thefe that The Rocks. tooke vpon them to have skill this way, tooke vp the waw fhings from the mounetaines and fome moskered fhining itones and fpangles which the waters brought down, flattering themelues in their own vaine conceits to haue bin fuppofed that they were not, by the meanes of that ore, if it proued as their arts and iudgements expected. Only this is certaine, that many regions lying in the fame latitude, afford mines very rich of diucrfe natures. The cruft alfo of thefe rockes would eafily perfwade a man to beleeue there are other mines then yron and fteele, if there were but meanes and men of experience that knew the mine from $弓are.

Of their Planted fruits in $V_{\text {irg inia and }}$ how they yfe them.How they di-

They diuide the yeare into 5 . feafons. Their winter fome vide the yeare. call Popanow, the fring Cattapeuk, the fommer Cobatrayough, the earing of their Cornc Nepinough, the harueft &c fall ofleafe Taquitock. From September vntill the middt of Nouember are the chiefe Fealts and facrifice. Then hane they plenty offruits as well planted as naturall, as corne, greene and ripe, fifh, fowle, and wilde beaftes excecding tat.

The greatell labour they take, is in planting their corne, How shey prepare the gromsd for the country naturally is oucrgrowne with wood. To prepare the ground they bruife the barke of the trees ncare the root, then do they feortch the roots with fire that they grow no mote. The next yeare with a crooked peece of wood, they beat vp the woodes by the rootes, and in that moulds they plant their corne. Their manner is this. They make a hole in the earth with a ficke, and into it they put 4 graines of wheate, and 2 of beanes. Thefe holes they make 4 foote one from another; Their women and childrë do continually keepe it with weeding, & whë it is growne midle high, they hill it about like a hop-yard.
How they plant. In Aprill they begin to plant, but their chiefe plantatió is in May, and fo they continue till the midft of Iune. What they plant in Aprill they reape in Augult, for May in September, for Iune in October; Every ftalke of their corne commonly beareth two eares, fome 3 , feldome any 4 , many but one & fome none. Every eare ordinarily hath betwixt 200 and 500 graines. The ftalke being green hath a fweet iuice in it, fomewhat like a fuger Cane, which is the caufe that when they gather their corne greene, thicy fucke the italkes: for as wee gather grecne peafe, fo doe they theircorne being greene, which excelleth their old. They plant sllo peafe they cal Affertamens, which are the fanc they cal in Italy', Fagioli. Their Beanes are the fame the Turkes cal Garnanfes, but thefe they much efteeme for dainties.

Captaine Iobn Smyth in Virginia.

7

Their corne they roft in the eare greene, and bruifing it in a morter of wood with a Polt, lappe it in rowles in the tbeir cerne 0 leaues of their corne, and fo boyle it for a daintic. They alfo referuc that corne late planted that will not ripe, by roafting it in hot afhes, the heat thercof drying it. In winter they efteeme it being boyled with beans for a rare difh, they call Paufarowmena. Their old wheat they firft feep a night in hot vater, in the morning pounding it in a morter. They vfe a fmall basket for their Temmes, then pound againe the great, and fo leparating by dafhing their hand in the basket, receaue the flower in a platter made of wood fraped to that forme with burning and hels.Tempering this flower with water , they make it either in cakes couering them with aflies till they bee baked, and then wafhing them in faire water they drie prefently with their owne heat:or elfe boyle them in water eating the broth with the bread which they call Ponap. The grouts and peeces of the corncs remaining, by fanning in a Platter or in the wind, away, the branne they boile 3 or 4 houres with water, which is an ordinary food they call $V f$ fatabamen. But fome more thrifty then cleandy, doe burne the core of the eare to powder which they call Pungnough, mingling that in their meale, but it nevertafted well in bread, nor broth. Their fifh and flefh they boyle either very tenderly, How they vefe or broyle it lo long on hurdles over the fire, or elfe after theirfff and the $S$ panif fafhion, putting it on a fpit, they turne firft the $f e \rho h_{0}$ one fide, then the other, tili it be as drie as their ierkin beefe in the welt Indies, that they may keepe it a month or more without putrifying. The broth of fifh or flefh they eate as commonlyas the meat.

In May alfo amonglt their corne they plant Pumpeons, Planted fuith. and a fruit like vnto a muske millen, but leffe and worfe, which they call CJacocks. Thefe increafe exceedingly , & ripen in the beginning of Iuly, and continue vatil September.They plant alfo Maracocks a wild fruit like a lemmon, which alfo incheafe infinitely. They begin to ripe in Sep-sem-
tember and continue till the end of October. When alt their fruits be gathered, little els they plant, & this is done by their women and children; neither doth this long fufo fice them, for neere 3 parts of the yeare, they only obferue times and feafons, and liue of what the Country naturally affordeth from hand to mouth, &c.

The commodities in Uirgenia or that may be bad by induftrie.
The mildneffe of the aire, the fertilitie of the foile, and the fituation of the rivers are fo propitious to the nature & vfe of man as no place is more convenient for pleafure, profit, and mans fultenance. Vnder that latitude or climat, here will liue any bealts, as horfes, goats, fheep, affes, hens, &c.as appeared by them that were carried thether. The waters, Ifles, and fhoales, are full of fafe harbours for fhips of warre or marchandize, for boats of all fortes, for tranfo portation or fifhing, &c. The Bay and riuers haue much marchandable finh and places fit for Salt coats, building of thips, making of iron, &c.

Mufcovza and Polonia doc yearely receaue many thouThecormodities, fands,for pitch, tarre, fope afhes, Rofen, Flax, Cordage, Sturgeon,,mafts, yards, wainfcot, Firres, glaffe, \& fuch like, alfo Swetbland for iron and copper. France in like mannes for Wine, Canvas, and Salt, Spaine afinuch for Iron, Steele, Figges,Reafons, and Sackes.Italy with Silkes, and Velvets confumes our chiefe commodities. Holand maintaines it felfe by filhing and trading at our owne doores. All thefe temporize with other for neceffities, but all as vncertaine as peace or warres.Befides the charge, travell, and danger in tranfporting them, by feas, lands, ftormes, and Pyrats. Then how much hath $\dot{V}$ irginia the prerogatiue of all thofe florihhing kingdomes for the benefit of our land, whenas within one hundred miles all thofe are to bee had, either yeady provided by nature, or elfe to bee prepared, were there but induftrious men to labour. Only of Copper wee may doubt is wanting but there is good probabilitie that both copper and better munerals are there to be had for their labor. Other Countries haue it. So thē here is a place a nurfe for fouldiers, a practife for marriners, a trade for marchants, a reward for the good, and that which is moft of all, a bufineffe (moft acceptable to God) to bring fuch poore infidels to the true knowledge of God and his holy Gofpell.

Captaine Iobn Smith in Virginia.

19

Of the naturall Inbabitants

 of Virginix.The land is not populous, for the men be fewe; their far greater number is of women \& children. Within 60 miles of Iames Towne there are about fome 5000 people, but of able men fit for their warres fcarfe 1500 . To nourifh fo The number. many together they haue yet no means becaufe they make fo final a benefit of their land, be it never fo fertill. 6 or 700750 men were hane beene the molt hath beene feene together, whẽ they the mof were gathered themfelues to baue furprifed Captaine Smyth at Jecre legecther Pamavuke, hauing but is to withltand the worft of their to bhe baye thoghtrifuric. As finall as the proportion of ground that hath yet $\int_{\text {fed cappaine }}$ beene difcovered, is in comparifon of that yet vnknowne, smith. The people differ very much in ftature, elipecially in lan- $A$ defcriptios of guage, as before is expreffed. Some being very great as the ibe people. Sefquefabamocks;others very little, as the Wighoocomocoes: but gencrally tall and Atraight, of a comely proportion, \& of a colour browne when they are of any age, but they are borne white. Their haire is gencrally black, but few haue any beards. The men weare halfe their heads Thaven, the The barberso other halfe longfor Barbers chey vfe their women, who with 2 The ls will grate a way the haire, of any faftion they pleafe. The women are cut in many fafhions agreeable to their yeares but ever fome part remaineth long. They are The connfiution very ftrong, of an able body and full of agilitic, able to endure to lie in the woods vnder a trec by the fire, in the worft of winter, or in the weedes and grafle, in Amm $6 u f$ cado in the Sommer. They are inconftant in everie The dipopitions thing, but what feare conftraineth them to keepe. Craftie,

C 2

The voyages and difcoveries of

 timerous, quicke of apprehenfio & very ingenuous. Some are of difpofition fearefull, fome bold, molt cautelous, all Savage. Generally covetous of coppeer, beads, & fuch like trafh. They are foone moved to anger, and fomalitious, that they feldome forget an iniury:they feldome fteale one from another, lealt their coniurers thould reueale it, and fo they be purfued and punifhed. That they are thus feared is certaine, but that any can reueale their offences by coniuration I am doubtfull. Their women are carefull not to bee fufpected of difhonefty without the leaue of their huf-The polffious bands. Each houfhold knoweth their owne lands & gardens, and molt litue of their owne labours. For their apparell, they are fome time couered with the skinnes of wilde beafts, whichin winter are dreffed with the haire, but in fommer without. The better fort vfe large mãtels of deare skins not much differing in fafhion fro the Irifh mantels. Some inbrodered with white beads, fome with copper,other painted after their manner. But the common fort haue fearce to cover their nakedneffe but with graffe, the leaucs of trees, or fuch like. We haue feen fome vie mantels made of Turky feathers, fo prettily wrought and wouen with threeds that nothing could bee difcerned but the feathers. That was exceeding warme and very handfome. But the women are alwaies couered about their midles with a skin Sbeir ornaméts and very fhamefalt to be feenc bare. Theyadorne the felues moft with copper beads and paintings. Their women fome have their legs, hands, brefts and face cunningly imbrodered with diuerfe workes, as bealts, ferpentes, artificially wrought into their flefh with blacke foots. In each eare commonly they haue 3 great holes, whereat they hange chaines bracclets or copper. Some of theirmen weare in thofe holes, a final greene & yellow coloured fnake, neare halfe a yard in length, which crawling & lapping her felfe about his necke often times familiarly would kiffe his lips. Others wear a dead Rat tied by the tail. Sốc ou their heads weare the wing of a bird, or fome large feather with a Rat-tell.Thofe Rattels are fomewhat like the ch ape of a Rapier butleffe, which they take from the taile of a finake. Many haue the whole skinne of a hawke or fome ftrange fowle, ftuffed with the wings abroad. Others a broad peece of copper, and fome the hand of their enemy dryed. Their heads and fhoulders are painted red with the roote Pocone braied to powder mixed with oyle, this they hold in fomer to prelerue them from the heate, and in winter from the cold. Many other formes of paintings they vef, but he is the moft gallant that is the moft monfrous to behould.

Their buildings $&$ habitations are for the inoft part by Thcir buildings the riuers or not farre diftant from fome frefh fpring. Their houfes are buile like our Arbors of fimall young frrings buwed and tyed, and fo clofe covered with mats, or the barkes of trees very handfomely, that notwithftanding either winde, raine or weather, they are as warme as fooues, but very fmoaky, yet at the toppe of the houfe there is a hole made for the finoake to goe into right over the fire.

Againft the fire they lie on little hurdles of Reedes co. Their lodgings, vered with a mat borne from the ground a foote and more by a hurdle of wood. On thefe round about the houfe they lic heads and points one by thother againft the fire, fome covered with mats, fome with skins, and fome ftarke naked lie on the ground, from 6 to 20 in a houle. Their houfes ate in the midit of their fields or gardens which are fmal plots Tbeir gaddena of ground.Some 20 ,fome 40 . fome 100 . fome 200 . Tome more, fome leffe, fome times from 2 to 100 af thofe houfes togither, or but a littic feparated by groues of trees.Neare their habitations is little finall wood or old trees on the ground by reafon of their burning of them for fire. So that a man inay gallop a horle amongft thefe woods any waie, but where the creekes or Rivers fball hinder.

Men women and children haue their feverall names ac- How they ve cording to the feuerall hunor of their Parents. Their wo- tbeci chilideren. men(they fay)are cafilie deliuered of childe, yet doe they loue children verie dearly. To make them hardy, in the coldeft mornings they the wafh in the riuers and by painting and ointments fo tanne their skins, that after a year or two, no weather will hurt them.
The induftr) of The men beftowe their times in fifhing, hunting, wars & their woomth. fuch manlike exercifes, fcorning to be feene in any woma like exercife, which is the caule that the women be veric painefull and the men often idle. The women and children do the ref of the worke. They make mats, baskets, pots, morters, pound their corne,make their bread, prepare their victuals,plant their corne, gather their corne,beare al kind ofburdens and fuch like.

Their fire they kindle prefently by chafing a dry poinFow they frike ted flicke in a hole of a little fquare peece of wood, that fi-fire fres.

Their order of ring it felfe, will fo fire moffe, leaues, or anie fuch like drie thing, that will quickly burne. In March and Aprill they liue much vpon their fifhing, weares, and feed on fifh, Turkies and fquirrels. In May and Iure they plant their fielde s and liue moft of Acornes, walnuts, and fifh. But to mend their diet,fome difperfe themfelues in finall companies &o liue vpon fifh, beafts, crabs, oyfters, land Torteyfes,ftrawberries, mulberries, & fuch like.In Iune, Iulie, and Auguft they feedvpon the rootes of Tocknough berries, filh and greene wheat. It is ftrange.to fee how their bodies alter with their diet, cuen as the deare and wilde beaftes they feeme fat and leanc, ftrong and weak. Powhatan their great king and fome others that are provident, roft their fifh and flefh vpon hurdles as before is exprefied, and keepe it till fcarce times.

For fifhing and hunting and warres they vfe much their How they make bow and arrowes. They bring their bowes to the forme of chair bowes and ours by the frraping of a fhell. Their arrowes are made arrospes. fome offtraight young fprigs which they head with bone, fome 2 or 3 inches long. Thefe they vfe to fhoot at fquirrels on trees. An other fort of arrowes they vfe made of reeds. Thefe are peeced with wood, headed with fplinters of chin fall or fome Sharpe ftone, the fpurres of a Turkey, or the bill of fome bird. For his knife he hath the fplinter Tbeir kniwes. of a recd to cut his feathers in forme. With this knife alfo, he will ioint a Deare or any beaft, fhape his fhooes, bufkins, mantels, &cc. To make the noch of his arrow hee hath the tooth of a Beuer, let in alticke, wherewith he grateth it by degrees, His arrow head he quickly maketh with a little bone, which he ever wearethat his bracer, of any fplint of a fone, or glaffe in the forme of a hart and thefe they glew ta the end of their arrowes. With the finewes of Deare, and the tops of Deares hornes boiled to a ielly, they make a glew that will not diffolue in cold water.

For their wars alfo they vfe Targets that are round and made of the barkes of trees, and a fworde of wood at their backs, but oftentimes they vef for fwords the horne of a Deare put through a peece of wood in forme of a Pickaxe. Some a long fone fharpned at both ends wfed in the fame manner. This they were wont to vfe alfo for hatchets, but now by trucking they haue plenty of the fame forme of $y$ ron. And thofe are their chiefe inftruments and armes.

Their fifhing is much in Boats. Thefe they make of one Tbeir boats, tree by bowing & fcratching away the coles with fons & fhels till they haue made it in forme of a Trough. Some of them are an elne deepe, and 40 or 50 foot in length, and fome will beare 40 men , but the molt ordinary are fimaller and will beare 10,20 , or 30 according to their bignes. Infteed of oares, they vfe paddles and flicks with which they will row fafter then our Barges. Betwixt their hands and thighes, their women vfe to fpin, the barks of trees, deare finews, or a kind of graffe they call Pemmenaw, of thefe they make a thred very even & readily. This-thred ferveth for many vfes. As about their houfing, apparell, as alfo they make nets for filhing, for the quantity as formally braded as ours. They make alfo with it lines for angles. Their ter of a bone tied to the clift of a litle ftick, and with the ende of the line, they tie on the bate. They vfe alfolong arrowes tyed in a line wherewith they fhoote at fifh in the rivers. But they of Accarmack vfe tates like vinto Iavelins headed with bonc. With thefe they dart fifh fwimming in the water. They hauc alfo many artificiall weares in which they'get abundance offifh.

The voyages and difcoveries of

In their hunting and fifhing they take extreame paines; yet it being their ordinary exercife from their infancy, they cfteeme it a pleaiure and are very proud to be expert there. in. And by their continuall ranging, and travel, they know all the advantages and places moft frequented withDeare, Beaft,Fifh,Foule, Rootes, and Berrics. At their huntings they leaue their habitations, and reduce themflues into How they bunt companies, as the Tartars doe, and goe to the moft defert places with their families, where they fpend their time in hunting and fowling vp to wards the mountaines, by the heads of theirriuer $s$, where there is plentie of game. For betwixt the rivers the grounds are fo natrowe, that little commeth there which they devoure not. It is a marvel they can fo directly paffe thefe deferts, fome 3 or 4 daies iourney without habitation. Their hunting houfes are like vnro Arbours coucred with mats. Thefe their women beare after them, with Corne, Acomnes, Morters, and all bag and baggage they vfe. Whe they come to the place of exercife, euery man doth his beft to fhew his dexteritie, for by their excelling in thofe quallities, they get their wiucs. Forty yards will they fhoot icuell, or very neare the mark, and 120 is their beftat Random. At their huntings in the deferts they are commonly 2 or 300 together. Hauing found the Deare, they enuiron them with many fires, and betwixt the fires they place themfelues. And fome take their fands in the midft. The Deare being thus feared by the fires and their voices, they chace them fo long within that circle that many times they kill $6,8,10$, or 15 at a hunting. They vfe alfo to driue them into fome narrowe point of land; when they find that aduantage and fo for ce them into the river, where with their boats they hauc $A m b u f$ cadoes to dill them. When the y haue hot a Deare by iand, they follow him like blood hounds by the blood and firaine and oftentilines forake chem. Hares, Pateridges, Turkies, or Egges, fat or leane, young orold, they devoure all they car catch in their power. In one of theic huntings they found Captaine Smith in the difcoveric of the head of the river of Cbick abamazaza, where they flew his men, and tooke him prifoner in a Bogmie, wherc he faw thofe exercifes,& gathered thefe oblervations.

Captaine Iobn Smitb invirginia.

One Savage hunting alone, vfeth the skinne of a Deare One Savage bis. flit on the one fide, and foput on his arme, through the tixg alone. neck, fo that his hand comes to the head which is ftuffed, and the hornes, head, eies, eares, and every part as arteficially comuterfeited as they can devife. Thus fhrowding his body in the skinne by ftalking he approachech the Deare, crecping on the ground from one tree to another. If the Deare chance to find fault, orftande at gaze, hee turneth she head with his hand to his beft advantage to feeme like a Dcare, alfo gazing and licking himfelfe. So watching his beft aduantage to approach, hauing fhot him, hee chafeth him by his blood and ftraine till he get him.

When they intend any warres, the Werowances vfually Their confulceo hauc the advicc of their Priefts and Coniurers, and their tions. Allies and ancient friends, but chiefely the Prieftes determine their refolution. Every Werowance, or fome luftie fellow, they appoint Captaine over every nation. They feldome make warre for lands or goods, but for women and children, and principally for revenge. They haue ınany eni- Tbeir enimias mies, namely all their wefternely Countries beyond the mountaincs, and the heads of the rivers. Vpon the head of the Powbatans are the Monacans, whofe chiefe habitation is at Ruffawmenke, vnto whome the Moubemenchughes, the Maffmnacacks, the Monabaffanuggs, and ocher nations pay tributs. Vpon the head of the river of Toppabanock is 2 people called Mannahoacks. To thefe are contributers the Tauxfnitanias, the Shackaconias, the Outponcas, the Tegoneaes, the Whonkentyaes, the Stegarakes, the Haf innungas, and diuerfe others, all confederats with the Monacans though many different in language, and be very barbarous living for molt part of wild bealts and fruits: Beyond the mountaines from whence is the head of the river Patamomeke, the Savages report inhabit their moft mortall enimies, the Mafawo mekes vpon a great falt water, which by all likelyhood is either fome part of Commada fome great lake, or fome inlet of fome fea that falleth into the South fea. Thefe Maffawomekes are a great nation and very popu lous. For the heads of all thofe riuers, efpecially the Pattawomekes, the Pautuxuntes. The Saf quefabanocks, the Tockwoughes are continually tormented by them:of whofe crueltie,they generally complained, and very importunate they werc with Captaine Smith and his company to free fibiertion. them from thefe tormentors. To this purpole they offered food, conduct, affiftance, & continuall fubiectió.To whichs he concluded to effect, But the counfell then prefent emulating his fucceffe, would not thinke it fit to ipare him 40 men to be hazarded in thofe vnknowne regions, hauing paffed (as before was fooken of) but with $12, &$ fo was loit that opportunitie. Seaven boats full of thefe Maffawomeks the difcouerers encountred at the head of the Bay;whofe Targets,Baskets,Swords,Tobaccopipes, Platters, Bowes and Arrowes, and euery thing fhewed, they much excecdeed them of our parts, and their dexteritie in their fimall boats made of the barkes of trees fowed with barke and wellluted with gumme, argueth that they are feated vpon fome great water.

Againf all thefe enimies the Powhatans are conftrained fometimes to fight. Their chiefe attempts are by Straragems, trecheries, or furprifals. Yet the Werowances, woo men and children they put not to death but keepe the:r3 Captiues, They haue a methodin warse and for our plea.

Captaine Lohn Smith in Virginia.

fures they fhewd it vs, and it was in this manner performed at Mattapanient.
Having painted and difguifed themfelues in the fier ceft Their manner manner they could devife. They divided themfelues into of bates. $\mathrm{K}_{0}$ two Companies, ncare a roo in a company. The one company Called Monacans, the other Powhatans. Either army had their Captaine. Thefe as enimies tooke their fands a musket flot one from another; ranked themfelues is a breaft and each ranke from another 4 or 5 yards, not in fyle, but in the opening betwixt their fyles,So as the Reare could hoor as conueniently as the Front. Hauing thus pit ched the fields:from either part went a Meflenger with thefe conditions, that whofoever were vanquifhed, fuch as efcape vpon their fubmiffion in $\mathbf{2}$ daies after fhould liue, but their wiues and children fhould be prize for the Conquerers. The meffengers were no fooner returned, but they approached in their orders; On each flanke a Sarieant, and in the Reare an officer for levitenant, all duly keeping their orders, yet leaping \& finging after their accuftomed tune which they ve only in warres. Vpon the firf tightof arrowes they gaue fuch horrible fhouts and fcreeches, as though fo many infernall helhounds could not haue made them more terrible. When they had fent their arrowes they ioined together prettily, charging and retiring, every ranke feconding other. As they got advantage they catched their enimies by the haire of the head, and downe he came that was taken. His enimie with his wooden fword feemed ro beat out his braines, and ftill they crept to the Reare, to maintaine the skirmifh. The Monacans decreafing, the Powhatans charged them in the forme of a halfe moone;they vnwilling to be inclofed, fled all in a troope to their A mbufcadoes on whome they led them very cunninngly. The Moxacans difperfe themfelues among the frefh men, wh erevpon the Powhatans retired, with al fpeed to their feconds; which the Monacans feeing, took that advantage to retire againe to their owne battell, and fo each D 2 setur.

The voyages and difcoveries of

returned to their owne quarter. All their actions, voices & geftures, both in charging and retiring were fo flrained to the hight of their quallitie and nature, that the frangencs thereof made it feem very delightfull.
Their mufucks. For their muficke they vfe a thicke cane, on which they pipe as on a Recorder. For their warres they haue a great deepeplatter of wood. They cover the mouth thereof with a skin, at each corner they tie a walnur, which meeting on the backfide neere the bottome, with a fimall rope they twitch the togither till it be fo tought and itiffe, that they may beat vpon it as vpó a drumme. But their chiefe inftruments are Rattels made of finall gourds or Púpions hels. Of thefe they hauc Bafe, Tenor, Countertenor, Meane and Trible. Thefe mingled with their voices fometimes 20 or 30 togither, make fuch a terrible noife as would rather afTheir entertaia fright then delight any man. If any great commăder arriue ment, rabir tradifo at the habitation of a Werowance, they fpread a mat as the Turkes do a carpet for him to fit vpon. Vpó an other right oppofite they fit themfelues. Ther doe all with a tunable voice of fhowting bid him welcome. After this doe 2 . or more of their chiefeft men make an oration, teftifying their loue. Which they do with fuch vehemency & fo great palfions, that they fweate till they drop, and are fo out of breath they can fearce fpeake. So that a man would take them to be exceeding angry or ftarke mad. Such victuall as they haue, they fpend frecly ix at night where his lodging is appointed, they fet a woman frefl painted red with Poo cones and oile, to be his bedfellow.

Their manner of trading is for copper, beades, and fiuch like, for which they giue fuch commodities as they hauc, as skins, fowle, fifh, Hech, and their country corne. But their victuall is their chicfelt riches.
Tbsir pbijuche. Every fring they make thenfelues ficke with drunking the iuice of a root they call wighfacan, and water, whereof they powre fo great a quantity, that it purgeth them in 2 very volent mancr; fo that in $j$ or 4 daies after they fiarce recover their former health. Sometimes they are troubled with dropfies, fwellings, aches, and fuch like difeafes; for cure wherof they build a touc in the form of a douehoufe with mats, fo clofe that a fewe coales therein covered with a pot, will make the pacient fweate extreamely. For fwellings alfo they vfe fwal peeces of touchwood, in the forme of cloues, which pricking on the griefe they burne clofe to the flch, and from thence draw the corruption with their mouth. With this root wighfacan they ordinarily heal greene wounds. But to fcarrific a fiwelling or make incifion their beft inftruments are fome fplinted fone. Old vlcers or putrified hurtes are feldome feene cured amonght thẽ. They haue many profeffed Phifitions, who with their Their charmas charmes and Rattels with an infernall rowt of words and tocure. actions will feeme to fucke their inwarde griefe from their navels or their grieved places; but of our Chirurgians they were fo conceipted, that they belceued any Plaifter would heale any hurt.

Of their Religion.

There is yet in $U$ irgenia no place difcouered to bee $f 0$ Savage in which the Savages haue not a religion, Deare, and Bow, and Arrowes. All thing sthat were able to do the hurt beyond their prevention, they adore with their kinde of diuine worfhip;as the fire, water, lightning, thunder, our ordinance, peeces, horfes, &c. But their chiefe God they worfhip is the Diuell. Him they call Oke & ferue him more offeare then loue. They fay they haue coference with him, and fathion themfelues as neare to his fhape as they can imagine. In their Temples they haue his inage euill favouredly carued, and then painted and adorned with chaines copper, and beades, and conered with a skin, in fuch mäner as the deformity may well fuit with fuch a God. By him is commonly the fepulcher of their kings. Their bodies are now ibsy burgy firtt bowelled, then dryed vpon hurdles till they bee verie therkings. dry, and fo about the molt of their iointes and necke they hang bracelets or chaines of copper, pearle, and fuch like, as they ve to weare, their inwards they fuffe with copper beads and couered with a skin, hatchets and fuch trafh. Then lappe they them very carefully in white skins and fo rowle them in mats for their wineding fheetes. And in the Tombe which is an arch made of mats, they lay them orderly. What remaineth of this kinde of wealth their kings haue, they fer at their feet in baskets. Thefe Temples and bodies arc kept by their Prielts.
Their ordimary burisl!s.

Thsir Temples. earth with fharpe ftakes and the corpes being lapped in skins $&$ mats with their iewels, they lay them vpon ficks in the ground, and fo couer them with earth. The buriall ended, the women being painted all their faces with black cole and oile, doe fit 24 howers in the houles mourning & lamenting by turnes, with fuch yelling & howling as may expreffe their great paffions.

In every Territory of a werowance is a Temple & a Pric! 2 or 3 or more. Their principall Temple or place of fuperfition is at Uttamuffackat Pamaunke, neare vnto which is a houfe Temple or place of Powhatans.

Vpon the top of certaine redde fandy hils in the woods. There are 3 great houfes filled with images of their kings and Divels and Tombes of their Predeceffors. Thofe houfes are neare 60 foot in length built arbor wife after their building. This place they count fo holy as that but the Prieftes and kings dare come into them; nor the Savages dare not'go pp the river in boats by it, but that they folenly calt fome peece of copper white beads or Pocones into the river, for feare their Oke fhould be offended and revéged of them.
Their oinamets for their Priefis

In this place commonly is refident 7 Priefts. The chiefe differed frome the reft in his ornaments, but inferior Priefts could hardly be knowne from the comon people, but that they had not fo many holes in their eaies to hang their iewels at. The ornaments of the chiefe Pricft was certain attires for his head made thus. They tooke a dofen or 16 or more fnake skins and fuffed them with moffe, and of weefels and other vermine skins a good many. All thefe they tie by theirtailes, fo as all their tailes mecte in the toppe of their head, like a great Taffell. Round about this Tafficll is as it were a crown of feathers, the skins hang round about his head ne cke and fhoulders and in a manner cover his face. The faces of all their Priefts are painted as vgly as they can devife, in their hands they had every one his Rattell, fome bafe, fome finaller. Their devotion was moft in fongs which the chiefe Prieft beginneth and the reft followed him, fometimes he maketh invocations with brokẽ fentences by flarts and ftrange paffions, $&$ at every paufe, the reft give a fhort groane.

It could not bee perceiued that they keepe any day as more holy then other; But only in fome great diftreffe of want, feare of enimies, times of triumph and gathering to- Their times of gither their fruits, the whole country of men women and folemnitisso children come togither to iolemnities. The manner of their devotion is, fometimes to make a great fire, in the houfe or ficlds, and all to fing and dance about it with rattles and fhouts togither, 4 or 5 houres. Sometime they fet a man in the midft, and about him they dance and fing, he all the while clapping his hands as if he would keepe time, & after their fongs and dauncings ended they goe to their Fealts.

They haue alfo diuers coniurations one they made whé Their coniurian Captaine Smith was their prifoner(as they reported)to timns. know if any more of his countrymen would ariue there, & what he there intended. The manner of it was thus. Firft they made a faire fire in a houfe; about this fire fet 7 Priefts fetting him by them, and about the fire, they made a circle of meale. That done the chiefe Prieft attired as is expreffed began to fhake his rattle, and the relt followed him ist his Fong. At the end of the fong, he laid downe 5 or 3 graines of wheat and fo continued counting his fongs by the graines, till 3 times they incirculer the fire, then they di-

Thbir altays. remony.

They hate alfo certaine Altar fones they call Pawcorances, but thefe ftand from their Temples, fome by their houfes,other in the woodes and wilderneffes. Vpon this they offer blood, deare fuet, and Tobacco. Thefe they doe when they returne from the warres, from hunting, and vp-

Sorifices to the watcr. on many other occafions. They haue alfo another fuperftition that they vfe in formes, when the waters are rough invided the graines by certaine numbers with little ftickes, laying downe at the ende ofeuery fong a little fticke. In this manner they fat 8,10 , or 12 houtes without ceafe, with fuch firange fretching of their armes, & violent paffrons and geitures as might well feeme frange to him they fo coniured who but every houre expected his end : not any meat they did eat till late in the cvening they had finifhed this worke, and then they feafted him and thenfelues with much mirth, but 3 or 4 daies they continued this cethe riuers and fea coalts. Their Coniurers runne to the water fides, or paffing in their boats, after many hellifh outcries and invocations, they caft Tobacco, Copper, Pocone s or iuch trafh into the water, to pacifie that God whome they thinke to be very angry in thofe formes. Before their dinners and fuppers the better fort will take the firlt bit, and caftitin the fire, which is all the grace they are known to vic.

In fome part of the Country they haue yearely a facrifice of children.Such a one was at ©uiyoughcobanock fome

Their folcmne facrifices of childr en. ro miles from Iames Towne and thus performed. Fifteene of the propereft young boyes, betweene 10 and is yeares of age they painted white. Hauing brought then forth the people fpent the forenoone in dancing and finging about them with rattles. In the afternoone they put thofechildre to the roote of a tree. By themall the men food in a guard, every one hauing a Batinado in his hand, made of reeds boundrogether. This made a lane betweene them all along, through which there were appointed. 5 young men to fetch thefe childre: fo every one of the fue wêt through the guard to fetch a child eachafter other by turnes, the guard fearelefly beating them with their Battinadoes, and they patiently enduring and receauing all, defending the children with their naked bodies from the vnmercifull blowes that pay them foundly though the children efcape. All this while the women weepe and cric out very paffionately, prouiding mats, skinnes, moffe, and drie wood, as things fitting their childrens funerals. After the children were thus paffed the guard, the guard tore down the trees, branches, and boughs, with fuch violence that they rent the body, and made wreathes for their heads, or bedecked their haire with the leaues. What elfe was done with the children, was notideene, but they were all cat on a heape, in a valley as dead, where they made a great feaft for al the company. The werowance being demanded the meaning of this facrifice, anfwered that the children were not al dead, but that the Okeor Divell did fucke the blood from their left breaft, who chanced to be his by lot, till they were dead, out the reft were kept in the wilderneffe by the yong mentill nine moneths were expired, during which time they mult not conuerfe with any, and of thele were made their Priefts and Coniurers. This facrifice they held to bee fo neceffarie, that if they fhould omit it, their Oke or Divel and all their orher Quayoughoofughes which are their other Gods, would let them haue no Deare, Turkies, Corne, 1 nor fint, and yet befides, hee would make a great flaughteramongft them.

Ceptaine Tohn Smith in Virginia.

They thinke that their Werowances and Prieftes which Their refurrso they alfo cfteeme Quiyoughcofughes, when they are dead, Eiion. doe goe beyound the mountaines towardes the fetting of the fun, and ever remaine there in forme of their Oke, with their heads painted with oile and Pocones, finely trimmed with feathers, and fhal haue beades, hatchets, copper, and tobacco, doing nothing but dance and fing, with all cheir Predeseffors. But the common people they fuppofe fhall not liue after death.
To diuert them from this blind idolatrie, many vfed their belt indeanours, chietly with the Werowances of $\mathrm{Q} u$ iyougbcobanock, whole devotion, apprehenfion, and good difpofition, much exceeded any in thofe Countries, who though we could not as yet preuaile withall to forlake his falfe Gods, yet this de did belecuc that our God as much exceeded theirs, as our Gumnes did their Bowes \& Arrows and many times did fend to the Prefident, at Iames towne, men with prefens, intreating them to pray to his God for raine, for his Gods would not fend him any. And in this lamentable ignotance doe thefe poore foulcs facrifice them felues to the Diuell, not knowing their Creator.

Of the manner of the $V$ irginians

governement.

Although the countrie people be very barbarous, yet haue they amongit them fuch governement, as that theis Magiftrats for good commanding, and their people for dus fubiection, and obeying, excell many places that would be counted very civill. The forme of their Common wealth is a monarchicali gouernement, one as Emperour ruleth ouer many kings or governours. Their chiefe ruler is called Powhatan, and taketh his name of the principall place of dwelling called Powbatan. But his proper name is Wabunfonacock. Some countries he hath which have been his anceftors, and came vnto him by inheritance, as the countrie called Powhatan, A Arrohateck, APpamatuke, Pamavinke, Youghtarud, and CMattapanient. All the reft of his Terrio tories exprefled in the Map, they report haue beene his feuerall conquefts. In all his ancient inheritances, hee hath houfes built after their manner like arbours, fome 30 fome 40 yardes long, and at euery houfe provifion for his entertainement according to the time. At Werowcomoco, he was feated ypon the Northfide of the riuer Pamavone, fome 14 miles from Iames Towne, where for the molt part, hee was zefident, but he tooke fo little pleafure in our neare neigho bous.

Captaine Tohn Smyth in Virginla.

bourhood, that were able to vifit him againft his will in 6 or 7 houres, that he retired himfelf to a place in the deferts at the top of the riucr Cbickahamania betweene Youghtasund & Powhatan. His habitation there is called Orapacks Adefription of where he ordinarily now refideth. He is of parfonage a tall Powhatan. well proportioned man, with a fower looke, his head fomwhat gray, his beard fo thinne that it feemeth none at al, his age neare 60 ; of a very able and hardy body to endure any labour. About his perfon ord inarily attendeth a guard of 40 or 50 of the tallelt men his Country doth afford. E- His attendanse very night vpon the 4 quarters of his houfe are 4 Sentinels ard watch. each ftanding from other a flight fhoot, and at euery halfe houre one from the Corps du guard doth hollowe, vnto whome every Sentincll doth anfwer round from his fand; if any faile, they prefently fend forth an officer that beateth himextreamely.

A mile from Orapakes in a thicket of wood hee hath a houfe in which he keepeth his kind of Treafure, as skinnes, His treafurie. copper, pearle, and beades, which he foreth vp againft the time of his death and buriall. Here alfo is his ftore of red paint for ointment, and bowes and arrowes. This houfe is 50 or 60 yards in length, frequented only by Prieftes. At the 4 corners of this houfeftand 4 Images as Sentinels, one of a Dragon, another a Beare, the 3 like a Leopard, and the fourth like a giantlike man, all made cuillfauordly, according to their beft workmanihip.

He hath as many women as he will, whereof when hee His spimef. lieth on his bed, one fitteth at his head, and another at his feet, but when he fitteth, one fitteth on his right hand and another on his left. As he is wearic of his women, hee beAoweth them on thofe that beft deferue them at his hands. When he dineth or fuppeth, one of his women before and after meat, bringeth him water in a woden platter to wafh his hands. Another waireth with a bunch of feathers to wipe theminfteed of a Towell , and the feathers when hehath wiped are dryed againe. Hiskingdome def.

Tbatenor of their lands.

His mazer of punifoxerts. cendeth not to his fonnes nor children, but firf to hisbrethren, whereofhe hath 3 .namely Opitchapan, Opechancanough, and Catataugh, and after their deccafe to his fifters. Firlt to the eldeff filter then to the relt and after the to the heires male and femalc of the eldeff fifter, but never to the heires of the males.

He nor any of his people viderfand any letters wherby to write or read, only the lawes whereby he ruleth is cuftome. Yet when he liftect his will is a law and mult bee obeycd: not only as a king but as halfe a God they efteeme him. His inferiour kings whom they cal werowances are tyed to rulc by cuftomes, and haue power of life 8 death as theircommand in that nature. But this word Werowance which we call and confter for a king, is a common worde whereby they call all commanders: for they haue but fewe words in their language, and but few occafions to wfe anie officers more then one commander, which commóly they call merowances. They all knowe their feverall landes, and habitations, and limiss, to fish, fowle, or hunt in, but they hold all of their great Werowances Rowbatan, vnto whome. they pay tribute of skinnes, beades, copper,pearle, deare, turkies, wild beafts, and corne. What he cominanderh they dare not difobey in the lealt thing. It is frange to fee with what great feare and adoration all thefe people doe obay this $P$ owhatan. For at his feet they prefent whatíoever hee commandeth, and at the leaft frowne of his browe, theis. greatelt firits will tremble with feare: and no maruell, for he is very terrible and tyrannous in punifhing fuch as of, fend him. For example hee caufed certaine malefactors to be bound hand and foot, then hauing of many fires gathered great ftore of burning coles, they rake thefe coles roüd in the forme of a cockpit, and in the midft they caft the offenders to broyle to death. Somtimes he caufeth the heads of them that offend him, to be laid vpon the altar or facrificing ftone, and one with clubbes beates out their braines. When he would punifia any notorious enimie or malefac.
eor, he caufeth him to be ticd to atree, &x with mufc!e fhels or reeds, the executioner cuttetio of his ioints one after another, eucr cafting what they cut of into the fire; then doth he proceed with fhels and recds to cafe tle skinne from his bead and face; then doe they rip his belly and fo burne him with the tree and all. Thus themfelues reported they executed George Calfen. Their ordinary correction is to beate them with cudgels. Wee hauc leene a man kneeling on his knees, and at Powbatans command, two men haue beat him on the bare skin, till he hath fallen fenfeleffe in a found, 82 yet neuer cry nor complained.

In the yeare 1608 , hee furprifed the people of Payankiatank his neare neighbours and fubiects. The occafion was to vs vnknowne, but the manner was thus. Firft hefent diverfe of his men as to lodge amongt them that night, then the Ambufcadoes inuironed al their houfes, & at the houre appointed, they all fell to the fpoile, 24 men they flewe, the long haire of the one fide of their heades with the skinne cafed off with fhels or reeds, they brought away. They fur prifed alfo the women & the children and the Weromance. All thefe they prefent to Powbatan. The Werowance, wome and children became his prifoners, $&$ doe him fervice. The lockes of haire with their skinnes he hanged on a line vnto two trees. And thus he made oftentation of as great a triumph at Werowocomoco, fhewing them to the Emglifh men that then came vinto him at his appointment, they expecting provifion, he to betray them, fuppofed to halfe cone quer them by this fectacle of his terrible crueltie.

And this is as much as my memory can call to mind wor thic of note; which I hane purpofely collested, to fatisfie my friends of the true worth and qualitie of Virginia. Yet fome bad natures will not fticke to flander the Countrey, that will flovenly fpit at all things, efpecially in sompany where they ca find none to contradict them. Who though they were fearfe euer 10 miles from Iames Town, or at the molt but at the falles;yet holding it a great difgrace that amongit fo much action, their aftions were nothine, exclaime ofall things, though they never adventured to knowe any thing; nor euer did any thing but devoure the fruits of other mens labours. Being for molt part of fuch tender educations and finall experience in martiall accidents, becaufe they found not Englifh cities, nor fuch faire houfes, nor at their owne wifhes any of their accuftomed dainties, with feather beds and downe pillowes, Tavernes and alehoufes in every breathing place, neither fuch plenty of gold and filuer and diffolute liberty as they expected, hadlittle or no care of any thing, but to pamper thein bellies, to fly away with our Pinnaces, or procure their means to returne for England. For the Country was to them a miferie, a ruine, a death, a hell, and their reports here, & their owne actions there according.

Some other there were that had ycarely fipends to pars to and againe for tranfportation: who to keepe the myftery of the bufinefle in themfelues, though they had neither time nor meanes to knowe much of themfelues;yet al més actions or relations they fo formally tuned to the te mporizing times fimplicitie, as they could make their ignorances feeme much more, then al the true aetors could by their experience. And thofe with their great words deluded the world with fuch frange promifes as abufed the bufinefle much worle then the reft. For the bufineffe being builded vpon the foundation of their fained experience, the planters, the mony, tinne, and meanes haue ftill mifcaried: yet they ever returning, and the Planters fo farre abfent, who could contradict their excufes? which fil to maintain their vaineglory and eftimation, from time to time they hale $v$ fed fuch diligence as made them paffe for truthes, though nothing more falle. And that the advéturers might be thus abufed, let no man wonder; for the wifelt liuing is foonett abuled by him that hath a faire tongue and a diffembling heart.

There were many in Virginirmeerely proiceting, verbal and idle contemplatours, and thofefo denoted to pure idle nefic, that though they had lived two or three yeares in Virginin, lordly, neceffitie it felfe could not compell them to pafle the Peninfula, or Pallifadoes of Iames Towne, and thofe wittie firits, what would they not affirme in the behalfe of our traniporters to get victuall from their Chips, or obtaine their good words in England to get their paffes. Thus from the clamors and the ignorance of falfe informers, are fprung thofe difafters that fprung in Vorginia, and our ingenious verbalifts were no leffe plague to vs in Virginia, then the I. ocults to the Egyptians. For the labour of 30 of the beft only preferued in Chriftianitie by their indu Itrie the idle livers of neare 200 of the reft:wholiuing neer 10 months of fuch naturall meanes, as the Country naturally of it felfe afforded, notwithitanding all this, and the worlt furie of the Savages, the extremitie of fickneffe, mutinies, faction, ignorances, and want of victuall; in all that time Iloft but 7 or 8 men, yet fubiected the Savages to our defired obedience, and receaued contribution from 35 of their kings, to protect and affift the againft any that fhould affalt them, in which order they continued true & faithful, and as fubiects to his Maieftie, fo long after as I did gouern there, vntill I left the Country:fince, how they haue revolted, the Countric loft, and againe replanted, and the bufineffes hath fucceeded from time to time, I referre you to the relations of them returned from Virginia, that haue bis more diligent in fuch obfervations.

FINIS.

IHE

PROCEEDINGS OF

 THE ENGLISH COLONIE INVirginia fince their firt beginning from England in the yeare of our Lord $\mathbf{1} 605$, till this profent 10́r2, with all their sucidents that bofell them in their Tournies and Difcoveries.

Alfo the Salvages difcourfes, orations and relations of the Bordering neighbours, and how they became fibiect to the Englifh.

Fnfolding even ine flindamenish caufes from whence Jaue jprang oo many mijerics co ibe wndertakers, and $d$ candals to ithe bufineffei tatenfaitb. fully as they were written ent of the writime: of Thomas Studley the firf provant maiper, $A$ naw Todkill, wallet Rufiell Deifor of Pbijiche, Nathaxicll Pourclls william Phetiyplace, Rechardw, fin, ThoThs Albay, The:Hope, Rich:Polis and the labours of divers otber dilid. gentobfirvers, that wecia refidents in $V$ :irginia.

Andpervfed and confirmed by diverfe now refident in England that were altors in this bufines. By W. S.

TO THE READER.

Ong hath the world longed, but to be trucly Cutisfied whatVirginia is, with the iruth of thofe proceedings, from whence bath flowne fo mane reports of worth, \& yet few gnodeffects of the chirge, which buth cauled Jußpition in many well willers that defire yet but to be trucly latisgied therein. If any can refolue , his doubt it is thofe that hane lived refidents in the land: not falers, or paffengers, nor fush mercinary contemplator: that only bedeck thensfelues with others plumes. This difcourge is not from fuch, neither am I the author, for they are many, whole particslar difcourfes are jigned by their names. This folid treavie, firft was compiled by Richard Pots, fince paßing the bands of many to oerve, chăcing into my bands, (for that I know them boseft men, and can partly well witne.jfe the er relations true)I could do noleffe ine charity to the world thë reveale, nor in cofcience, but approue. By the adv: $\int$ e of many graue and vnderftanding gentlemen, that biue preffed it, to the preffe, it was thought fit to publifb it, rat ber in it owne rude phrafe then other waies. For that nothing can $\int 0$ purge that fa mores aftion from the infamores candal fome ignorantly baue conceited, as the plaine firnple and naked iruth. For defect whereof the bufineffe is fiill fußpected, the truth vnknowne, arid the beft defervers difcouraged, and meglected, Some by falfereports,others by coniciture, and fuch power hath flattry to ingender of thole, batred and afo fection, that one is fufficent to be guile more, then soo can keepe frombeing deceiucc.
But this difcour (e is $n$ ) itlige of whens manzers, nor ca. talogue of their former courres;only a reporter of tbcir actions in Virgisia, not to dilgraie any, accufe any, cxeufe any, nor flatter any; for which caufe therc is no wrong done but this, fbortneffe in complaining, fofofparing in cöneenders as only the reader may perceiue the truth for bis piincs, \& the action purged of foule punder; it can detract from none that interdeth there to adventure their fortunes; and to Beake truly of the firft planters, that brake the vee or beate the path, bowfoetter many difficuities obfcured their inde. vours lse were wor $/ \mathrm{c}$ then the wor f of Ingrates, that would not ßpare thern mernory that buue buried themfelues in tbofe forrain regions. From whofe fir $\mathfrak{t}$ adventures may Jpring more goodble Sings then are yet conceived. So Ireft thine, that will read, oerv $\int e$, , 0 underfand me. If you finde falfe or thography or broken Engliffo, they are jmall faultes in fouldiers, that not being able to writelearnedly, onlic ftrius to fpeake truely, and be vnderftood without an Iras serpreter.
T. Aemsye

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE ENGLISH Colonyinvirginia, take faithfully out of the writings of Thomas Studly Cape-marchant, Anas Todkill, Doctor Ruffell, Nathaniel Powell, Willaam Phetiplace, and Richard Pot, with the laboures of ot her defcrect obferzers, during theirrefidences.

CHAP。IO

Temight wel be thought, a coun. trie fo faire (as Virginia is) and a people fo tractable, would long ere this hauc beene quietly pol feffed, to the fatisfaction of the adventurers, and the cternizing of the memoric of thofe that affected it. But becaufe all the world doe fee a defailement; this following Treatife fhall give fatisfaction to all indifferent readers, how the bufineffe hath beene carried, where no doubr they will eafily vnderftand andanfiver to their queftion, howe it came to paffe there wasno berter feed and fucceffe in thofe proccedings.

Captaine Barthoiomew Gofnold, the firft mover of The firf mouer this plantation, haning many yeares folicited many of the atioy. of his friends, but found finall affiftants; at laft prevailed with fome Gentlemen, as Mr Edward maria wingfield, Captaine Iobr Smith, and diverie others who depended a y eare vpon his proiects, bur nothing could be effected, till by their great charge and induftrie it came to be apprchended by certaine of the Nobilitic,

The proceedings andactions of Gentrie , and Marchants, fo that his Maieftie by his leters patenss, gate com:nifion for eltablifhing Councels, ro direct here, and to governe, and to execute there; to effect this, was fpent another ycare, and by that time, three fhips were provided, one of 100 Tonns, another of 40 and a Pinnace of 20 . The tranfportation of the company was committed to Cap. tame Cbrifophber Newport, a Marriner well practiled

Orders for so-

 for the wefterne parts of America. But their orders wernmexs: for gollernement were put in a box, not to be opened, nor the governours knowne vntill they arived in Virginia.On the 19 of December, 1606 .we fet faile, butby vnprofperous winds, were kepe fix weekes in the fight of England;all which time, $M^{r}$ Hunt our Preacher, was fo weake and ficke, that few expected his recoverie. Yet alchough he were but ro or 12 miles from his habitation(the time we were in the downes) and notwithlanding the formie weather, nor the feandalous imputations(of fome few, little better then Atheifts, of the greateft ranke amongtt vs ) fuggefted againft him, all this could never force from him fo much as a feeming defire to leave the bufines, but preferred the fervice of God, in fo good a voyage, before any affection to conteft with his godlefle foes, whole difafterous defignes (could they haue prevalled) had even then overthrowne the bufineffe, fo many difcontents did then arife, had he not with the water of patience, and his godly exhostations(but chiefly by his true devoted examples) quenched thofe flames of envie, and diffention.

Wee watred at the Canaries, wee traded with the Salvages at Dorminica; three weekes we fpent in refreShing our felus amongft thele welt-India Iles; in Gwardalupa we found a bath fo hot, as in it we boiled porck as well as over the fire. And at a little Ile called MoniMonica an שnas well as over the fire. And at a little lle called Moni- frequented lle sa, we tooke from the bufhes with our hands, neare 2 full of birds. hoghheads full of birds in 3 or 4 houres. In Mevis, Mona, and the Virgin lles, we fpent fome time, wherewith a lothfome beaft like a Crocadıl, called a Gwayn, Tortofes, Pellicans, Parrots, \& filhes, we daily feafted. Gone from thence in fearch of Virginia, the comp2. ny was not a little dilcomforted, feeing the Marriners had three daies paffed their reckoning and found no land, fo that Captaine Ratcliffe (Captaine of the Pin. nace) rather defired to beare vp the helme to returne for England, then make further fearch. Bur God the guider of all good actions, forcing thë by an extream ftorme to hulall night, did drite them by his providence to their defired port, bey ond all their expectations, formever any of them had feene that coaft. The firft land they made they called Gape Henry; where anchoring, $M^{5}$ wingfeild, Gof noll, and $\mathcal{N e w p o r t , \text { with } 3 0}$ others, recreating themfelues on fhore, were affalted by 5 Salvages, who hurt 2 of the Englifh very dange. rounly. That night was the box opened, and the orders read, in which Bartholomew Go noll, Edwardwingfeild, Chrifopher Newport, Iohn Smith, Iohn Ratliffe, Iobn Martin, and George Kendall, were named to bee the Councell, and to choofe a Prefident amongft then for a yeare, who with the Councell fhould governe. Matrers of moment were to be examined by a Jurie, Natren of goc but determined by the maior part of the Councell in which the Precedent had 2 voices. Vntill the 13 of May they lought a place to plant in, then the Comicell was fworne, M. Wingftild was chofen Prccident, \& an oration made, whie C, aptaine Smith was not admitted of the Comacell as the reft.

Now faljeth cveryman to worke, the Councell contriue the Fort, the reft cut downe trees to make place to pitch their Tents;fome provide clapbord to relade the fhips, fome make gardens, fome nets, $& c_{0}$ The Salvages often vifited vskindly. The Precidents overweening icaloufie would admit no exercifeat armes, or fortification, but the boughs of trees caft together in the forme of a halfe moone by the extra-

The difcolerey of the Falles aind Poomaliain. ordinary paines and diligence of Captaine Kendall, 2 emport, with Smith, and 20 orhers, were fent to difcover the head of the river:by divers fnal habitations they paffed, in 6 daiesthey arrived at a towne called Poovibatan, confifting of fome 12 houfes pleafantly fea. te don a hill;before it 3 fertililes, about it many of their cornefields, the place is very pleafant, and ftrong by nature, of this place the Prince is called Porbatan, and his people Pooblatans, to this place the river is navigable, but higher within a mile, by reafon of the Rockes and lles, there is not paffage for a final boate, this they call the Falles, the pcople in al parts kindly intreated them, til being returned within 20 miles of Inmes towne, they gave iuft caufe of iealoufie, bur had God not bleffed the difcoverers otherwife then thofe ar the fort, there had then beene an end of that plantauonfor at the fort, where they arived the next day, they they fourd 17 men hurt, and a boy flainc by the Sal- The Fort afat: vages, and had it not chanced a croffe barre fhot from ted by the salthe thips frooke down a bough from a tree amongft rages, them that caufed them to retire, our men had all been naine, being fecurcly all at worke, and their armes in dric fats.

Herevponthe Prefident was contented the Fort fhould be pallifadoed, the ordinance mounted, his mê armed and exercifed, for many were the affaults, and Ambulcadoes of the Salvages, and our men by their diforderly ftragling were often liurt, when the Salvages by the nimbleneffe of their heeles well efcaped. What toile wee had, with fo fmal a power to guard our workmé adaies, watch al night, refint our enimies and cffect our bufineffe, to relade the fhips, cut downe trees, and prepare the ground to plant our corne, &x.

I referre to the readers confideration. Six weekes being tpent in this manner, Captaine 2 eewport (who was hircd only for our tranfportation) was toreturn with the fhips, now Captaine Smith, who all this time from their departure from the Canaries was reftrained as a prifoner vpon the fcandalous fuggeftions of fome of the chiefe' envying his repure) who fained he intended to vlurpe the governement, murderthe Councell, and make himfelfe king, that his confederats were difpearfed in all the three fhips, and that divers of his confederats that revealed it, would affirme $\mathrm{it}_{5}$ for this he was committed, $\mathrm{I}_{3}$ weekes he remained thus fufpected, and by that time the ihips fhould returne they pretended out of their commifferations, to referre him to the Councell in England to receane a check, rather then by particulating his defig nes nake him fo odious to the world, as to touch his life, or veterly overthrowe his reputation; but he much forned their charitie, and publikely defied the vttermoft of their crueltie, hee wifely prevented their pollicies, though he could not fuppreffe their envies, yet fo wel he demeaned himfelfe in this bufines, as all the company did fee his innocencie, \& his adverfaries malice, and thofe fuborned to accufe him, accufed his accufers of fubornation;many vntruthes were alleaged againf him; but being fo apparently dilproved begat a generall hatred in theharts of the company againft fuch voiuft commanders; many were the mifchiefes that daily fprong from their ignorant (yet ambitious) fpirits;but the good doctrine and exhortation of our preacher Mr ${ }^{\mathrm{r}}$ Hunt reconciled them, and caufed Cap. taine Smith to be admitted of the Councell; the next day all receaved the Communion, the day following the Salvages voluntarily defired peace, and Captaine cap. Nexports Newport returned for England with newes; leaving in $\underset{\substack{\text { returnefor Eng } \\ \text { land }}}{\text { Virginia }} 100$.the 15 of Iune $1607^{\circ}$

The names of them that were the firt plan. ters, were thefe following.
$M^{\mathrm{x}}$ Edward Maria wingfield. Captaine Bartbolomew Gofnoll. Cap.Iohn Smytb.
Cap. Iohu Ratliffe.
Cap. Iohn Martim.
Cap.GeorgeKendalla
$M^{r}$ Robert Hust Preacher.
$M^{r}$ Gcorge Percie. Anthony Gofnoll.
Cap.Gabriell Archer. Rob.Ford.
willuam Brufter.
Dru Pickboufe. Iobn Brookes. Thomas Sands. Iobn Robinfon. Vff is Clovill.
Kellam Tbrogmorton. Nathaniell Powell. Robert Beherbland. Ieremy Alicock. Thomas Studley. RichardCrofts. 2 icholas Houlgraue. Thomas webbe: Iobn waler.
William Tankard.
Francis Snarsbrough.
Edward Brookes.
RicharaDixon.
Iobn Martin.
George Martin.
Anthony Gofnold:
Thomas wotton, Sierg.
Thomas Gore.
Erancis Midwinter.
Gent.

B 2
wis

The proccedings andaccidents of william Laxon. Edward Pifing. Tho.Emry. Rob.Small. Anas Todkill. Iohn Capper. 1 Carpenters Iames Read, Blackfinith. Ion as Profit, Sailer. Tho. Couper, Barber. Iobn Herd, Brick layer. william Garret, Bricklayer Edmard Brinto, Mafon. william Lour, Taylor. Nic.Skot, Drum. Iohn Laydon. william Caffen. George Caffen.
Tho.Caffen. william Rods. william white. Ould Edward. Henry Tauin. George Golding. Iobn Dods. william Iohnfon. will.Vnger. will.wilkinfon. Surgeon, Samuellcollier. Nat.Pecock. Iames Brumfield. Rich.Mutton.

CHAP. ${ }^{2 .}$

what bappened till the firft fupply.

Eing thus left to our fortunes, it fortuncd that within tenne daics The occaforo of fcarfe ten amongft vs coulde ei- ficknefe. ther goe, or well ftand, fuch extreame weaknes and ficknes oppreffed vs. And thereat none need mervaile, if they confider the caufe and reafon, which was this; whileft the fhips ftaied, our allowance was fomewhat bettered, by a daily proportion of bisket which she failers would pilfer to fell, gine or exchange with vs,for mony, faxefras, firres, or loue. But when they departed, there remained neither taverne, beere-houfe nor place of relife but the common kettell. Had we beene as free from all fimes as gluttony, and drunken-nes, we might hatue bin canonized for Saints; But our Frefident would never haue bin adnitted, for ingroffing to his privat, Otemeale, facke, oile, aquavite, beefe egs, or what not, but the kertel; that indeede he allow. ed equally to be diftributed, and that was halte a pinte of wheat and as much barly boyled with water for a man a day, and this having fryed iome 26 weeks in the fhips hold, contained as many wermes as graines; fo that we might truely callit rather fo much bran then corne, our drinke was water, our lodgings caftes in aire, with this lodging and diet, our extreame toile in bearing and planting pallifadoes, fo ftrained and brui-fed vs, and our continuall labour in the extremity of the heate had fo weakned vs, as were caufe fufficient to haue made vs as miferable in our natiue coutry, or any other place in the world. From May, to September, thofe that efcaped; lived vpon Sturgion, and feaCrabs, 5 o.in this time we buried, The reft feeing the Prefidēts proiects to efcape thefe miferies in our Pinnas by flight (who all this time had neither felt want nor ficknes fo moved our dead fpirits, as we depofed him;and eftablifhed Ratcliffe in his place, (Gofnoll being dead) Kendall depofed, Smithnewly recovered, Martin and Ratliffe was by his care preferved and relieued, but now was all our provifion fpent, the Sturgeon gone, all helps abandoned each houre expecting the fury of the Salvages; when God the patron of all good indeavours in that defperate extreamity fo chā. ged the harts of the Salvages, that they brought fuch plenty of their futurs, and provifion as no man wan-

Plentie i unex. pected.

And now where fome affirmed it was ill done of the Councel to fend forth men fo badly prouided, this incontradictable reafon will fhew them plainely they are too ill advifed to nourifh fuch il conceipts; firft the fault of ourgoing was our owne, what coulde bee thought fitting or neceffary wee had ,but what wee mould finde, what we fhould want, where we houlde be,we were all ignorant, and fuppofing to make our paffage in two monthes, with victuall to liue, and the advantage of the fpring to worke; we weare at fea 5 monthes where we both fuent ourviatuall & loft the opportunity of the time, and feafon to plant.

Such actions haue ever fince the worlds beginning beene fubiect to fuch accidents, and every thing of worth is found full of difficulties, but nothing fo difficult as to eftabliih a common wealth fo farre remote from men and meanes, and where mens mindes are fo vntoward as neither do well themfelues nor fuffer others; but to procced.

The new Prefident, and Martin, being little beloved; of weake iudgement in dangers, and leffe induftry in peace, cömitted the managing of all things abroad to captaine Smith:who by his owne example, good words, and faire promiles, fet fome to mow, others to The building of binde thatch, fome to build houfes, others to thatch Ianes Tonses, them, himfelfe alwaies bearing the greateft taske for his own thare, fo that in fhort time, he provided moft of them lodgings neglecting any for himfelfe. this done, feeing the Salvages fuperfluity beginne to decreafe(with fome of his workemen) Thipped himfelfe in the fhallop to fearch the country for rrade, the wât of the language, knowledge to manage his boat with out failers, the want of a fufficient power, (knowing the multitude of the Salvages )apparell for his men, $&$ other neceffaries, were infinite impediments,yet no difcouragemér, Being but 6 or 7 in company he went down the river to Keco ghtan, where at firft they feorned him, as a farved man, yet he fo dealt with them, that the next day they loaded his boat with corne, & in his returne he difcoucred & kindly traded with the of the beginnings. wer askoyks, in the meane time thofe at the fort fo glutted the Salvages with their commodities they as be came not regarded.

Smith perceiving (notwithftanding their late mife. sie) not any regarded but from hand to mouth, (the company being well recovered) caufed the Pinas to bee provided with things fitting to get provifion for the yeare following; bue in the interim he made 3 or 4.iournies and difcovered the people of chickahamine yet what he carefully provided the reft carelenly fpent. wing foeld and Kendall liuing in difgrace, feeing a! things The aifereverie at randome in the ablence of Smuth, The companies of Chickadimmi- diflike of their Prefidents weaknes, & their fmall loue ne. to Martins never-mending ficknes, frengthened théfelues with the failers, and other confederates to regaine their former credit & authority, or at leaft fuch meanes abord the Pinas, (being fitted to faile as Smith) had appointed for trade) to alter her courle and to go for England. Smith vnexpectedly returning had the plot difcovered to him, much trouble he had to pre vent it till with fore of fakken and musket fhot he for ced them ftay or finke in the rinerl, which action coft the life of captaine Kendall. Thele brawles are fo dilgulffull, as lome will lay they were better forgoten, yet all men of good iudgement will conclude, it were better their bafenes hould be manifeft to the world, then the bufines beare the fcorne and thame of their exculed diforders. The Prefident and captaine Archer not long after intended alfo to haue abandoned the country, which proiect alfo was curbed, and fupprefAnotber proiect fed by Smith.The Spanyard never more greedily defito abandion the councry. red gold then he victuall, which finding lo plentiful in the riuer of chickabamine where hundreds of Salvages in diuers places ftood with baskets expecting his cöming ming. And now the winter approaching, the rivers be came fo covered with fwans, geefe, duckes, & cranes, that we daily feafted with good bread, Virginia peale, pumpions, and putchamins, fifh, fowle, and diverfe forrs of wild beafts as fat as we could eat them:fo that none of our Tuftaffaty humorifts defired to goe for maglăd. But our comædies never cndured lög without a Tragedie; föc idle exceptiös being mutered againt Captaine Smith, for not difcovering the head of bickebamine river, and taxed by the Councell, to bee too flowe in fo worthie an attempt. The next voyage hee proceeded to farre that with much labour by cutting of trees in finder he madetis paflage, bur when his Barge could paffe no farther, he left her in a broad bay out of danger of fher, commanding none fhould goe athore till his recurneghimfelfe with 2 Englifh& two Salvages went vphigher in a Canowe, but hee was not long abfent, but his mé went afhore, whofe want of govermment, gaue both occafion and opportunity to the Salvages to furprile one George Cafforn, 8 much failed not to haue cut of the boat & all the reft, Smith little dreaming of that accident, being got to the mar thes at the rivers head, 20 myles in the defert, had his 2 men flaine(as is fuppoied) fleeping by the Canowe, whilf himfelfe by fow: ling fought them victuall, who finding he was befer with 200 Salvages, 2 of them hee Rew, ftil defendinghimfelfe with the aid of 2 Salvage his guid, (whome hee bound to his arme and ved as his buckler, tillat laft llipping into a bogmire they sooke him prifones:when this newes came to the fort much was their forrow for his loffe, fewe expecting foner, many ftrange trimmphes and coniurations they made of him, yer hee fo demeaned himfelfe amongit them, as be not only diverted them from furprifing the Fort but procured his owne liberty, and got himfelfe and his company fuch eftimatio $n$ amonglt them, that thofe Salvages admired him as a cemi God. Sore. turning fafe to the Fort, once more ftaied the Pimas Tine 3 proictio her fight for England, which til his returne, could nor abandi torforr fet faile, fo extreame was the weather, and fo great the froft.

His relation of the plentie he had feene, efpecially at werowocomoco, where inhabited Powhat, in (that till that time was vnknowne)forevived againe their dead fpirits as all mens feare was abandoned, Powbatan having fent with this Captaine divers of his men loaded with provifion, he had cöditioned, \& fo appointed his truftie meffengers to bring but 2 or 3 of our great ordenances, but the meffengers being fatisfied with the fight of one of thë difcharged, ran away amazed with feare, till meanes was vfed with guifts to affure them our loues. Thus you may fee what difficulties itil croffed any goodindeavour, and the good fucceffe of the bufineffe, and being thus of brought to the very period of deftruction, yet you fee by what ftrange meanes God hath fill delivered it. As for the infufficiencie of them adinitted in commiffion, that errour could not be prevented by their electors, there being no other Atrue proffor choice, and all were ftrangers each to others educatiGodsleue so the on, quallities, or difpofition; si if any deeme it a fhame normities, let them pervfe the hiftorics of theSpanifh difcoveries and planeations, where they may fee how many mutinies, difcords, and diffentions, hauc accompanied them and croffed their attempts, which being knowne to be particular mens offences, doth take a. way the generall fcorne and contempe, mallice, and ig norance might elfe produce, to the fcandall and reproach of thofe, whofe actions and valiant refolution deferue a worthie refpect. Now whether it had beene better for Captaine Smith to haue concluded with any of their feverall proiects to haue abandoned the Countrie with fome 10 or 12 of them we cal the better fort, to have left $\mathrm{M}^{\mathrm{r}}$ Hunt our preacher, M. Anthony Go foll, a moft honeft, worthie, and induftrious gen. tleman, with fome 30 or 40 others his countrie men, to the furic of the Salvages, famin, and all manner of milchicfes and inconveniences, or farved himfelfe with them for company, for want of lodging, or but of two ceils the 2 dventuring abroad to make them provifion, or by his leffer wass chofé oppofition, to preferue the action, and fane all their liues, Ileaue to the cenfure of others to confider.

Thomas Studley.

CHAP. $3 \cdot$

The arrivall of the fir $\AA \mathrm{f}$ upply with their proceedings andreturne.

$C_{2}$  ALL

 LL this time our cares ivere not fo much to abandon the Countrie, but the Treafurer & Coun. cell in England were as duligent and carefull to fupplie vs. Two tall fhips they fent vs, with neere soo men, well furnifhed with all things could be imagined necer. farie, both for themand vs. The one commanded by Captaine Newport: the other by Captaine Neffong an honeft man and an expert marriner, but fuch was the leewardneffe of his hhip, (that though he were within

The pberixix fró Cape benry forced to the weflt Indies.

300 c. Smisb got jois liberty. fight of Cape Henry)by ftormy contraric windes, was forced fo farre to fea, as the We en Indies was the next land for the repaire of his Mants, and reliefe of wood and water. But Captaine Newporigot in, and arived at Iamestowne, not long after the redemption of Cap. taine Smith, to whome the Salvages every other day brought fuch plentie of bread, filh, turkies, fquirrels, deare, & other wild beafts, part they gaue him as prefents from the king; the reft, hee as their market clarke fet the price how they thould fell.

So he had inchäted thofe poore foules (being their prifoner) in demontrating vato them the roundnefte of the world, the courfe of the moone and farres, the caufe of the day and nighr the largenes of the feas the quallities of our hips, fhor and powder, The devifion of the world, with the diverfity of people, their complexions, cuttomes and conditions. All which hee fained to be vnder the command of Captaine Nexports. whom he searmed to them his father; of whole ars:-
val, it chanced he fo directly prophecied, as they efteemed him an oracle;by thefe fictions he not only faved his owne life, and obrained his liberty, bur had them at that command, he might command them what he lifted. That God that created al thefe things; they knew Their opinizor of he adored for his God, whom :hey would alfo tearme in their difcourfes, the God of captaine Smith. The Prefident and Councel fo much envied his eftimation amongt the Salvages (though wee all in generall equally parcicipared with him of the good therof) that they wrought it into their vnderftandings, by their great bounty in giuing 4. times more for their commodities then he appointed, that their greatneffe and authority, as much exceed his, as their bounty, and liberality; Now the arrivall of ins firft fupply, fo overioyed vs, that we could not devife too much to pleafe the mariners. We gauc them liberty to track or trade at their pleafures. But in a fhort time, it followed, that could nor be had for a pound of copper, which before was fold for an ounce, Thus ambition, and fufferance, cut the throat of our trade, but confirmed their opinion of Reaports greatnes, (wherewith Smith had pof. feffed Powhatan) elpecially by the great prefents Newoport (often fent him, beforche could prepare the Pinas ro go and vifit him; fo that this Salvage alfo defired to. feehim. A greatbruirthere was to fet him forwarde: when he went he was accompanied, with captaine Smith, & $M^{r}$ Scrivener a very wife vnderftanding géteman newly arrived, $&$ admitted of the Councell, $&$ $30.0 r$ 40.chofen men for thar guarde. Arriving at we ravocomo Ne epports cöceipt of this great Salvage, bred

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { 2athaniell Powell. } \\
& \text { Robert Beheathland. } \\ & \text { william Phett iplace. } \\
& \text { Ricbard wyffin. } \\ & \text { Anthony Gofnoll. } \\ & \text { Tobn Taverner. } \\ & \text { william Dier. } \\ & \text { Thomas Coe. } \\ & \text { Thomas Hope. } \\ & \text { Anas Todkell } \end{aligned}
$$

with ro.others whofe names I haue forgotten, Thefe being kindly receiued a fhore, with 2 , or 300. Salvages Pombatansfirt were conducted to their towne; Powbatan ftrained entertainemens himfelfe to the vttermoft of his grearnes to entertain of our men. vs, with great Thouts of Ioy, crations of proteftatiôs, and the mof plenty of victuall hee could prouide to feaft vs. Sitting vponhis bed of mats, his pillow of leather imbroydred (after their rude manner) with pearle & whitebeades, his attire a faire Robe of skins as large as $m$ Irifh mantle, at his head and feer a handfome young woman; on each fide his houfe fate 20.0 f his concubines, their heads and foulders painted red, with a great chaine of white beads about their necks, before thofe fate his chicfeft men in like order in his arbor-like houfe. Withmany pretty difcourfes to renue their olde acquaintaunce; the grear kinge and our saptaine fpent the time till the ebbeleft our Barge a ground ground, then renuing their feafts and mirth we quar tred that night with Powbatan: the next day Newport came a fhore, and receined as much content as thofe Tbe exchange people could giue him, aboy riamed Thomas Savage of a chrifiana was then ginen vnto Powhatan who Newport called his for a Salvage. fou, for whom Powbatan gatic him Namontackehis trulty fervant, and one of a fhrewd lubtill capacity, 3 or 4. daies were fpent in fealling dancing and trading, wherin Powhatan carried hinfelfe fo prowdly, yet difcreetly (in his Salvage manner) as made ws all adnire his natural gifts confidering his education, as fooming to trade as his fubiects did, he befpake Neuport in this manner.

$$
\text { with the frff }\} \text { upply in virginia. }
$$

Captain Neroport it is not agreeable with my grear Poxhataxa nes in this pedling manner to trade for trilles, and I e jeeccb. ftecme you a great werowans, Therefore lay me down all your commodities togither, what I like I will take, and in recompence ginc you that I thinke fitting their value. Captaine Smuth being our interpreter, regarding Neuport as his father, knowing beft the difpofitiō of Powhatantold vs his intent was but to chear vs; yet captaine $\mathbb{X e w p o r t ~ t h i n k i n g ~ t o ~ o u t ~ b r a u e ~ t h i s ~ S a l - ~}$ vage in oftentation of greatnes, \& fo to bewitch him with his bounty, as to haue what he lifted, butfo it chanced Powhatan having his defire, valued his corne at fuch a rare, as I thinke it better cheape in Spaine, for we had not 4 .burhels for that we expected 20 . hogsheads, This bred fome vnkindnes berweene our two captaines, $N$ emport fecking to pleafe the humor of the vnfatiable Salvage; Smith to caufe the Salvage to piffercruceofso pleafe him, but finothering his diftaft (to avoide the Tantes townic bsumb.

Salvages fufpition) glaunced in the cies of Powhat ars many Trifles who fixed his humour ypon a few blew beads; A long time he importunatly defired them,bur Smith feemed fo much the more to affect the, fo that cre we departed, for a pound or two of blew beads he brought avermy king for 2 or 300 buthels of corne, yet parted good friends. The like entertainement we fout of Spechanchynough king of Pamaunke whom alfo he in like manuer fitted, (at the like rates) with blew beads:and fo we returned to the fort. Where this new fupply being lodged with the reft, aceidently fired the quarters, \& fo the Towne, which being but thatched with reeds the fire was fo fierce as it burnt their pallizadoes (though ro.or 12 yardes diftant) with their armes, bedding, apparell, and much private provifion. Good $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Hunt our preacher lof all his library, and al that he had, but the cloathes on his backe,) yer none ever fee him repine at his loffe. This hapned in the winter, in that extreame froft, 1607 . Now though we had victuallfufficient, I meane only of Oatemeale, meale, and corne.yet the fhip flaying there $\mathbf{1} 4$. wecks when thee might as well haue been gone in 14 . daies, fpent the beefe, porke, oile, aquavite, finh, butter, and cheefe, beere and fuch like; as was provided to belandedvs. When they departed, what their difcretion could fpare vs, to make a feaft or two with bisket, pork beefe, fifh, and oile, to relifh our mouths, of each fornwhat they left vs, yet I muft confeft thofe that had either mony, fpare clothes, credit to gine bils of payment, gold rings, furres, or any fuch commodities were ever welcome to this removing taverne, fuch was our parience to obay fuch vile commanders, and buy our owne provifion at 5 times the valew, fuffe. ring the feaft (we bearing the charge) yet muft not re. pine, but falt, and then leakage, inip-rats, and other ca. fualties occafioned the lofle, but the veffell and remnants for totals/wewere glad to receiue with all our hearts to make vp the account, highly commending their providence for preierving that. For all this plentie our ordinaric was but meale and water, fo that this great charge little relieved our wants, whereby with the extreamity of the bitter cold aire more then halfe of vs died, and tooke our deathes, in that piercing win ter I cannot deny, but both Skrivener and Smith did their beft to amend what was amiffe, but with the Prefidents wont the maior part, that their hornes were too thort. But the worft mifchiefe was, our gilded refiners with their golden promifes, made all men their flates in hope of recompence, there was no talke, no hope, no worke, but dig gold, walh gold, refine gold, meerezerbsload gold, fuch a brute of gold, as one mad fellow de. difis. fired to bee buried in the fandes, leaft they fhould by their art make gold of his bones, litele need there was and leffe reafon, the fhip fhould fay, their wages run on, our victuall coafume, T 4 weekes, that the Marriners might fay, they built firch a golden Church, that we can fay, the raine wathed neare to nothing in 14 daies. Were it that Captaine Smith would not appland all thofe golden inventions, becaufe chey admitted him not to the fight of their trials, nor golden con fultations I knowe not;but I heard him queftion with Captaine Martin and tell him, except he would fhew him a more fubetantiall triall, hee was not inamored with their durtie skill, breathing our thefe and many other paffions, never any thing did more torment him, then to fee all neceffarie bufineffe negleeted, to fraught fuch a drunken fhip with fo much gilded durt; till then wee never accounted Captaine Nexport a refiner; who being fit to fet faile for England, and wee not having any vfe of Parliaments, plaies, petitions, admirals, recorders, interpreters, chronologers, courts of plea, nor Iuftices of peace, fent M.wingfield \& Cap. Archer with him for England to feeke fome place of betterimploiment.

Arctione to England.

CHAP. 4.

The arivallo of the Phonix, ber returne, and other accidents.

Tierepaizing ching, and the fhip departed, M. Skriuener and Capt. yflams: tovsic Smith divided betwixt thë, the rebuilding our towne, she repairing our palifadoes, the cutting downe trees, preparing our fields, planting our corne, \& to rebuild our Church, and recover our fore-houfe; al men thus bufie at their deverall labours, $\mathrm{M}_{\mathrm{r}} 2 \mathcal{L e l f o n}$ arived with hisloft Phœenix/loft I fay, for that al men deemed him loft landing fafely his men; fo well hee had mannaged his ill hap, caufing the Indian Iles to feed his company thas that his victuall(to that was left vs before) was fufficient for halfe a yeare, he had nothing but he freely im. parted it, which honeft dealing(being a marriner) caluled vs adinire him , wee would not haue wifhed fo much as he did for vs. Nowe to relade this thip with fome good tidings. The Prefident (yet notwithftanding with his dignitie to leaue the fort) gaue order to Captaine Smith and M. Skriuener to difcover \& fearch the commodities of Monicans countrie beyound the Falles, 60 able men was allotted their number, the which within 6 daies exercife, Smith had fo well crai- difcouer Mosona. ned to their armes and orders, that they little feared can. with whome they fhould encounter. Yet fo vnfeafonable was the time, and fo oppofite was Capt. Martin to every thing, but only to fraught his fhip alfo with his phantalticall gold, as Captaine Smath rather defi. red to relade her with Cedar, which was a prelent diSparch;then either with durt, or the reports of an viscertaine difcoverie. Whilft their conclufion was refol, ving, this hapned.

Powhatan to expreffchis lone to Newport, when he departed, prefented him with 20 Turkies, conditional. ly to returne him 20 Swords, which immediatly were ${ }_{\text {to }}^{\text {An ill fixerdds }}$ to fenthim; Now after his departure hee prefented Cap. Salvages. taine Smith with the like luggage, but not finding his humor, obaied in fending him weapons, he caufed his people with 20. devifes to obtain them, at laft by ambufcadoes at our very ports they would take them per powheric. force, furprife vs at work, or any way, which was fo lög permitted that they became fo infolent, there was no sule, the command from England was fo Itraight not to offend the, as our authority bearers (kecping their houles)would rather be any thing thé peace breakers: this charitable humor prevailed, till well it chaunced

The proceedings andaccidents

The geicriatios neakncfle. shey medled with captaine Smith, who without tar. ther deliberation gaue the fuch an incounter, as fome he fo hunted vp and downe the Ile, fone he fo terrifi. ed with whipping, bearing and imprilonment, as for 3imith attempi revenge they furprifed two of his forraging diforderSalu:ziges inge. lencies. ly fouldiers, and haviag affembled their forces, boldly threatned ar our ponts to force Smith to redeliver 7 . Salvages which for their villanies he detained prifo. ners, but to try their furies, in lefle then halfe an houre he to hampered their infolencics, that they brought the 2 .prifoners defiring peace without any fartherco. pofition for their prifoners, who being thrcatned and examined their intents and plotters of their villanies confeffed they were directed only by Powbatan, to obtaine him our owne weapons to cut our own throats, with the manner how, where, and when, which wee plainely found moft truc and apparant, yet he fent his Porbuans ax-menfengers $&$ his dearef Daughter Pocabuntas to ex-suffe.
cufehim, of the iniuries done by his fubiects, defiring cufe him, of the iniuries done by his fubieets, defiring their liberties, with the afluraunce of his loue, after Smith had giluen the prifoners what correction he thought fir, vfed them well a day or two after, & then delinered thê Pocabüt as, for whote fake only he fained rofane their liues and graunt them liberty. The patient councel, that nothing would mone to warre wish the Salvages, would gladly have wrangled with captaine smith for his cruelty,yet none was flaine to any mans knowledge but it brought them in fuch feara 8 obedience, as this very name wold, fufficiently affright them. The Iratight of chis thip being concluded to be $A$ bip fayagbs Cedar, by the diligence of the Mafter, and captaine mith sedata Smith thee was quickly reladed; $M^{5}$ scrivener was neither Idle nor flow to follow all things at the fort the fhip falling to the Cedar Ile, captaine Martin ha. ving made nitt to be ficke neare a yeare, & now, nei. ther pepper, fuger, cloues, mace, nor nugmets, ginger nor fweet meates in the country (to inioy the credit of his fuppofed art)at his earneft requelt, was moft willingly admitted to returne for England, yet having beene there but a yeare, and not palt halfe a year fince the ague left him/that he might fay fomewhat he had feene) hee went twice by water to $P_{a}$ pabegh a place neere 7. miles from Iames towne, but left the dew Theadz an umi Thould diftemper him, was ever forced to returne be-of caps, mait fore nighr, Thus much I thought fit to expreffe, he ex prelly commäding me to record his iournies, Ibeing his man, and he fometimes my mafter.

Thomas Studly. Anas Todkill.
Their names that werelanded in this fupply:

> Thathew Scriviner, appointed to be of the Councello. Michaell Fhetyplace. william Pbrtyphace. Ralfe Morton. william Cantrill. Richardwyffin. Robert Barnes. George Hill.

George Pretty. Jobn Taverner. Robert Cutler. Michaell Sickelmore. Thomas CoO. Peter Pory. Richard Killingbeck. william Cauley.
Doczor Rufell. Richardworley. Richard Prodger. william Beyley. Richard Molynex. Richard Pots. Iefrey Abots. John Harper. Timothy Leds. EdwardGurganay. George Foreft. Johe C zickoles. william Gryvill.

DaniellStaling Iucller. wiliam Daw on Refinct. Abrabam Ranfacke Refiner. william Yohnfon Goldfmitho Peter Keffer a Gunner. Robert Albertona Perfumer. Ruchard Belfield Gold 3 mitho

with the firft fupply invirginia.

Ramon Goody Jon. iohn Spearemax. william Spence. Richard Briflow. william Simons. Lobn Bouth. william Burket. Nicholas Ven. william Perce. Francis Perkins. Francis Perkins. william Bentley. Richard Gradon. Rowland Nelffrop Richard Saivage. Thomas Salvage. Ruchard Miler. william May. Vere. Michaell. Bifbopwyles. Jobn Powell. Thomas Hope. williams Beckwith。 william Yonge.
Laurence Toxtales. william ward.
chriftopher Rodes.
Iameswatkings.
Richard Fetherfione.
James Burne。 the number of 120 .

Chat. 50
The accidents shat happened in the Difcoverec of the bray.

He prodigality of the Prefidéts fate went lo deepe in the fore that Smith and Scrivener had a while eyed both Martin \& him to the rules of proportion, bur now Smith being to depart, the Prefidents authoritie fo overfrayed $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Scriveners difcretion as our fore, our time. our ftrength and labours was idlely confumedro fulfill his phantafies. The fecond of lune 1608. Smith left the fort to performe his ditcoverie; with this company.
walter Ruffell Doctour of Pbyjicke.
Ralph Morton.
Thomas Mom ford.
william Cantrill.
Richard Fetherfone.
James Bourne.
MichaelSurklemores., > with the firf (upfty in Virginix.

Anas Todkill. Robert Small. Iames VVatkins. Iohn Powell. Iames Read blathe fimitio. Richard Keale filbmonger. Ionas Profit fifber.
Thefe being in an openbarge of two tumes burthenleaving the Phenix at Cape-Henry we croffed the bay to the Eafterne fhore & fell with the lles calIed Smiths, lles the firft people we faw were 2 grimme and ftout Salvages ypon Cape. Charles with long cape charles. poles like Iavelings, headed withbone, tley buidly demanded what we were, and what we would, but after many circumftances, they in time feemed very kinde, and directed vs to Acuromacke the habitation of the we rowans where we were kindly intreated; this king was the comlieft proper civill Salvage wee incountred:his country is a pleafint fertill clay-foile. Hee tolde vs of a Itraunge accident lately happened hun, and it was Two dead children by the extreame paffions of their parents, or fome dreaming vifions, phantafie, or affeetion moved thê againe to revifit their dead carkafes, A Arange morwhofe benummed bodies reflected to the eies of the talitit of Salum beholders fuch pleafant delightfull countenances, as get. though they had regained their vital fpirits. This as a miracle drew many to behold them, all which, (being 2 great part of his people not long after died, and not any one efcaped. They fpake the language of Porobata wherein they made fuch defcriptions of the bay, Hes, and rivers that often did vs exceeding plealure. Paffing along the coaft, fearching every inlet, and bay fir for harbours & habitatio. is fecing many Iles in the midit of the bay, we bore vp for them, but ere wee could attaine them, fuch an extreame guft of wind, raine, thinder, and lightning happened, that with great daunger

An extreame sult.

Rugels Iles.
Wighcscomsto.

An extreame maxt of frifh water. we efcaped the vmmercifull raging of that ocean-like water. The next day fearching thofe inhabitable lles (which we called Ruffels Iles)ro provide freth water, the defect whereof forced vs to follow the next Eafterre channell, which brought vs to the river wighrosomoco, the people at firf with great furie, feemed to aflault vs yet atlaft with fongs, daunces, and much mirth, became very tractable, but fearching their habi. tations for water, wee could fill but 3 , and that fuch puddle, that never til then, wee ever knew the want of good water, we digged and fearched many places but ere the end of two daies wee would haue refufed two barricoes of gold for one of that puddle water of Wigheocomoco. Being paft thefe lles, falling with a high land vpon the maine wee found a great pond of frefh water, but fo exceeding hot, that we fuppofed it fome bath:that place we called Point ployer, being thus refrefhed in croffing over from the maine to other Iles, the wind and waters fo much increafed with thunder, lightning, and raine, that our fore-maft blew overbord Tbebarge neve and fuch mightie waues overwrought $v s$ in that fmal funkin aguff. barge, that with great labour wee kept her from fin. king by freeing out the water, 2 daies we were inforced to inhabit thefe vninhabited Iles, which (for the extremitie of gults, thunder, raine, ftormes, and il weather)we called Limbo. Repairing our fore faile with our thirts, we fet falle for the maine \& fel with a faire river on the Eaft called Kuskaranoocke, by it inhabir the people of Soraphanigh, $\mathcal{N a w} / \mathrm{e}$, Arfek, and Nauta. quaketlat mucli extolled a great nation called Mafra. The firf notice womekes, in fearch of whome wee returned by Limbo, mecks. but finding this eafterne fhore fhallow broken Iles, \& the maine for moft part without fref water, we pal. fed by the fraights of Limbo for the weafterne fhore So broad is the bay here, that we could fcarle percciue the great high Cliffes on the other fide, by them wee ancored that night, and called them Richards Cliffes. $3^{\circ}$ leagues we failed more Northwards, not finding any inhabitants, yet the coaft well watred, the mountaines very barré, the vallies very fertil, but the woods extreame thicke, full of Woolues, Beares, Deare, and other wild beafts. The firt infer we found, wee called Bolus, for that the clay (in many places) was like (if not/ Bole-Armoniacke:when we firt fet faile, fome of our gallants doubted nothing, but that our Captaine would make too much haft home; but hauing lien not aboue 12 daics in this fmal Barge, oft tired at their oares, their bread fpoiled with wer, fo much that it was rotten(ver fo good were their fomacks that they could digent it) did with continuall complaints fo importunc him now to returne, as caufed him befpeake them in this manner. Gentemen if you would remêber the memorable hiforie of Sir Ralfe Lane, how his Smiths peeente company importuned him to proceed in the difcovehis forldivers, rie of Morattico, alleaging, hey had yet a dog, that being boyled with Saxafras leaues, would richly fied thé in their returnes; what a fhame would it beforyou

$$
\text { with the firt fupply in virginia. . } 3 \text { I }
$$

The proceedings andaccidents

(that hate beene fo fufpitious of $m y$ tenderneffe) to torce me returne with a months prov ifion farce able to fay where we haut bin, nor yet heard of that wee wcre fent to feeke; you cannot fay but I haue fhared with you of the worf is palt; and for what is to come of lodging, diet, or whatioever, I am contented you allor the worlt part to my felfe;as for your feares, that I will lofe my felfe in thefe vnknowne large waters, or be fwallowed vp in fome formie gulf, abandon thofe childih feares,for worfe then is paft cannot happen, and there is as much danger to returne, as to proceed forward.Regaine cherefore your old firits;for return I will not, (if God afitume till have feene the Maffawomrkes, found Patawomeck, or the head of this great wa:ery you conceit to be endleffe. 3 or 4 daies wee expected wind and weather, whofe adverfe extreamities added fuch difcouragements to our difcontents as 3 or 4 fel extreame ficke, whofe pittiful complaints caufed vs to returne, leauing the bay fo:me ro miles broad at 9 or 10 fadome water.
The difavery of The 16 of Iune we fel with the river of PatawoPatapmmeck. meck feare being gon, and our men recovered, wee w cre all contented to take lome paines to knowe the name of this 9 mile broad river, we could fee no inhabitants for 30 myles faile; then we were conducted by 2 Salvages vp a little bayed creeke towaid Onswmament where all the woods were laid with AnbufcaSinhtradaes of anes to the number of 3 or 400 Salvages, but fo shlu.ties. ftrangely painred, grimed, and difguifed, thowting, yelling, and crying, as we rather fuppofed thein fo many divels, they made many bravadoes, buit to appeafs their theit furie, our Captaine prepared with a feeming willingneffe(as they) to encounter them, the grazing of the bullets vponthe river, with the ecco of the woods fo a:mazed them, as down went their bowes & arrowes; (andexchanging hoftage) Iames watkins was fent 6 myles vp the woods to their kings habitation:wee were kindly ved by thefe Salvages, of whome wee vinderfood, they were commaunded to betray vs, by Poobhatansdirection, and hee fo di- atreacherous rected trom the difcontents of Iames towne. The proiect.
like incomnters we found at Patawomeck Cecocawone \& divers orher places, but at Moyoones $\mathbb{R}$ acothennt and Tau:s, the people did their beft to content vs. The caufe of this difcovery, was to fearch a gliftering mettal, the Salvages told vs they had from Patawomeck, (the which Nemport affured that he had tryed to hold halfe filuer)alfo to fearch what furres, metals, riners, Ruckes nations,woods, fifhings, fruits, victuals andother commodities the land afforded, and whether the bay were endleffe, or how fare it extended. The mine we found 9 or no myles vp in the conitry from the ri- Antimorys. ver, but it proved of fos value: Some Otters, Beavers, Martins, Lufwarts, and fables we found, and in diverfe places that abundäce of finh lying fo thicke with their heads aboue the water, as for want of nets (our barge driving amongit them) we attempted to catch them with a frying pan, but we found it a bad inftrument to catch fifh with. Neither better fifh more plenty or va- An alundans riery had any of vs ever feene, in any place fwimming pleaticof ffitn in the water, then in the bay of Cbefapeack, but there net to be caught with frying pans. To expreffe al ovir $E_{3}$ quar.
quarrels, treacheries & incounters amongt thofe Sal.
vages, I fhould be too tedious; but in briefe at al times we fo incoütred thë & curbed their infolēcies, as they

How to deale with the Salva ges. concluded with prefents to purchafe peace, yet wee loft not a man, at our firft meeting our captaine ever obferved this order to demaunde their bowes and arrowes fwords mantles or furres, with fome childe for hoftage, wherby he could quickly perceiue when they iutended any villany. Having finifhed this difoovery (though our victuall was nearefpent) he intended to haue feene his imprifonments, acquaintance vpon the river of Toppahannock. But our boate(by reafon of the ebbe)chanfing to ground vpon a many fhoules lying in the entrance, we fpied many fifhes lurking amongft the weedes on the fands, our captaine forting him. felfe to catch them by nailing the to the ground with his fword, fet vs all a fifhing in that mäner, by this devife, we tooke more in an houre then we all could ear; but it chanced, the captaine taking a fifh frō his fword (not knowing her condition) being much of the fafhion of a Thornebacke with a longer raile, whereon is a moft poyfoned fting of 2 . or 3 inches long, which Shee frooke antinch and halfe into the wrift of his arme the which in 4 .houres had fo extreamly fwolne his hand, arme, fhoulder, and part of his body, as we al with much forrow concluded his funerall, and prepared his graue in an Ile hard by (as himfelfe appointed) which then wee called ftingeray lle after the name of the firh. Yet by the helpe of a precious oile Doctour Rufels applyed, ere night his tormenting paine was fo wel affwaged that he eate the filh to his fupper, which gaue no leffe ioy and content to vs, then cafe to himfelf. Having neither Surgeõ nor furgerie but that prefervatule orle, we prefently fer faile for Iames Towne: paffing the mouth of pyankatazck, & Pamavnke rivers, the next day we fafely arrived at Kecoughtan. The fimple Salvages, feeing our captaine hurt, and another bloudy(which came by breaking his hin) our number of foowes, arrowes, fivords, targets, mantles and furs; would needs inlagine we had bin at warres, the truth

The Saluages
affighted wits rhcir owne kf pition. of thefe accidents would not farisfie them) but impaciently they importuned vs to know with whom wie foughr finding their aptice to belecue, we fallednot (as a great fecret) to rel thenrany thing that might affrig them what foile wee had got and made of the Ma/awomeckes, this rumor went fafter vp the river tile our barge; that arrived at werat $/$ koy ack the 20.0 f Iulie, where trimaing her with painted flreamers, and fuch deviles we made the fort icalous of a Spanifh frigot; where we all fafely arrived the 2 I. of Iuly, there wee found the laff fupply, al ficke, the reff,fome lame, fome bruifed, al vnable to do any thing, but complain of the 1 nededifer nimpride and vireafonab'e needleffe cruelty of their fillie Prefident, that had riotoully confumed the fore, &tn fuifill his follies abotit building him an vnneceffarie pallace in the woods had brought them all to that mi. ferie; That had not we arrived, they had as ftrangely tormented him with revenge.But the good newes of our difcovery, and the good hope we had (by the Salvages relation) ou: Bay had fretched to the Southfea,appeared their fury;but conditionally that Ratliffe fhould ue depofed, se that captaine Smith would take hee Subftituted $M^{r}$ Scrivener his deare friend in the Prefidencic, equally diftributing thofe private provifions the other had ingroffed; appointing more honeft officers to affitt Scrivener, (who then lay extreamelie tormented with a callenture) & in regard of the weak-

Tbe company left toliue at eafe. nes of the company, and heat of the yeare they being vnable to worke; he left them to live at eafe, but imbarked himfelfe to finifh his difcovery.
written by walter Rufell and Anas Todkill.

> CH AP. 6.
> whas happened the fecond voyageto dijcover the Bay.

THE 20. of Iuly Captaine Smithfet forward to finifh the difcovery with 12, men their names were

The winde beeing contrary cauled our flay 2.or 3: daies

with the firfefupply in virginia.

daics at Kcc oughtă the werowans feafting vs with much mirth, his people were perfwaded we went purpofely to bereuenged of the $11.0 / \int$ bromeckes, in the eve. ning we firing 2 . or 3 . rackets, fo terrified the poore Salvages, they fuppofed nothing impoffible wee atThe Saluages tempred, and defired to affift vs. The firft night we an wortes. cored at Seingeray lle, the nexte day croffed patawo. mecks riuer, and hatted for the riner Bolus, wee went not much farther before wee might perceive the bay to devide in 2 .heads, and arriving there we founde it The $_{B y}$. devided in 4 , all which we fearched fo far as we could faile them; 2.0 f them wee found vninhabited, but in croffing the bay to the other, wee incountered 7.0 or 8. Canowes full of Ma/Janomecks, wefecing them pre, An incounte v pare to affault vs, left our oares \& made way with our wiilh ths Mafa faile to incoüter them, yet were we but fiue (with our captaine)could ftand; or within 2 .daies after wee left Kecougbtan, the reft (being all of the laft fupply) were ficke almoft to death, (vntill they werefeafoned to the country, hauing fhut them vader our tarpawling, we put their hats vpon ftickes by the barge fide to make vs feeme many, and fo we thinke the Indians fupoo. fed thofe hats to be men, for they fled withall poffible Speed to the thoare, and there ftayed, ftaring at the failing of our barge, till we anchored right againft the $m$. Long it was ere we could drawe them to come vnto vs, at laft they fent 2 of their company vnarmed in a Canowe, the reft all followed to fecond them if need required; Thefe 2 .being but each prefented with all bell, brought aborde all their fellowes, prefenting the captain with venifon, beares flerh, fifh,bowes, arrows, F clubs, clubs,targets, and beare-skins ; wee vnderftood then norhing at all but by fignes, whereby they fignified vn to vs they had been at warres with the Tockroghs the which they confirmed by fhewing their green woulds; but the night parting vs, we imagined they appointed the next morning to meete, but after that we never faw them.

An incomper with :he Toct? wu:

Entring the River of Tockwogh the Saluages all armed in a fleere of Boates round invironed vs; it chanced one of them could feake the language of powhatan who perfwaded the reft to a friendly parly : bue when they fee vs farnifhed with the Maffanomeckes we pons, and we faining the inumention of Kecoughtan to haue taken them perforce ; they conducted vs to their pallizadoed towne, mantelled with the barkes of erees, with Scaffolds like mounts, brefted about with Barks very formally, their men, women, and children, with dances, fongs, fruits, fifh, furres, & what they had kindly entertained vs, fpreading mats for vs to fit on, ftretching iheir beft abilities to expreffe their loues.

Many hatchets,knilues, & peeces of yron, & braffe, we fee, which they reported to haue from the Safque(ab.nockes a mighty people, and mortall enimies with the MIIJawomeckes; The Safquefabanocks, inhabit vpon the chiefe fpring of thefe 4 . two daies iourney higher then our Barge could paffe for rocks. Yet we prevailed with the interpreter to take with him an other inrerpreter to perfivade the Safquefabinocks to corre to vifit vs, for their language are different: 3 . or 4.daies we expected their returne then 60 . of thefe giantlike-peoplecamedowne with prefents of venifon, Tobacco pipes, Baskets, Targets, Bowes and Arrows, 5 of their Werowances came boldly abord vs, to croffe the bay for Tockwogh, leaving their men and Canowes, the winde being fo violent that they durft not pafie.

Our order was, dayly to hane prayer, with a pfalm, at which folemntie the poore Salvages much wondered:our prayers being done, they were long bufied with confulatation till they had contrived their bufineffe; then they began in moft paffionate manner to hold vp their hands to the funne with a moft feareful fong, then imbracing the Captaine, they began to a. The Salquefa. dore him in like manner, though he rebuked them, yet they proceeded til their fong was finithed, which don basock offer to the Englifh. with a moft ftrange furious action, and a helliih voice began an oratiô cf their loues; that ended, with a great painted beares skin they covered our Captaine, then one ready with a chaine of white beads (waighing at leaft 6 or 7 pound) hung it abour his necke, the others had 18 mantes made of divers forts of skinnes fowed togecher, all thefe with many other toyes, they laid at his feet,ftroking their ceremonious handes about his necke for his creation to be their governour, promifing their aids, victuals, or what they had to bee his, if he would ftay with them to defend and revenge them of the MafJawomecks; But wee left them at Tockwogh, they much forrowing for our departure, yet wee promifed the next yeare againe to vifit them ; many defcriptions and difcourfes they made vs of ©Atquanabucke, Maffawomecke, and other people, lignifying they inhabit the river of Cannida, and from the French to cannides haue their hatchets, and fuch like tooles by trade, F 2 thele there knowe no more of the territorics of Powhatan then his name, and he as little of them.

Thus haning fought all the inlets and rivers worth noting, we returned to difover the river of Paxtuxunt , thefe people we found very tractable,andmoreci vill then any, wee promifed them, as alfo the Patawomecks, the next yeare to revenge them of the Maf/awomecks. Our purpofes were croffed in the difcoverie Toppadunock.R of the river of Toppahanmock, for wee had much wrangling with that peev:fh nation; but at laft they became as cractable as the reff.lt is an excellent, pleaxant, well inhabited,fertill, and a goodly navigable river,toward the head thereof; it pleafed God to take one of our ficke (called M. Fetberfone, where in Fetherfons bay Fetberfione bu- we buried him in the night with a volly of fhot; the reft vicd.

Parantatianke Lifcovered. (notwithanding their ill diet, and bad lodging, crowded in fo fualla barge in fo many dangers, never refting, but alwaies toffed to and againe ; al well recovered their healchessthen we difoovered the river of Payank tzank , and fet faile for Iames Townc;but in croffing the bay in a faire calme, fuch a fuddaine guff furprited vs in the night with thunder and raine, as wee were halfe imployed in freeing out water, never ihinking to efcape drowning yer running before the winde,arlaft we made land by the flafhes of fire from heaven, by which light only we kept from the fplitting fhore, vin tili itpleafed God in that black darknes to preferue vs by that light to find Point comfort, and arived fafe at Iames Towne, the 7 of September,1608. where wee

Their piocee. dings at latres Towne. found M. skriuener and diverfe others well recovered, many dead,fome ficke. The late Prefident priloner for mute muteny, by the honeft diligence of M. Skriuener the harveft gathered, but theftores, provifion, much foiledwith raine. Thus was that yeare (when nothing wanted coorfumed and feent and nothing done; (luch was the government of. Captain Rutliffe Jout only this difcoverie, wherein to expreffe all the dangers, acci . dens, and incounters this fmali number paffed in that fmall barge, with luch watrie diet in thefe great waters and Garbarous Countries (tilthen to any Chriftian vtterly vnknowne) I rather referre theirmerit to the cenfurc of the courteous and experienced reader; then I would be tedious, or partiall, being a partie; By Nat banaell Poell, and snas Todkilh.

CHAP. 7.

The Prefidencie furrendred to Captaine Smith the arrivalland ret urne of the fecond $\int$ upply: sadwhat bappencai.
 Hero. of September 1608 , by the eleEtion of the Councel, 8 requeft of the company Captainc Smith received the letters patents, and tooke vpon him the place of Prefident, which till then by no meanes he would accept though hee were often importuned therevnto. Now the building of Ratcliffes pallas ftaide as a thing ncedleffe; The church was re paired, the ftorehoufe recoucred; building prepared for the fupply we expected. The fort reduced to the ${ }_{\text {QVERE }} 8$. forme of this figure, the order of watch renued, the fquadrons (each fetting of the watch) trained. The whole company every Satturday cxercifed in a ficitic prepared for that purpofe ; the boates trimmed for trade which in their loutney encountred the fecond fupply, that brought them back to difcover the country of ARonasan, how, or why, Captaine Newport obtained fuch a private commifion as not to returne without a lumpe of gold, a certainty of the fouth fea or one of thelof company of $s r$ waller Rawley 1 know not, nor why he trought fuch a 5 pieced barge, not to beare ys to that fouth fea, till we had borne her over the mountaines:which how farre they extend is yet vnknowne)as for the coronation of $P$ owb. 3 tan \& his prefents of Bafon,Ewer, Bed,Clothes, and fuch coflly nouelties, they had bin much better well fpared, then fo ill fent. For we had his favour much better, onlie for a poore peece of Copper, till this fately kinde of foliciting made him fo much overvalue himfelfe, that herefpected vs as much as nothing at all; as for the hiring of the Poles and Dutch to make pitch and tarre, glaffe, milles, and fope-arhes, was moft neceffarie and well. But to fend them and feauenty more without viCtuall toworke, was not fo well confidered: yet this could not haue hurt vs, had they bin 200. (though the we were 130 that wanted for our felues.) For we had the Salvages in that Decorum, (their haruef:becing newly gathered) (hat we feared not to get vituall fuf-

No way but one fis so overthrowe she bufnes.

Powhstans

 fcorne roben bis curtefie mas mof deferved curtefie was ficienthad we bin 500. Now vas there no way to make vs miferable but to neglect that time to make our provifion, whilt it was to be had; the which vas done to perfourme this itrangedifcovery, but more Ifrange coronation; to loofe that time, fend that vi-Etuall we had, tire \& farue our men, having no means to carry victuall, munition, the hurt or ficke, but their owne backs, how or by whom they vvere invented I knovv not; But Captaine Newport we only accounted the author, vvho to effect thele proiects had fo gilded all our hopes, vvith great promifes, that both company and Councel concluded his refolution. I confeffe welittle viderfood then our eftates, to conclude his conclufion, againft al the inconveniences the forefeeing Prefident all eadged. There was added to the coit. cell one Captaine waldo, and Captaine winne two ancient fouldiers and valiant gentlemen, but ignorant of the bufines (being newly arrived) Raicleffe vaas alfo permitted to haue his voice, \& M5 Scrizener defirous to fee ftrange countries, fo that although smith was Piefident,yet the Councell had the authoritie, and ruled it as they lifted; as for cleering Smiths obiections, how pitch,and tarre,wanfoot,clapbord, glaffe, \& fope a fhes, could be provided to relade the fhip;or provift. on got to liue withal, when none was in the Country and chat which we had, fpent before the fhips departed; The anfwer was, Captaine Newport vndertook to fraught the Pinnace with corne, in going and rerur* ning in his difcoverie, and to refranght herlagaine frö Werasoocomoco;alfo promifing a great proportion of victuall from his fhip, inferring that Smiths propofitions were only devifes to hinder his iourney, to ef: feat it himfelfe; and that the crueltie Smith had vfed to the Salvages, in his abfence, might occafion them to hinder his defignes; For which, al workes were left; and sochofen men were appointed for his guard, and. that the Salvages were not fo defperar, as was prexended by Captaine $\chi$ eewport, and how willing he was to with 4 gectb to Powbatan. further then to effect their proiects, (becaufe the coromation would confume much time / vidertooke their meffage to Powbatan, to intreat him to come to James Towne to receiue his prefents, accompanied only with Captaine waldo, M. Andrew Buckler, Edward Brinton, of Samuell Collier; with thefe 4 hee went over land, againt wer awocomoco, there paffed the river of Pa mavnke in the Salvages Canowes, Poobbatan being 30 myles of, who, prefently was fent for, in the meane time his women entertained smith in this manner.
Tbe womens en In a faire plaine field they made a fire, befere which tertainement al W.Siamocomaso helitting vppon a nlat; fuddainly amongt the woods was heard fuch a hideous noife and fhriking, that they betvoke them to their armes, fuppofing Powhatan with allhis power came to furprile shem; but the beholders which were many men, women, & children, fatisfied the Captaine there was no fuch matter, being prefently prefented with this anticke, 30 young women came naked out of the woods (only covered behind and before with a few greene leates) their bodies al painted, fome white,fome red, fome black, fome partie colour, but every one different, sheir leader had a faire paire of ftagges homes on her head, and an otter skinne at her girdle, another ather arme, a quiver of arrowes at her backe, and bow and arrowes in her hand, the next in her hād a fword, another a club, anosher a pot-fick, all hornd alike,the reft every one with their feverall devifes. Thefe feindes with moft hellifh ## with the fecond Jupply in virginis.

cries and thouts rufhing from amongft the trees, caft tilemfelues in a ring about the fire, finging, and dauncing with excellent ill varictie, off falling into the in infermali paffions, and then folemmely againe to fing, and daunce. Having feent neere an houre, in this maskaradojas they entered; in like manner departed; hauing re accommodated themfelues, they folemnely invited Smith to their lodging, but no fo mer was hee within the houre, but all thefeN imphes more tormented him then ever, with crowding, and preffing, and hanging vpon hiin, moft tediouty crying, loue you notmee:s This falutation ended, the feaft was fet, confifting of frait in baskers, filh & flefh in wooden platters, beans and peare there wanted not (for 20 hogges) uor any Salvage daintie their invention could devife; fome attending. others finging and dancing about them; this mirth aud banquet being ended, with firebrands / inRead of torches) they conducted him to his lodging.

The next day came Poobatan; Smith delivered his captain Smiats meffage of the prefents fent him, and redelivered him mefage. 2 amontack, defiring him come to his Father Newport to accept thofe prefents, and conclude their revenge againft the Moizacans, wherevnto the fubtile Salvage thus replied.

If your king hate fent me prefents, I allo am a king, Poosbatannas: and this my land, 8 daies I will fay to receane them, ${ }^{\text {s }}$ wer. your father is to come to me, not I to him, nor yet to your fort, neither will I bite at fuch a baite: as for the Monacans, I can revenge my owne miuries, and as for Arquanurbuck, where you fay your brother was flain, it is a contrary way from thole parts you duppofe it.

But for any falt water beyond the mountaines, the re lations you haue had from my people are falfe, whervpon he began to draw plots vpon the ground (according to his difcourfe) of all thole regions; many other difcourfes they had (yet both defirous to giue each o. ther contenr in Complementall courtefies ) and fo Captaine Smith returned with this anfwer.

Ponotatans Coronation.

Vponthis Captaine Newport fent his prefents by water, which is neare 100 miles, with jo of therbet fhot, himfelfe went by land which is but 12 miles, where he nret with our 3 barges to tranforthim a. ver. All things being fit for the day of his coronation, the prefents were brought, his bafon, ewer, bed & furniture fet vp, his fcarlet cloake and apparel(with mueh adoe/pur on him (being perfwaded by Namontacke they would doe him no hurt. ) But a fowle trouble there was to make him kneele to receaue his crowne, he neither knowing the marieftis, nor meaning of a Crowne,nor bending of the knee, indured fo many perfwafions, examples, and inftructions,as tired them all. At laft by leaning hard on his fhoulders, he a little flooped, and Newpors pur the Crowne on his head. When by the warning of a piftoll, the boates were prepared with fuch a volly of fhot, that the king ftart vp in a horrible feare, till he fee all was well, then re* membring himfelfe, to congratulate their kindneffe, he gatie his old fhoes and his mantle to Captain Newoport. But perceiuing his purpofe was to difcover the Monacans, heelaboured to divert his refolution,refu. ling to lend him either men, or guids, more then $N a$ moxtack, and fo (after fome complementall kindneffe > with the fecord fupply in virginia.

on woth fides) in requitall of his preients, he prefented Newport with a licape of wheat eares, that might co. tain fome 7 or 8 buthels, & as much more we bought ready dreffed in the towne, wherewith we returned to the fort.

The fhip baving disburdened her felfe of 70 per. fons, with the firft gentewoman, and woman fervant of Mononavanery. that arrived in our Colony; Capeaine Nexport with al the Councell, and i 20 chofen men, fet forward for the difcovery of Monacors , leauing the Prefident at the fort with 80 .(fuch as they were) to relade the fhippe. Arriving at the falles, we marched by land fome forty myles in 2 daies and a halfe, and fo returned downe to the fame path we went. Two townes wee difcovered of the Monacans, the people neither ving vs well nor ill, yet for our fecuritie wee tooke one of their pettie Werowances, and lead himbound, to conduct vs the way. And in our returne fearched many places wee fuppofed mynes, about which we fpent fome time in refining, having one william alliut a refiner, fitted for that purpole, from that cruk of earth wee digged hee perfwaded vs to beleeue he extracted fome fimal quan citie of filver(and not vnlikely better ftuffe might bee had for the digging ) with this poore trial being contented to leaue this faire, fertill, well watred countrie. Cöming to the Falles, the Salvages fained there were diverfe fhips come into the Bay to kill them at Iames Towne. Trade they would not, and find their corn we could not, for they had hid it in the woods, and being thus deluded we arrived at Iames Towne, halfe ficke, all complaining, and tired with toile, famine, and dif.

Thepraceedings and accidests

 côtent, to haue only but difoovered our gilded hopes, and fuch fruiteffecertaineties, as the Prefident foretold vs.No foonerwere we landed, but the Prefident dif. perfed many as were able,fome for glaffe, others for pitch, tarre and fope afhes, leaving them, (with the fort to the Councels overfight. But 30 of vs he cöducted 5 .myles from the fort to learn to make clapbord, cut downe trees, and ly in woods; amongit the reft he had cho fen Gabriell Beadell,& Iohn Ruffell the only two gallants of this laft fupply, and bort proper gentle. men: Arange were thefe pleafures to their conditions, yet lodging eating, drinking working, or playing they doing but as the Prefident, all thefe things were carried fo pleafantly, as within a weeke they became Ma. fters, making it their delight to heare the trees thunder as they fell, but the axes fo oft bliftered there render fingers, that commonly every third blow had a lowd oath to drowne the eccho; for remedy of which fin the Prefident devifed howe to haue everie mans oathes numbred, and at nighr, for every oath to Apunibument for frecaring. haue a can of water povvred downe his flecue, vvith vuhich every offender veas fo vvafhed (himfelfe & all) that a man thould fcarfe heare an oath in a weeke.

By this, le no mã think that the Prefident, or thefe gentlemen fpent their times as common wood hac. kers at felling of trees, or fuch like other labours, or that they were preffed to any thing as hirelings or co. mon flaues, for what they did (being but once a little inured) it feemed, and they conceited it only as a pleafure and a recreation, Yet 30 or 40 offuch voluntary

with the fecond fupply in Virginia.

Gentemen would doe more in a day then 100 of one gentemax the relf that muft bee preftio it by compulfion. betere then, 20 Mafter Scrivenex, Captaine waldo, and Capraine lifbers, wime, at the fort, every ouse in like manner care= fully regarded their charge. The Prefident returning from amongit the woodes, feeing the time confuncd, and no provifion gotten, (and the fhip lay Idle, and would do nothing) prefently imbarked himelfe in the difcovery barge, giving order to the Coücell, to fend $M^{r}$ per $f_{f \text { ey after him with the next barge that ar- }}^{\text {and }}$ rived at the fort; 2 . barges, he had himelfe, and 20. më, but arriving at Chickabumina that dogged nation, was too wel acquainted with our wants, refufing to trade, with as much forne and infolencie as they could exprefie. The Prefident perceiving it was Powhatans pol. licy to ftaruc vs, told them he came not fo much for mines forced to their corne, as to revenge his imprifonment, and the contrionion. death of his men murdered by them, \& lo landing his men, and ready to charge them, they immediatly fed; burthen they feat their imbaffadeurs, with come, filh, fouv, or: what they had to make their peace, (their curne being that year bad)they complained extreamly of their owne wants, yer franghted our boats with loo buthels of corne, and in like manner $M^{r}$ Perfies, that not long after vs arriued; they having done the beft they could to content vs, within 4 .or 5 . daies we returned to Iames Towne.

Though this much contented the company (that then feared nothing but farving) yet fome fo envied his good fucceffe, that they rather defired to flarue, the for moth deinge his paines fhould proue fo muchmore effectuall then theirs;fome proiects there was, not only to hatle depofed him but to haue kept him out of the fort, for that being Prefident, he would leauehis place, and the fort withour their confents; but their hornes were fo much too fhort to effect it, as they themfelues more narrowly efcaped a greater mifchiefe.
A good tauerne
All this time our old taverne, made as much of all them that had either mony or ware as could bee defired;and by this time they were become fo perfect on all fides(I meane Souldiers,Sailers, and Salvages,) as there was ten-times more care, to maintaine their dānable and private trade, then to provide for the Colony things that were neceffary, neither was it a finall pollicy in the mariners, to report in England wee had fuch plenty and bring vs fo many men without victuall, when they had fo many private factors in the fort, that within 6.0r 7.weekes atrer the fhips returne, of $2.0 r 300$. hatchets, chiffels, mattocks, and pickaxes fearce 20 could be found, and for pike-heads, kniues, Abad trade of fhot,powder, or any thing (they could fteale frō their mafers andjai- fellowes)was vendible; They knew as well (and as 「ecretly)how to convay them to trade with the Salvages, for furres, baskets, muffaneekes, young beaftes or fuch like commodities, as exchange them with the failers,forbutter, cheefe,biefe,porke, aquavite, beere,bifket, and oatmeale, and then faine, all was fent thé frö their friends. And though Virginia afford no furs for the fore, yet one mariner in one voyage hath got fo many, as hee hath confeffed to haue folde in England for $3^{1}{ }^{1}$.

Thofe are the Saint-feeming worthies of Virginia,

> with the fecondfupply in Virginia.
that haue notwithfanding all this, meate, drinke, and pay, but now they begin to grow weary, their trade being borh perceived and prevented; none hath bin in Virgimat that hath obferved any thing which knowes not this to be true, and yet the forne, and fhame was the poore fouldiers, gentlemen and eareleffe governours, who were all thus bought and folde, the adventurers coufened, and the action over throwne bv their falle excufes, informations, and directions, by this let all che world Iudge, how this bufineffe coulde profper, being thus abufed by fuch pilfering occafi. ons.

The proccedings and accidents, with the fecond (apply.
ME Scrivener was fent with the barges and Pinas to Wera, wo oonoco, where he found the Salvages more rea. dy to fighe then trade, but his vigilancy was fuch, as comoco. prevented their proicctes, and by the meanes of $24-$ montick got 3 . or 4 .hogfheads of corne, and as much Red paint which then 'was efteemed an excellent die.

Captaine Newoort being difpatched with the tryals of pitch, tarre, glaffe, frankincenfe, and fope afhes, with that clapbord and wainfoot could bee provided met with $M^{5}$ Scrivener at point Comfort, & fo retur ned for England, leaving vs in all 200, with thofe hee brought vs.

> The names of thofe in this supply are thefeo

Captaine Peter winne. \}were appointed io bec Captaine Richard waldo. 3 of the Councell.

The proceedings and accidents Mr Franciswef. Thomas Granes. Rawley Chrofbaw. Gabriell Bedle.
Iobn Ruffell. Iobn Bedle. william Ruffell. Iohn Gudderington. william Sambage.
Henry Collings. Henry Ley. Harmon Haryfon.
Daniell Tucker.
Hugh wollyfone.
Iobn Hoult.
Thomas 2 2orfon.
George Yaringtor.
George Burtos.
Hesry Pbilpot.
Thomas Maxes.
Michaell Lowicke. $M^{\text {r }}$ Hunt.
Thomas Foreft. william Dowman.
Zolin Dauxe. Thonaws Ab̈bay.

Thomas Phelps.
Iohn Part.
sobn Clarke. Sefro Shortridge, with the fecond Jupply in Virginia.
53

Tradim.

Thomas Dowfeo
Thomas Mallard.
william Taler.
Thomas Fox.
Nicholas Hancock.
walker.
williams.
Morrello
Rofe.
Scot.
Hardwoino Nilman.
Hellyard.

$\}$ Boyes.
Mifreffe Foreft and Anne Buras her maide, 80
Dutchmen, and Poles withdivers to the number of 70. perfors.
Thofe poore conclufions fo affrighted vs all with famine; that the Prefident provided for Nanfamund, Nanredmed te conttooke with him Captaine winne \& $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Scrivener (thê tributiors seturning from Captaine $N$ eoport $)_{\text {, }}$ thefe people alfo H long long denied him trade, (exculing themfelues to bee fo cónanded by Powhatan) til we were conftrained to be gin with them perforce, and then they would rather fell vs lome, then wee fhould take all; fo loading our boats, with 100 . burhels we parted friends, and came to lames Towne, at which time, there was a marriage be tweene Iobn Laydon and Anna Burrowes being the firft marriage we had in Virginia.

Long he ftaied not, bur fitting himfelfe & captaine Waldo with 2 .barges, from Chawopo, weanocke and all parts there, was found ncither corne nor Salvage, but all fled(being lealous of our intents) till we difcovered

Appamatucke dijccuered. the river and people of Appametuck, where we founde little that they had, we equally devided, betwixt the Salvages and vs (but gaue them copper in confideration $\left.M^{\mathrm{r}}\right)$ Per $\int e$, and $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Scrivener went alfo abroad but could firde nothing.

The Prefident feeing this procaftinating of time, was no courfe to line, refolved with Captame waldo, (whom he knew to be fure in time of need) to furprife Powbatan, and al his provifion, but the vnwillingnes of Captaine winne, and $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Serivener (for fome private refpects) did their beft to hinder their proiect: But the Prefident whom no perfwafions could perfwade to Parue, being invited by Powhatan to come vnto him, \& if he would fend him but men to build him a houfe, bring him a grinftone, 50 . Iwords, fome peeces, a cock and a hen, with copper and beads, he would loade his fhippe with corne, the Prefident not ignoraunt of his devifes, yet vnwilling to neglect any opportunity, prefently feat 3. Dutch-men and 2. Englifh(having no vio Quals

Ctuals to imploy them, all for want therof being idle) knowing there needed no better caftel, the that houfe to furprize Powbată, to effect this proiect he took order with Capraine waldo to fecond him ifneed requi red; Scrivener he left his fubftitutc; and fet forth with the Pinnas $2 . b a r g e s$ and $l i x$ and forty men which only were fuch as volentarily offered themfelues for his iourny, the which (by reafon of $M^{5}$ Scriveners ill fucceffe was cenfured very defperate, they all knowing Smith would not returne empty howfoever, caufed many of thofe that he had appointed, to finde excufes to ftay behude.

CHAP. 8.

Captaine Smiths iourney to Pamavnke.

THE 29 of De cember hee fet forward for Werfo wocomoco, his company were thefe. In the Difcovery barge, bimfelfe. Robert Behetbland. Nathaniell Powell. Lohn Rußell. Rawly Cratbaw. Michacil Sicklemore. Richardivcrlie. Lnas Todkill. VVillam Loue. VVilliam Bentley. Geoffery Shortridge. Edward Pifing. vyillaamVVarde.

Gent.

Sould.

The proceedings andaccidents
In the Pinnace.
$M^{\mathrm{r}}$ George Perfie, brother to the Earle of Northumber. land, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Frauncis VVeff, brother to the Lord Della-Ware. VVilliam Phetiplace Captaine of the Ponnas. Ionas Profit Mafter. Robert Ford clarcke of the councell.

Michaell Pheriplace. Geoffery Abbot Serg. VVilliam Tankard. George Yarington. Iames Bourne. George Burton. Thomas Coe. Iohn Dods. Edpard Brinton. Nathaniel Peacocke.
Henry Powell.
David Ellis.
Thomas Gipfors.
sohn Prat.
George Acrigge.
Iames Reade.
Nichoras Hancocke.
Iames VVattins.
Anthony Baggly Serg.
Thomas Lambert.
Edward Pifing Serg.
4. Dutchmen and Richard Salvage were fent by lanc', to build the haufe for Powbatan againft our arrivall.
This company being viotualled but for 3 .or 4 , daies lod.
lodged the firt night at wer askoyack, where the Prefi. dent tooke fufficient provifion; Thiskind Salvage did his beft to diverthim from fecing Powhatan, butperceiuing he could not prevaile, lle advifed in this maner The good couns. Captaine Smith, you fhall finde Powhatun to vfe you foll of we raskindly, but truft him not, and bee fure hee haue no opkoyck. portunitie to feaze on your armes, for hee hath fent for you only to cut your throats; the Captaine thanked him for his good counfell,yet the better to try his loue, defired guides to Chowanoke, for he would fend a prefent to that king to bind him his friend. To performe this iourney, was fent Micbael Sicklemore, a very honeft, valiant, and painefull fouldier, with him two guids, and directions howe to fearch for the loit company of $\mathrm{r}^{\text {walter Rawley, and filke graffe: then wee de- }}$ parted thence, the Picfident affuring the king his perpetuall loue, and left with him Samuell collier his page to learne the language.

The next night being lodged at Kecoughtan 6 or 7 daies, the extreame wind, raine, frof, and finowe, caufed vs to keepe Chriftmas amongf the Salvages, plentic of vie. where wee were never more merrie, nor fedde on stentic more plentic of good oyiters, filh, flefh, wildfoule, and good bread, no n never hadbetter fires in England the int he drie warme finokie houfes of Kecoughtan, But departing thence, when we found no houles, we were not curious in any weather, tolie 3 or 4 nights together vpon anv fiore voder the trees by a good fire. 148 fowles the Prelidene, Anth: Bagiy, and Edward Pifing, did kill at 3 thoots. At Kiskiack the froft forced vs 3 or 4 daies allu to luppreffe the infolencie of thofe ${ }^{1438 \text { Fomles } \text { lita }}$ $\mathrm{H}_{3}$ proud our barge, and caule them gine vs what wee wanted, yet were we but 12 with the Prefident, and yet we never wanted harbour where we found any houfes. The 12 of lanuarie we arrived at Werawocomoco, where the river was frozen neare halte a mile from the fhore; but to neglect no time, the Prefident with his barge, fo farre had approached by breaking the Ice as the eb left himamongtt thofe oozie fhoules, yet rather then to lie there frozen to death, by his owne example hee taught the to march middie deepe,more then a flight fhot through this muddie froye ooze; when tie barge floted he appointed 2 or 3 to rcturne her abord the Pinnace, where for want of water in melting the falt Ice they made frein water, but in this march M.RuJfell (whome none could perfwade to ftay behind) being fomewhat ill,and exceeding hcavie, fo overtoiled him felfe, as the reft had much adoe(ere he got a fhore) to regainelife, into his dead benummed fpirits, quartering in the next houfes we found, we fent to Poxbatan for provifion, who fent vs plentic of bread, Turkies, \& Venifon. The next day hauing feafted vs after his ordinarie manner, he began to aske, when we would bee gon, faining hee fent not for vs, neither had hee any corne, and his people much leffe, yet for 40 fwords he would procure vs 40 burhels. The Prelident fhewing him the men there prefent, that brought him the meffage and conditions, asked him how it chaunced he became fo forgetful, thereat the king concluded the matter with a merry laughter, asking for our commodities, but none he liked without gunnes and fwords, valuing a basket of corne more pretious then a basket of copper, laying he could eate his corne, but not his copper.

Captaine Smith fecing the intent of this fubtil Sal- capt. Smitbes vage;began to deale with him after this manner, Pow. Dowhatano batan, though I had many courfes to hane made my provifion, yet beleeving your promifes to fupply my wants, neglected all, to fatisfie your defire, and to teftific my loue, I fent you my men for your building, neglecting my owne:what your people had you haue engroffed, forbidding them our trade, and nowe you thinke by confuming the time, wee fhall confume for want, inot hauing to fulfill your ftrange demandes, as for fwords, and gunnes, I told you long agoe, I had none to fpare And you fhall knowe, thofe Ihaue, can keepe me from want, yer fteale, or wrong you I will nor, nor diffolue that friendihip, wee haue mutually promifed, (except you conftraine mee by your bad vfage.

The king hauing attertiuely liftned to this difcourfe; Powbatans; reo promiled, that both hee and his Country would fare ${ }^{p l y}$ of fatery. him what they could, the which within 2 daies, they Shouid receaue, yet Captaine Smith, (faith the king) fome doubt I have of your cöning hither, that makes me not fo kindly leeke to reliene you as J would; for many do informe ane, your comming is not for trade, buto invademv people and poffeffe my Courtry, w.o dare not come to bring you corne, feeing you thus armed with your men. To clecre vs of this feare, leaue abord your weapons, for here they are needleffe we being all friends and fur ever Powbutas.

With many fuch difcourfes they fpent the day, quartring that night in the kings houfes, the next day hereviewed hisbuilding, which hee lietle intended Should proceed; for the Dutchmen finding his plenty, and knowing our want, and perceived his preparation to furprife vs, little thinking wee could elcape, both him ${ }^{\text {and }}$ famine,( to obtaine his favour) revealed to him as much as they knew of our eftates and proiects, and how to prevent them; one of thembeing offo good a iudgement, firit, and refolution, \& a hireling that was certaine of wages for his labour, and ever well vfed, both he and his countrimen, that the Prefident knewe not whome better to trult, \& not knowing any fitter for that imploiment, had fent himas a fpie to difo ver Powbatans intent, then little doubting his honeftie, nor could ever be certaine of his villany, till neare halfe a yeare after.

Whild we expected the comming in of the counsrie, we wrangled out of the king io quarters of corne for a copper kettle,the which the Prefident perceived him much to effect, valued it at a much greater rate, but (in regard of his fearcety) hee would accept of as much more the rext yeare, or elfe the country of Mozacan, the king exceeding liberall of that hee had not yeelded him Monacan. Wherewith each feeming well contented; Pooshatan began to expoftulate the diffe. rence betwixt peace and war, after this manner.
Fowbataniz:- Captaine Smith you may voderfand, that I, hauing courco of peace axd warte, feene the death of all my people thrice, and not one living of thofe 3 generations, but my felfe, I knowe the difference of peace and warse, better then any in my

> with the fecond fupply in virginit.

Countric. But now I amold, &zere long muft dic, my brethren, namely Oichapam, Opechankanough, and Ke: kataugh, my wo fifers, and their two daughters, are dittinety each others fucceifours, I wifh their expe. riences no leffe then mine, and your loue to them, no leffe then mine to you;but this brute from $N a n$ amăd that you are come to deftroy my Countrie, fo much affrighteth all my people, as they dare not vifit you; what will it availe you,to take that perforce, you may quietly haue with lone, or to deftroy them that provide you food? what can you get oy war, when we can hide our provifion and flic to the woodes, whereby you munt famifh by wronging vs your friends; & whie are you thus iealous of our loues, fecing vs vinarmed, and both doc, & are willing flill to feed you with that you cannot get but by our labours? think you I am fo firmple not to knowe, it is better to eate good meate, lie well, and fleepe quiet! y with my women & chiildré, laugh and be merrie with you, haue copper, hatchets, or what I want, being your friend; then bee forced to fie from al, to lie cold in the woods, feed yponacorns roots, and fich tralh, and be fo hunted by you, that I can neither reft, eat, nor fleepe; but my tired men muft watch, and if a twig but breake, everie one cric there comes Captaine Smith, then munt, I Ale I knowenot whether, and thus with miferable feare end my miferable life; leauing my pleafures to fuch youths as you, which through your rafh vnadvifednefle, may quickly as miferably ende, for want of that you never knowe haw to find? Let this therefore affure yout of our loues and everie yeare our triendly trade fhall furnilh you with corne, & now alfo if you would come in friend. ly manner ta fee vs, and not thus with your gunnes &e fwords, as to invade your foes. To this fubril difcourfe the Prefident thus replied.

Seeing you will not rightly cöceaue of our words, wee frine to make you knowe our thoughts by our deeds. The vow I made you of my lone, both ny felfe and my men haue kept, as for your promife I finde it everie daie violated, by fome of your fubiects, yet wee finding yourloue and kindneffe (our cuftome is fo far from being vngratefull) that for your fake only, wee haue curbed rur thirfting defire of revenge, elfe had they knowne as wel the crueltic we vfe to our cnimies as our true loue and currefie to our friendes. And J thinke your indgement fufficient to concriue as well by the adventures we haue vndertaken, as by the advantage we hane by our armes of yours: that had wee intended you anie hurt, long ere this wee coulde haue effected it;your people corming to me at Iames towne, are entertained with their bowes and arrowes with. out exception; we efteeming it with you, as it is with vs,to weare our armes as our apparell. As for the dagers of our enimies, in fuch warres confift our chiefeft pleafure, for your riches we hane no vfe, as for the hiding your provifion, or by your flying to the woods, we fhall fo vnadvifedly ftarue as you conclude, your friendly care in that behalfe is needleffe; for we hane a rule to finde beyond your knowledge.

Manie other difcourfes they had, til at laft they began to trade, but the king feing his will would not bee admitted as a lawe, our gard difperfed, nor our men > wish ithe fecond fupply invirginia.

difarmed, he (fighing) breathed bis mind, once more in this manner.

Captaine Smith, I never vfed anie of werowances, fo kindlic as your felfe; yet from you J receauc the leaft kindneffe of anic. Capraine Nenport gaue me fivords, copper, cloths, a bed, tooles, or what I defired, ever ta. Porbhatarsim. poriunitite for io opp co J firedhim, and would fend awaichis thm. king what $J$ offered him, and would fend awaie his gunnes when I intreated him: none doth denic to laie at my feet(or do) what I defire, but onelic you, of whö I can haue nothing, but what you regard not, and yet you wil haue whatfocver you demand. Captain Newport you call father, and fo you call me, but I fee for all vs both, you will doe what you lift, and wee mult both fecke to content youl: but ifyou intend fo friendlie as you faic, fende hence your armes that $J$ may belcene you, for you fee the loue J beare you, doth caule mee thus nakedlie forget my felfe.
Smith feeing this Salvage but trifled the time to cur his throat: procured the Salvages to breake the ice, (that his boat might come to fetch both him and his corne) and gaue order for his men to come afhore, to haue furprifed the king, with whom alfo he but trifled the time till his men landed, and to keepe him from furpition, entertained the time with this reply.

Powhatan, you mult knowe as J haue but one God, Thonour but one king; and J liue not here as your fub coumre to dele.g ied, but as your friend, to pleafure you with what $J$ cōs: by the giffs you beftowe cis me, you gaine more then imight furprif by trade; yet would you vifite mee as I doe you, you Thould knowe it is not our cuftomes to fell our curteGe as a vendible commoditie. Bring all your Country over iealous. But to content you, to morrow J will leaue my armes, and truft to your promife. I call you father indeed, and as a father you fhall fee J will loue you, but the final care you had of fuch a child, caufed my men perfwade me to fhift for my felfe.

Pombatans p!at to baue surde. red Smith.

By this time Powbatan hauing knowledge, his men were readie:whilft the ice was breaking, his luggage women, and children fedde, and to avoid fulfition, left 2 or 3 of his women talking with the Captaine, whilft he fecterly fled, and his men as fecretlie befet the houfe, which being at the inftant difcovered to Capt. Smith, with his Piftol, Sword & Targer, he made fuch a paffage amongit thofe naked divels, that they fled be fore him fome one waie fome another, fo that without hurt he obtained the Corps du-guard;when they perceined him fo wellefcaped, and with his 8 men(for he had no more with him) To the vttermof of their skill, they fought by excufes to diffemble the matter, and Pombatan to excure his flight, and the fuddaine co.- st chain of perle for a prefest. ming of this multitude, fentour Captainc a greate bracelet, and a chaine of pearle, by an ancient Orator that befpoke vs to this purpofe, ( perceiving then fro our Pinnace, a barge and men departing & comming Misexaus. vnto vs.) Captaine Smith, our werowans is fled,fearing your guns, & knowing when the ice was broken there would come moremen, lent thofe of his to guard his corne from the pilfric, that might happen without your knowledge:now though fome bee hurt by your miforifion, yet he is your friend, and fo wilcontinue: and fince the ice is open hee would haue you fend a-

> with the fecond Jupply invirginia.
waie your cornc;and if you would hanchis companie fend alfo your armes, which fo alfrighteth this people, that they dare not come to you, as he hath promileed they fhould: nowe having provided baskets for our men to carric the corne, they kindlie offered their fervice to gard our armes, that none fhould feale them. A great manic they were, of goodlie well appointed Pretending ss fellowes as grim as divels; yet the verie fight of cocking our matches againft them, and a few words, caufed them to leane their bowes \& arrowes to our gard, and beare downe our corne on their own backes; wee fillour men loded roith bafo ketswe forced the Salvages carrie them. needed not importune them to make quick difpatch. But our own barge being left by the ebb, caufed vs to ftaie, till the midnight tide carried vs fafe abord, having fpent that halfe night with fuch mirth, as shough we never had fufpected or intended any thing, we left the Dutchmen to build, Brinton to kil fowle for Powbatan (as by his meffengers he importunately defired) andleft directions with our men to giue Poobbatanall the content they could, that we might inioy his com. pany at our returne from Pamawnke. CHAP. 9. How we efoapedfurprijing at Pamavnke. (e) enge E Ehad no fooner fet faile, but ${ }^{T h e}$ dxichanmen Smitb Powhatan returned, and fent $\rightarrow$ dim and Francis (2.fout Dutch men) to the fort, who faining to Captaine WVinse that al things were well, and that Captaine Smith had vfe for their armes, whercfore they requefted newe (the which were given them) they told him their coming was, for fome extraordinary tooles and fhifs of apparell, by this colourable excule, they obtained 6 . or 7 -more to their cenfederacie, fuch expert theefes, that preférly furnifhed thé with a great many fiwords, pike-heads, peeces, fhot, powder and fuch like, they had Salvages at hand ready to carry it away, the next day they returned vnfufpected, leaving their confederates to follow, and in the interim, to convay them a competencic of all things they could, for which firvice they fhould liue with Powbatan as his chiefe affected:free from thofe miferies that would happen the Colony. Samuell their other confort, Powhatan kept for their pledge, whofe diligence had provided t em, 300.0f their kinde of hatchets, the reft. 50. fwords, 8. peeces, and 8.pikes: Brinton, \& Richard Salvage feeing the Dutch-men fo ftrangly diligent to accommodate the Salvages thefe weapons attempted to haue got to Iames Towne, but they were apprehended; within $2.0 r$ 3.daies we arrived at Pamavnke, the king as many daies, entertained vs with feafting and much mirth: \& the day he appointed to begin our trade, the Prefidēt, with $M^{5}$ Perjie, $M^{\mathbf{r}}$ weft, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Ruffell, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Beheathland, $M$ Powell, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Crafbaw, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Ford, and fome others to the number of 15 .went vp to Opechancanougs houfe (near a quarter of a mule from the river, ) where we founde nothing, but a lame fellow and a boy, and all the houfes about, of all things abandoned; not long we ftaide cre the king arrived, and after bin came divers of his people loaded with bowes and arrowes, bur fuch pinching commodities, and thefe efteemed at fuch a value, as our Captaine beganne with him in this manner.
opechancanough the great loue you profeffe with your toingue: feemes mecre deccipt by your actions; sinithe fecthancecalaftyeare you kindly fraughted our fhip, but now you neugh. haue invited ine to ftarue with hunger. You know my want, and I your plenty, of which by fome meanes I mult hanc part, remember it is fit for kings to keepe their promife, here aremy commodities, wherof take your choice; the reft I will proportion, fit bargaines for your people.

The king feemed kindly to accept his offer; and the better to colour his proiect, fold vs what they had to our own cötêt; promifing the next day, more cōpany, beter provided; (the barges, and Pinnas being committed to the charge of $M^{r}$ Pbet iplace) the Prefident with his old 15 marched vp to the kings houfe, where we foŭd 4 or 5 men newly cöe with great baskets, not long after came the king, who with a ftrained cheere. fulnes held vs with difcourfe, what paines he had take to keepe his promife; til $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Ru/Jellbrought vs in news that we were all betraied: for at leaft 6 . or 700.0 f well appointed Indians had invironed the houfe and befet yoo Saluages the fields. The king coniceturing what Ruffell related, , lifft beine Eng. we conld wel perceiue how the extremity of his feare 16 . bewrayed his intent: whereat fome of our companie feeming difanaide with the thought of fuch 2 multi. tude; the Captaine incouraged vs after this manner.

Worthy countrymen were the mifchiefes of my smiths feech ice feeming friends, no more then the danger of thefe c nemies, llittle cared, were they as many more, if you cape them, our malicious councell with their open mouthed minions, will make mee fuch a peace-breaker(in their opinions)inEngläd, as wil break my neck; I could with thofe here, that make thefefeeme Saints, and me an eppreffor. But this is the worf of all, wher in I pray aide me with your opinions; fhould wee be. gin with them and furprize this king, we cannorkeep him and defend well our felues, if we fhould each kill our man and fo proceede with al in this houfe; the reft will all Ay, then fhall we get no more, then the bodies that are flaine, and then farue for victuall: as for thess fury it is the leaft danger; for well youknow, being a. lone affaulted with 2 or 300 of them)I made them co pound to fane my life, and we are now 1682 they but 700 at the moft, and affure your felues God wilfo affift vs, that if you dare but to ftande to difcharge your pecces, the very fmoake will bee fufficient to affright them; yet howfoever/if there be occafion, let vs fight like men, and not die like fheep; but firf I will deale with them, to bring it to paffe, we may fight for fome thing, and draw them to it by conditions. If you like this motion, promife me youle be valiant. The time not permitting any argument, all vowed, to execute whatfoever he attempted, or die; wherevpon the cap. taine, approaching the king befpoke him in this manner.
sinitibs ofer ta Ifee Qpechancanough your plot to murder me, bat I opechanca- feare it not, as yet your men and mine, hatle done no neagh. harme, burby our directions. Take therefore your arm; you fee mine; my body fhalbe as naked as yours;

with the fecond/upply invirginia.

the Ile in your river is a fit place, if you be contented: and the conqueror (of vs two) fhalbe Lord andMafter over all our men;otherwaies drawe all your men into the field; if you haue not enough take time to fetch more, and bring what number you will, fo everic one bring a basket of corne, againft all which I will Rake the value in copper;you fee I hane but 15 men , &our game fhalbe the conquerer take all.
The king being guarded with 50 or 60 of his chicfe opechest - men, feemed kindly to appeafe Smichs fifpition of vn. *oughinderifere kindneffe, by a great prefent at the dore, they:ntreated him to receile. This was to draw him without the dore where the prefent was garded with (at the leaft 200 men and 30 lying vinder agreate tree (that lay thwart as a Barricado) e ech his arrow nocked ready co fhoot; fome the Prefident commanded to go & fee what kinde of deceit this was, and to receine theprefent, but they refufed to do it yet divers offered whom he would not permit; but commanding $M$ : Perfie and $M^{5} V V_{i f f}$ to make good the houfe, tooke $M^{r}$ Poell and Mr: Befearbiand to guard the dore, and in fuch a rage fnatched the king by his vanbrace in the midf of his men, with his piftoll ready bent againt his breft: thus he led the trembling king, (neare dead with feare) a. mongltall his people, who delivering the Captaine hisbow and arrowes, all his mentwere eafily intreated to caft downe their armes, little dreaming anie durft in that manner haue vfed their king; who then to efcape himfelfe, beftowed his prefents in goodfadneffe. And hauing caufed all his multitude to approach difarmed; the Prelident argued with them to this effect.
to the Pamaunkies.

The Salvages differmble bbeir interss.

Ifee you Pamarnkies the great defire you hane to cut my throat; and my long fuffering your iniuries, haue inboldened you to this prefumption. The caufe Ihaue forborne your infolécics, is the promife I made you(before the God I ferue)ro be your friend, till you giue me iuft caufe to bee your enimie. Jf J keepe this vow, my God will keepe me, you cannot hurt me ; ifJ breake it he will deftroie me. But if you thoot but one arrow, to hed one drop of blood of any of my men, or ftealc the leaft of thefe beades, or copper, (l fpurne before me with my foot you fhall fee, I wil not ceafe revenge, (ifonce J begin)fo long as J can heare where to find one of your natio that will not deny the name of Pamarnke; J am not now at Raffenenc (halfe drownd with mire) where you tooke me prifoner, yet then for keeping your promife, and your good vfage, \& faving my life, I fo affect your, that your denials of your treacherie, doth half perfwade me to miftake my felfe. But if I be che marke you aime at, here I fand, fhoote hee that dare. You promifed to franght my fhip ere I departed, and lo you fhall, or I meane to load her with your dead carkafes;yet if as friends you wil come and trade, J once more promife not to trouble you, except you gine me the firf occafion. Vpon this awaie went their bowes and arrowes, and men, women, and shildren brought in their commodities, but 2 or three houres they fo thronged about the Prefident, and fo overwearied him, as he retired himfelf to reft, leaving $M^{\text {: Beheatbland and } M^{5} \text { Powel to accept their prefents; }}$ but fome Salvage perceiving him faft afleepe, and the guard carelelly difperfed, 40 or 50 of their choice mẽ each > with the fecond fupply invirginix.

each with an Englifh fword in his hand, began to enter the houfe, with 2 or 300 ethers that preffed to fe. cond them. The noife and haft they made in, did fo Thake the houfe, as they awoke him from his flecp, & being halfe amazed with this fuddaine fight, betooke him ftraight to his fword and target, $M^{s} C r a f b a w$ and fome other charging in like manner, they thronged Tbeiz exufee fafterbacke, then before forward. The houfe thus receracilemente clenfed, the king and his ancients, with a long oration came to excufe this intrufion. The reft of the day was fpent with much kindneffe, the company againerenuing their prefents of their beft provifion, And what foever we gane them, they feemed well contented with it.

Now in the meane while fince our departure, this hapned at the fort, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Scriuener willing to croffe the furprizing of Powhatan; 9 daies after the Prefidents departure, would needs vifit the Jle of hogyes, and took with him Captaine walao (though the Preindent had appointed him to bee readie to fecond his occafions) with $M^{5}$ Anthony Gofnoll and cight others; but fo violent was the wind(chat extreame frozen time) that the boat funke, but whicre or how, none doth knowe, for they were all drowned; onlie this was knowne, that the Skiffe was much overloaded, 8 would fcarle haue lived in that extreame tempent, had the beene emptic; but by no perfwafion hee could bee diverted, though both waldo and 100 others doubted as it hapned. The Salvages were the firt that found their bodies, which fo much the more encouraged them to effect their proieas. To advertife the Prefident of this heavie K 2 newes

The loffe of M: sluiucner and otbers witha skiffe.

$\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$
newes, no ne could bee found would vndertake it, bur the iourney was often refufed of all in the fort, vntill $M \mathrm{r}$ wiff in vindertooke alone, the performance thereof wherein he was encountred with many dangers \& difficulties, and in all parts as hee paffed (as alfo that night he lodged with Powhat an) perceived fuch preparation for warre, that affured bim, fome mifchiefe was intended, butwith extraordinarie bribes, and mith trouble, in three daies travell at length hee found vs in the midft of thefe turmoiles. This vnhappie newes, the Prefident fwore him to conceale from the reft, \& fo differmbling his forrow, with the beft countenance he could, when the night approached, went fafely abord with all his companie.
Porbbatan con- Now fo extreamely Foobatan had threatned the firnineth bisme $\vec{C}$ so be trecherous death of his men, if they did not by fome meanes kill Captaine Smith, shat thenext day they appointed the Countrie ihould come to trade vnarmed: yet vnwilling to be treacherous, but that they were conftrained hating fighting, almoft as ill as háging fuch feare they had of bad fucceffe. The next morning the funne had not long appeared, but the fieldes appeared covered with people, and baskets to tempt vs afhore: The Prefident determined to keepe abord, but nothing was to bec had without his prefence, nor they would not indure the fight of a gun; then the Prefident feeing many depart, and being vnwilling to lofe fuch abooty,fo well contrived the Pinnace, and his barges with Ambulcadoes, as only with $21^{\mathrm{r}} \operatorname{Per}\left(\operatorname{le}, M^{\mathrm{r}}\right.$ weft, \& $M^{\mathrm{r}} \mathrm{Ruf}$ fellarmed, he went afhore, others vnarmed he appoin ted to receiue what was brought; the Salvages floc. ked before him in hreapes, and (the bancke ferving as a trench for retreat) hee drewe them faire open to his ambulfadoes, for lie no being to be perfivaded to go to vifit tincir king the King came to vifithim with 2 or 300 men, in the forme of ewo halfe moons, with fome 20 men, and many women loaded with great painted baskets; but when they approached fomewhat neare vs their women and children fled; for when they had environed and befet the fieldes in this manner, they thought the ir purpofe fure;yet fo trembled with fear as they were fcarle able to nock their arrowes; Smith ftanding with his 3 men readie bent beholding them, till they were within danger of our ambufcado, who, vpon the word difcovered themelues, and he reciring to the banke; which the Salvages no fooner perceived but away they fid, eftceming their heeles for their beft advantage.

That might we fent to the fort $M^{5} C r a f b a w$ and $M^{+}$ Foard, who (in the mid way berweene werawocomoco and the fort) met 4 or 5 .of the Dutch mens confederates going to Powbatan, the which ( to excufe thofe gentemens Sufpition of their running to the Salva ges returned to the fort and there consinued.
The Sal ages hearing our barge depart in the night were fo terriblic affraide, that we fent for moremen, (we having fo much threatned their raine, and the raing of their houles, boats and canowes) that the next day the king, fent cur Captaine a chaine of pearle to $A$ chaize of alecr his purpofe;and ftay his men, promifing (though pearle fent to they wanted themfe'ues) to fraught our thip, 8 bring it abord to avoid fufpition, fo that 5 or 6 daies after, from al parts of the countrie within ro or is miles, in the extreame cold froft, and frow, they brought vs provifion on their naked backes.

Yet notwithftanding this kindneffe and trade; had their art and poifon bin fufficient, the Prefident with

The Prefident Poyjoned. The offender pu nilhed. $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ weft and fome others had been poyfoned; it made thëficke, but cxpelled it felfe: Wecuttanow a fout yong fellow, knowing hee was fifpected for bringing this prelent of poifon, with 40 or 50 . of his choice companions (feeing the Prefident but with a few men at Potavncat--)fo prowdlie braved it, as though he expected to incounter a revenge; which the Prefident perceiving in the midft of his companie did not onlie beat, but fpurned him like a dogge, as fcorning to doe him anie worfe mifchiefe; wherevpon all of them fled into the woods, thinking they had done a great matrer, to hane fo well efcaped; and the townfmen remaining, prefentlie fraughted our barge, to bee rid of our companies, framing manic excufes to excule wecuttanow (being fon to their chiefe king but Powbatan) and told vsif we would fhew them him that brought the poyfon, they would deliver him to vs to punifh as wee pleafed.

Men maie thinke it ftrange there fould be this fir for a little corne, but had it been gold with more eafe we might haue got it; & had it wanted, the whole collonic had ftarved. We maie be thought verie patient, to indure all thofe iniuriess yet onlie with fearing the , we got what they had. Whereas if we had taken revenge, thĕ by theit loffe we fhould haue loft our felus. We fearched alfo the countries of roughtanund and Mattap.amient, where the people imparted that little they had, with fuch complaints and tears from wome and children; as he had bin too cruell to be a Chriftian that would not hane bin fatisfied, and moved with cöpaffion. But had this happened in October, Novéber, and December, when that vnhappie difcoveric of Mo nacan was made, we might haue fraughted a hip of 40 tuns, and twice as much might haue bin had; from the rivers of Toppabannock, Pat awomeck & Pawtuxunt. The maine occafion of our temporizing with the $S_{a l}$ vages was to part friends, (as we did) to giue the leffe caufe offurpitiô to Powhatan to fly; by whom we now returned, with a purpofe, to haue furpriled him & his provifion, for cffecting whercof, (when we came again(t the towne)the Prefident fent $M^{r}$ wiffinand $M^{r}$ Coe, a fhore to dilcover and make waie for his inten. ded proiect. But they foind that thofe damned Dutchmen had caufed Powhatan to abandon his new houfe, and werawocomoco, and to carric awaic all his corne & provifion; and the peop'e, they found(by their means fo ill affected, that had they not ftood well vpon their guard, chey had hardlie efcaped with their liues. So the Prefident finding his intention thus fruftrated, & that there was nothing now to be had, and therefore an vufit time to revenge their abufes, helde on his courfe for Itmes Towne; we having in this Iornie (for $25^{1}$ of copper $50^{1}$ of Iron and beads) kept 40 men 6 . weekes, and dailie feated with bread, corne, flefh firh, and fowle, everic man having for his reward (;and in confideration of his commodities) a months provifion;(ro trade being allowed but for the ftore,) and we delive.

Thofe temporall proceedings to fome maie feeme too charitable;to fuch a dailie daring trecherous people: to others vupleafant that we wafhed not the ground with their blouds, nor fhewed fuch frange in ventions, in mangling, murdering, ranfeking, and deItroying 'as did the Spaniards) the fimple bodics of thore ignorant foules;nor delightful becaure not fuffed with relations of heaps, and mines of gold and filver, nor fuch rare commodities as the Portugals and Spaniards found in the Eaft & Weff Indies.The wate wherof hath begot vs (thiat were the firt vindertakers) no leffe forne and contempt, then their noble conquefts $&$ valiant adventures(beaurified with it) praife and honor. Too much I confeffe the world cannot attribute to their ever memorable merit. And to cleare vs from the worlds blind ignorant cenfure, thele fewe words may fuffife to any reafonably vnderftanding.

It was the Spaniards good hap to happen in thofe parts,where were infinitenumbers of people, whoe had manured the ground with that providence, that it afforded victuall at all times: and time had brought them to that perfection, they had the vie of gold and filver, and the moft of fuch commodities, as their coütries afforded, fo that what the Spaniard got, was only the fpoile and pillage of thofe countric people, and not the labours of their owne hands. But had thofe fruiffull Counnrries, beene as Salvage as barbarous, as ill peopled, as little planted, laboured and manured as virginiz, their proper labours (it is likely) would hane produced as finall profit as ours. Bur had Virgintiabin peopled,planted, manured, and adorned, with fuch ftore of pretious Iewels, & rich commodities, as was the Indiesthen had we not gotten, and done as mueh as by their examples might bee expected from vs, the world might then haue traduced vs and our merits, & haue made thame and infamy our recompence and reward.

But we chanced in alande, even as God made it. Where we found only an idle, improvident, feattered people;ignorant of the knowledge of gold, or filver, or any commodities; & careleffe of any thing but frō hand to mouth, but for bables of no worth; nothing to encourage vs, but what accidentally wee found na ture afforded. Which ere wee could bring to recompence our paines, defray our charges, and fatisfie our adventurers, we were to difcover the country, fubdue the pesple, bring them to be tractable, civil, and induArious, and teach them trades, that the fruits of their labours might make vs recompence, or plant fuch co. lonies of our owne that mutt firt make provifio how to line of themfelues, ere they can bring to perfection the commodities of the countrie, which doubtles will be as commodious for England, as the weft Indies for Spaine, if ir be rightly managed; notwithtanding all our home-bred opinions, that will argue the contrarie, as formerly fuch hite hane done, againft the Spaniards and Portigals. But to conclude, againft all rumor of opinion, I only fay this, for thofe that the three firf yeares began this plantation,notwithftanding al their Eactions,mutenies, and miferies, fo gently corrected, and well prevented/pervfe the Spanih Decades, the relations of $M$.Hacklut, and tell mee how many ever with fich final meanes, as a barge of 2 Tumnes; fome times with 7.8 .9 , or but at mof 15 men did ever difcover fo many faire and navigable rivers ; fubict fo many feverall kings, people, and nations,to obedience, & contribusion with fo little bloud fhed.

And if in the fearch of thofe Countries, wee had hapued where wealth had beene, we had as furely had it,as obedience and contribution, but ifwee haue overskipped i , we will not envy them that fhall chance to finde it. Yet can wee not but lament, it was our ill fortunes to end, when wee had but only learned how to begin, and found the right courfe how to proceed,

> By Rich.wiffon,william Pbettiplace, and ©nns Todkill.

Chap. io.
How the Salvages became fubieit to the Englift.
 Hen the fhippes departed, al the provifion of the ftore (but that the Prefident had gotten) was fo rotten with the laft fomers rain, and eaten with rats, and wormes, as the hogs would fcarfely eat ir, yer it was the fouldiers diet, till our recurnes: fo that wee found with the fecond fupply in virginia.
nothing done, but vietuall feent, and the moft part of our tooles, and a good part of our armes convayed to the Salvages. But now, cafting vp the fore, & finding fufficient till the next harveft, the feare of farving was abandoned; and the company divided into tennes, fif. teenes, or as the bufineife required. 4 houres each day was fpent in worke, the reff in paitimes and merry ex. ercife; but the vintowardnefle of the greatelt number, caufed the Prefident to make a generall affembly, and then he advifed them as followeth.

Countrimen, the long experience of our late mife- The Prefidents ries, I hope is fufficient to perfwade every one to a advijc to the , company. preferit correction of himfelfe; and thinke not that either my pains, or the advêturers purfes, will ever maintaine you in idleneffe and noth; I feake not this to you all, for diverfe of you I know deferuc both honor and reward, better then is yet here to bee had:but the greater part munt be more induftrious, or farue, howfoever you haue binhererofore solerated by the authoritic of the Councell from that $I$ haue often commanded you, yet feeing nowe the authoritie refteth wholly in my felfe;you muft obay this for a law, that he that will not worke fhall not eate (except by fickneffe he be difabled) for the labours of 30 or 40 honeft and induftrious men, fhall not bee confumed to maintaine 150 idle varlets. Now though you prefume the authoritie here is but a fhaddow, and that I dare not touch the liues of any, but ny own muft anfwer it;the letters patents each week fhall be read you, whofe cötents will tell you the cōtrary. I would wifh you therefore without contempt feeke to obferue thefe orders let downe:for there are nowe, no more Councells to prorect you, nor curbe ny indeaurs. Therefore hice that offendech lec hin affuredly expeCA his due punifh ment. Hee made allo a table as a publike memoriall of every mans delerts, to encourage the good, and with fhame to fpune on the reft to amendment. By this many became very induftrious, yet more by fevere punifhncont performed their buffineffe; for all were fo tasked, that there was no excufe could prevaile to deceiuc him, yet the Dutchmens conforts fo clofely ftill convaid powder, hoo, fiwords, and tooles, that though we could find the defect, we could not find by whom it was occafioned, till it was too latc.

The Dutchmens plot tomurder Cagt. Smish.

All this time the Datchmen remaining with Powbutan, received them, inftructing the Salvages their vfe. But their conforts not following them as they expected, (to knowe the caule, they fent Francis their companion(aftout young fellow) difguifed Salvage like)to the glaffe-houfe, (a place in the woods neerea myle from Iames Towne where was the randavus for all their vnfufpected villany, 40 men they procured of Pombatan to lie in Ambufcadoe for Captaine Smith, who no fooner heard of this Dutchman, but hee fent to apprehend him, who foúd he was gon, yet to crofle his returne to Powhatan, Captaine Smith prefentiy difpatched 20 fhot after him, and then returning but frö the glaffe-houfe alone, hee incountred the king of Paf. pabeigh, a moft ftrong ftout Salvage, whofe perfwali. ons not being able to perfwade him to his amburh, fee ing him only armed but with a fauchion, attempted to haue fhot him ; but the Prefident prevented his fhot with the fecond (upply invirginia.

by grapling with him, and the Salvage as well prevenred him for drawing his fauchion, and perforce bore him into the river to haue drowned him; long they ftruggled in the water,from whence the king perceiving tivo of the Poles vpon the fandes would haue fled;but the Prefident held him by the haire \& throat smith taketh til the Poles came in; then fecing howe pittifully the tbe fing of Paf. poore Salvage begged his life, they conducted himr ${ }^{\text {pabcigigb prifuner }}$ prifoner to the forr. The Dutchman ere long was alfo brought in, whofe villany, though all this time it was fufpeeted, yer he fained luch a formall excufe, that for want of language, win had not rightly vnderftood them, and for their dealings with Poobatan, that to faue their lines they were confrained to accommodatelis armes, of whome he extreamely complained to haue detained them perforce; and that hee made this efcape with the hazard of his life, and meant not to haue returned, but ouly walked in the woods to gather walenuts:yet for all this faire tale (there was fo fral appearance of truth hee went by the heeles; the king alfo he putin fetters; purpofing to regaine the Durch-men, by the faving his life; the poore Salvage did his heft, by his daily meffengers to Powhatan, but all returned that the Durchmen would not reurne, neither did Powhatan ftay them, and bring them fiftie myles on their backes they were not able; daily this kings wiucs children, and people, came to vifit him with prefents, which hee liberally beftowed to make his peace, much trutt they had in the Prefidents promife, but the king finding his gard negligent (though fettered)yet efcaped; Captaine wot thinking to pur. paffages, as they exchanged many volies of fhot for flights of arrowes. Captaine Smith hearing of this, in returning to the fort tooke two Salvages prifoners, the one called Kemps, the other Kinfock, the two mont exact villaines in the countrie; with thofe, Captaine win, and 50 chofen men attempted that night to haue regained the king, and revenged his iniurie/ and fo had done if he had followed his directions, or bin advifed by thofe two villaines, that would haue betraied both their king and kindred for a peece of copper, but hee trifing away the night, the Salvages the next morning by the rifing of the funne, braved him come a hore ro fight, a good time both fides let flie at other, bur wee heard of no hurt, only they tooke two Canows, burne the kings houfe and for returned.

The Prefident fearing thefe bravadoes, would but incourage the Salvages, begun himiflfe to trie his cöclufions; whereby 6 or 7 Salvages were flaine, as ma. ny made prifoners; burut their houles, tooke their boats with all their firhing weares, and planted them at Iames Towne for his owne vfe; and nowe refolved not to ceafe till he had revenged himfelfe vponal that had iniured him, but in his iourney paffing by Pa/pabeigh towards Chickabamina, the Salvages did their beft to draw him to their ambufcadoes butfeeing him regardlefly paffe their Countrey, all fhewed thêlelues in their braveft manner, to rrie their valours, he could not but let fle, and ere he could land, the Salvages no fooner knewe him, but they threw downe their armes and defired peace; their Orator was a four young má

with the fecond fupply invirginia.

called Ocanindze, whofe worthie difcourfe deferveth Garandge bis to be remembed; and this it was.

Captaine Smith, my mafter is here prefent in this company thinking it Captaine win, and not you; and of him hee intended to hane beene revenged, having never offended him: if hee haue offended you in elcaping your imprifonment; the fifhes fwim, the fowles flie, and the very beaftes frime to efcape the fnare and liue; them blame not him being a man, hee would entreat you remëber, your being a prifoner, what paines he tooke to fauc yourlife; if fince he hath iniured you he was compellcd to ir, but howfocver, you haue revenged it with our too great loffe, we perceine & well knowe you intend to deftroy vs, that arehere to in. treat and defire your friendrhip, and to enioy our houlfes and plant our fields, of whofe fruit you thall participate, otherwife you will haue the wort by our abfence, for we can plant any where, though with more labour, and we know you camot liue if you want our harveft and thar reliefe wee bring you; ifyou promife vs peace we will belecue you, if you proceed in revēg, we will abandon the Countric. Vpon thefe tearmes the Prefident promifed them peace, till hey did vs iniuric, vponcondition they fhould bring in provifion, fo all departed good fricnds, & fo continued till Smith left the Countrie.

Ariving at Iames Towne, complaint was made to the Prefident ihat the Cbickabaminos, who al this while $A$ isalugegeforscontinued trade, and feemed out friendes, by colour thered al lames thereof were the only thecues, and amongit other Tomse, and things, a piftolbeing ftolne, and the theefe fled, there were apprehended 2 proper young fellows that were brothers, knowne to be his côfederats. Now to regain this piftoll, the one we impriloned, the other was fent to returne againe within 12 houres, or his brother to behanged,yet the Prefident pittying the poore naked Salvage in the dungeon, fent him vietualland fome charcole for fire; ere midnight his brother returned with the piftoll,but the poore Salvage in the dungeon was fo fmothered with the fmoke he had made, and fo pittioully burnt, that wee found him dead, the other moft lamentably bewailed his death, and broke forth in fuch bitter agonies, that the Prefidêt (to quict him) told him that ifherafter they would not iteal. he wold make him aliue againe, but little thought hee could be recovered, yet(we doing our beft with aquavitre & vineger ) it pleafed God to reftore him againe to life, but fo drunke and alfrighted that he feemed lunaticke, not vnderftanding any thing hee fooke or heard, the which as much gricved and tormented the other, as before to fee him dead; of which maladie(!pon promife of their good behaviour afterward) the Prefident promifed ro recoverthim and fo cauled him to be laid by a fire to fleepe, who in the morning (hauing well flept had recovered his perfect fenfes; and then being dreffed of his burning, and each a peece of copper given them, they went away fo well contented, that this was fpread amongit all theSalvages for a miracle, that Captaine Smith could make a man aliue that is dead; thefe and many other fuch pretty accidents, fo amazed and affrighted both Powhatan and all his pcople that from all parts with prefents they defired peace, returning many folne things which wee acither demaunded nor thought of. And after that, thofe that weretalen ftealing (both Powhitan and his people) hane fent them backe to Iames Towne to receiue their punifhonent, and all the countric became abfolutely as free for vs, as for themfelues.

CHAP. Ir.

what was done in three monthes haing victuall The: fore devoured by rats, bow we lived 3 monthes of fuchnaturallf ruits as the countrie afforded.

OW wee fo quietly followed our bufineffe, that in 3 monthes we made 3 or 4 laft of pitch and tarre, and fope afhes, produced a triall of glaffe, made a well in the forte of excellent fweete water (which till then was wanting) built lome 20 houfes, reconered more done in's our Church,provided nets and weares for fifhing ( $&$ montbest then 3 to ftop the diforders of our diforderly theeues & the jeares. Salvages)buile a blocke houfe in the necke of our Ile, kept'by a garrifon to entertaine the Salvages trade, & none to paffe nor repaffe, Salvage, nor Chriftian, with out the Prefidents order, 30 or 40 acres of ground we digged, and planted; of 3 fowes in one yeare increafed 60 and od pigges, and neere 500 chickens brought vp themfelues(without hauing any meate given them) but the hogges were tranlported to hog Ile, where al.

The proceedings and acoidents

fowe buile a blocke houfe with a garrifon, to giue vs notice of any fhipping, and for their exercife they made clapbord, wainfcot, and cut downe trees againft the fhips comming. We buile alfo a fort for a retrear, neare a convenient river vpon a high commanding hill,very hard to be affaulted, and eafie to be defended; but ere it was halfe finifhed this defect caufed a ftay; in fearching our casked corne, wee found it halfe rotten, the reft fo confumed with the many thoufand rats(increaled firt from the (hips) that we knewe not how to keepe that little wee had. This did driue vs all to our wits ende, for there was nothing in the countrie but what nature afforded.vntill this time Keinps and Taffore, were fettered prifoners, and daily wrought, and taught vs how to order and plant our fields. Whome now (for want of vietuall)we fet at libertie, but fo wel were they vfed, that they little defired it; and to exprefs their loues, for 16 daies continuance, the Countric brought ws(whenleaft) roo a daie of f quirrils, Turkies, Deare and other wild beaftes; but this want of corne occafioned the end of all our workes, it being worke fufficient to provide victuall. 60 or 80 with Enfigne Laxon were fent downe the river to liue vpon oyfters, \& 20 with leiftenant Percie to trie for fifhing at pointcomfort, but in 6 weekes, they would not agree once ro caft out their net. $M^{r}$ we $\neq$ with as many went vp to the falles, but nothing could bee found but a fewe berries and acornes; of that in the ftore every one had their equall proportion. Till this prefent (by the ha-

The pains of 40 jed 150. zard and endeavour of fome 30 or 40 ) this whole nurber had ever been fed. Wee had more Sturgeon them could be devoured by loge and man; of which the in duftrious, by drying and pounding, mingled with cavire, forrel, and other wholfome hearts, would make bread and good meate;others would gather as much Tockwough roots in a day, as would make chem bread a week, fo that of thole wilde fruiter, fill and berries, there lived very well,(in regard of foch a diet), but fuck was the mot flange condition of forme 150 , that had they notbeene forced nolens volens perforce to ga. then and prepare their victuall they would all hate far ved, and have eaten one another: of thole wild fruites the Salvages often brought vs: and for that the Prefident would not fulfill the vnreafonabledefire of thole diffracted lubberly gluttons, to fell, not only our kettees, howe, soles, and Iron, 11 fay fords, peeces, & the very ordenance, and boules, might they have prevailed but to have beene but idle, for thole falvage fruits they would have imparted all to the Salvages, efpecially for one basket of cone they heard of, to bee at Powhatans, 5 o myles from our fort, though he bought mere halle of it to fatisfie their humours, yet to have had the other halle, they would hate fold the cir fouls, Their define to (though not fufficient to have kept them a weeks) devifes, to force him to thole bale inventions, to have made it an occafion to abandon the Comurrie. Want perforce constrained him to indure their exclaiming follies till he found out the author, one Dyer, a moot craftie knave, and his ancient maligner, whom he wo they punifhed, and with the reft he argued the cafe in this manner. drones. report, or fo many to fimple to be perfwaded, that I ei. ther intêd to farue you, or that Fowhatan (at this prefent) hath corne for himfelfe, much leffe for you; or that I would not haue it, if I knewe where it were to be had. Neither did I thinke any fo malitious as nowe Ifee a great many, yet it fhall not fo much pafficnate me, but I will doe my beft for my worlt maligner. Bue dreame no longer of this vaine hope from Powhatan, nor that I willonger forbeare to force you from your Idleneffe, and punith you if you raile, you cannotdeny but that by the hazard of my life, many a time 1 haue faued yours, when, might your owne wils hane prevailed, you would haue ftartued, and will doe ftill whether I will or no. But I proteft by that God that made me, ince neceffitie hath not power to force you to gather for your felus thofe fruits the earth doth yecld, you fhall not only gather for your felues, but for thofe that are ficke:as yet I never had more from the fore then the worft of your; and all my Englih extraordinaric provifion that I haue, you fhall fee mee devide among the fick. And this Salvage trarh, you fo foornfully repine at, being put in your mouthes your fomacks can digeft it, and therefore I will take a courle you fhall provide it. The ficke fhal not farue, but equally fhare of all our labours, and every one that gathereth not every day as much as I doe, the next daie fhall be fet beyoud the river, and for ever bee banifhed from the fort, and line there or ftarue.

This order many murmured, was very cruell, but it caufed the moft part fo well beftir themelucs, that 200 men (except they were drowned ) there died not paft 7 or 8 . As for Captaine win, and $M^{r}$ Ley, they diedere this want happened, and the reft died not for want of fuch as preferued the reftmany were billitted among the Salvages, whereby we knewe all their pa!fages, fieldes, and habitations, howe to gather andvee their fruits, as well as themelues.

So well thofe poore Salvages viedvs, (that were thus Billited) as divers of the fouldiers ran away, to The Salunges fearch Kemps our old prifoner. Glad was this Salvage ${ }_{g}^{\text {returnese }}$ onirfine to haue fuch an occaffon to teftifie his loue, forinfeed of entertaining them, \& fuch things as they had folne with all the great offers and promifes they made the, to revenge their iniuries vpon Captaine Smith, Fir!t he made himfelfe fort, in fhewing his countrymen (by them) how he was vied; feeding them with this law who would not worke mult not eat, till they were neere farved, continuallic threatning to beate them ro de.til, neither could they get from him, til perforce he broughe them to ourCaptaine, that fo we contented him, and punifhed them: as manie others that intended a! !o to haie fol'owed them, were rather contented to labour at home, then adventure to liue Idle among the Salvages, (of whom there was more hope to make better chriitians and good fubiects, then the one halfe of thofe tiat counterfeired theffelues both.) For fo afeard were all tioofe kings and the better forte of their people, to difpleafe vs, that lome of the bater for that we hase exereamelie hurt and punimed for $t^{\prime}$ cir villaies, wo uld hire vs, we fhould not rell ir to tein kings or countrymer, who would alforepunim them, and yet returne them to Iames Towne to content the Prefident, by that teftimonie of their lones.

Scarcb fo sbem Sent by SirWal ter Rapoley.

Mr sicklemore well returned from chawonock, but found little hope and ieffe certainetie of them were left by Sir walter Rawley. So that 2 athaniell Powell & Anas Todkill, were alfo, by the Quiyoughquobanocks, conducted to the Mangoages to fearch the there. But nothing could we learne but they were all dead, this honeft, proper, good promis-keeping king, of all the reft did ever beft affect vs; & though to his falfe Gods he was yet very zealous, yet he would confeffe, our God as much exceeded his, as our guns did his bowe and arrowes, often fending our Prefident manie prefents to praie to his Godfor raine, or his corne would perifh,for his Gods were angrie all this time to reclaime the Dutchmen, and one Bentley an other fugitiue, we imploied one williă Volda (a switzer by birth) with pardons and promifes to regaine them. Litle we then fufpected this double villanie, of anie villanie, who plainlie taught vs, in the moft truft was the grea teft treafon. For this wicked hypocrit, by the feeming

The Dutchmens proiecis. hate he bore to the lewd condition of his curfed coultrimé, having this opportunitie by his imploimenr to regaine them, conveighed them everie thing they defired to effect their proiect to deftroie the colonie. With much devotion they expected the Spanyard, to whom they intended to haue done good fervice. But to begin with the firft oportunitic, they feeing neceffitie thus inforced vs to difperfe our felues;importuned Powhatan to lend them but his forces, and they would not onlie deftroie our hogs, fire our towne, and be-traic our Pinnas; but bring to his fervice and fubiection the molt part of our companies. With this plot they had acquainted manie difcontents and manie were agreed to their divelifh practife. But on Thomas Douefe \& Thomas Mallard, whofechriftian harts much relenting at fuch an vnchriftian act, voluntarily revealed it to Captaine Smith: who did his beft it might be concealed, perfwading Dowese and Malard to proceed in the confederacie : onlie to bring the irreclamable Dutch men, and inconftant Salvages in fuch a maner amongtt his ambufcadoes, as he had prepared, as not manic of them fhoulde ever haue returned from our our penifula, But this brute cöming to the ears of the impatient multitude, they fo importuned the Prefident to cut of thofe Dutchmen, as amongft manie that offered to cut their throates before the face of Powbatan. $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ wiffin and lefra $A b o t$ were fent to ftab or fhoot them; but thefe Dutch men made fuch excuo fes accufing Volday whom they fuppofed had revealed their proiect, as Abbot would nor, yet wiffin would, perceiving it but deceipt. The king vnderftanding of this their imploiment, fent prefentlie his meffengers to Captaine Smith to fignific it was not his fault to de taine them, nor hinder his men from executing his command, nor did he nor would he mainraine them, or anie to occafion his difpleafure. But ere this bufi. nes was brought to a point, God having feene our mi fery fufficient, fent in Captaine argall to fifh for Sturgion with a fhip well furnifhed with wine and bisket, which though it was not fent vs, fuch were our occa* fions we tooke it at a price, butlefthim fufficient to returne for England, ftill diffembling Valdo his villany, but certainlic hee had not efcaped had the Prefident continued.
By this you may fee,for all thofe croffes, treache-Note thefe inconveniences. rics, and diffentions, howehe wraftled and overcame (without bloud (hed)all that hapned. Alfo what good was done, how few died, what food the country naturally affordeth,what fmall caufe there is men fhoulde flatuc, or be murdered by the Salvages, that haue difcretion to manage this courage and induftry. The 2. firt years though by his advétures he had off brought the Salvages to a tractable trade, yet you fee how the envious authority ever crofled him, and fruftrated his beft endeavours.Yet this wroughtr in him that experience and eftimation among the Salvages, as otherwaies it had bin impofible he had ever effected that he did, though the many miferable yet generous and worthy adventures, he had long, \& oft indured as wel in fome parts of Africa, and America, as in the moft partes of Europe and $\mathcal{A}$ fia by land or feá had taughr him much, yet in this care he was againe to learne his Lecture by experience. Which with thus much a doe having obtained, it was his ill chance to end, when hee had but onlie learned how to begin. And though hee left thefe vnknowne difficulties,( made eafie and familiar to his vnlawfull fucceffors, whoe onlic by living in Iames Towne, prefumed to know more then al the world could direet them though they had all his foul. diers with their triple power, and twife triple better meanes, by what they haue done in his abience, the world doth fee:and what they would haue done in his peefence, had he not prevented their indiferetions: it dots iuntlie approne what caule he had to fend them for England. Sut they haue made it more plaine fince their returne, having his abfolute authoritie freely in their power, with ali the advantages, and opportunity that his labours had effected. As I am forry their acti, ons haue made it fo manifett, fo lam vnwilling to fay what reafon doth compell me, to make apparant the trith, leaft I hould feeme partial, reafonlefie, or malitious.

Chap. 12.

The carivall of the thirdS upoly.

Oredreffe thoic iarres \& ill pro. The allerations of the goveraneceedings, the Councell in Eng - of mene. land altered the governement:\& devolved the authoritie to the Lord De-la-ware. Who for his deputie, fent $S^{r}$ Thomas Gales, \& Sr George Somers, with 9 fhips $8:$ 500 perfons.they fet faile from England in May I609 a fmal catch perifhed at fea in a Herycano. The Admirall, with 150 men, with the two knights, \& their new commiffion, their bils ofloading with al manner of directions, and the moft part of their provifion arived not. With the other 7 (as Captaines) arived Ratleffe, Tbe lofe of Fi ir whofe right name was Sickelmore, Martin, and Archer. ${ }^{\text {ginia。 }}$ Who as the y had been troublefome at fea, beganne againe to marre all a fhore. For though, as is faid, they were formerly depofed \& fent for England: yetnow returning againe, graced by the title of Captaines of the paffengers, feeing the admirall wanting, and great probabilitie of her loffe:ftrengthned themfelues with thofe newe companies, fo railing and exclaiming againft Captaine Smith, that they mortally hated him, ere ever they fee him. Who vnderftanding by his fcouts, the arivall offuch a fleet (little dreaming of any fuch fupply fuppofing them Spaniards, hee fo derermined and ordered his affaires, as wee little feared their arivall, nor the fucceffe of our incounter, nor were the Salvages any way negligent or vnwilling, to aide rbe Salvager of ferto figbs vn . der o r coulars.
but as our foes, whereas receiving thofe as our countriemen and friends, they did their beft to murder our Prefident, to furprife the fore, the fort, and our lodgings, to vfurp the governement, and make vs all their Prefident, to furprife the fore, the fort, and our lodgings, to vfurp the governement, and make vs all their siautinie. and allift vs with their beft power, had it fo beene, wee had beene happy. For we would not haue trufed them fervants, and flaues to our owne merit, to 1000 mif- chiefos thofe lewd Captaines led this lewd company, wherein were many vnruly gallants packed thether by their friends to efcape il deftinies, and thofe would difpofe and determine of the governement, fometimes one, the next day another, to day the old commiffion, to morrow the new, the next day by neither. In fine, they would rule all or ruine all;yet in charitie we muft endure them thus to deftroy vs,or by correcting their follies, haue brought the worlds cenfure vpon vs to haue beene guiltie of their bloods. Happy had we bin had they never arrived; and we for ever abandoned, &e (as we were) left to our fortunes, for on earth was never more confufion, or miferie, then their factions occafioned.

with the third Supply invirginia.

The Prefident fecing the defire thofe braucs had to

The planting Nanfamisid. rule, fecing how his authoritic was fo vnexpectedly changed, would willingly hauc left all and haue returned for England, but fecing ehere was fmal hope this newe commiffion would ariuc, longer hee would not fuffer thofe factious firits to proceed. It would bee too tedious, too ftrange, and alinoft incredible, fhould I particularly relate the infinite dangers, plots, $\&$ practifes, hee daily efeaped amonget this factious crue, the chiefe whereof he quickly laid by the heeles, til his lea fure better ferved to doe them iuftice; \& to take away al occafions of further mifchiefe, $M^{\text {r }}$ Per $/ \mathrm{Ceh}$ had his requeft granted to returne for England, \& $M^{5}$ weft with I20 went to plant at the falles. Marrin with neare as $A$ playtation o: many to Nainfamund, with their due proportions, of the falles. all provifions, according to their numbers.

Now the Prefidents yeare being neere expired, he made Martin Prelident, who knowing his own infufficiencie, and the companies (corne, and conceit of his viworthineffe, within 3 houres refigned it againe to Captaine Smith, and at Nanfamund thus proceeded. The people being contributers vfed him kindly: yet The breach of fuch was his iealous feare, and cowardize, in the midft peace with the of his mirth, hee did furprize this poore naked king, with his monuments, houfes, and the Ile he inhabited; and there fortified himfelfe, but fo apparantly diftracted with fear, a s imboldned the Salvages to affalt him, kill his men, redeeme theirking, gather and carrie away more then rooo bufhels of corne, hee not once daring to intercept them. But fent to the Prefident the 20 the Falles for 30 good fhotte, which from Iames towne immediatly were fent him, but hee fo well im. ploid them, as they did iuft nothing, but returned, com plaining of his childifhnefle, that with them fled from his company, and fo left them to their fortunes.
$M^{\mathbb{2}} W C /$ hauing feated his men at the Falles, prefently returned to revifit Iames Towne, the Prefident met him by the way as he followed him to the falles: where he found this company fo inconfiderately feared, in a place not only fubieft to the rivers invadatió, but round invironed with many intollerable inconveniences. For remedy whereof, he fent prefently to Pow batan, to fell him the place called Powhatan, promifing to defend him againft the Monacans, and thefe hould behis conditions, with his people) to refigne him the fort and houfes and all that countrie for a proportion of copper : that all feealing offenders fhould bee fent him, there to receiue their punifhment : that every houfe as a cuftome fhould pay him a burhell of corne for an inch fquare of copper, and a proportion of Po cones as a yearely tribute to King Iames, for their proteetion as a dutie:what elfe they could fpare to barter at their beft difcreation.

Butboth this excellent place and thofe good con: ditions did thofe furies refufe, contemning both him, his kind care and authoritie . the worft they could to fhew their fpite, they did. I doe more then wonder to thinke how only with 5 men, he either durft, or would adventure as he did, (knowing how greedy they were of his blond) to land amongft them and commit to im prifonment the greateft firits amongt them, till by their multitudes being 120 , they forced him to retire, yet in that retreate hee furprifed one of the boates, wherewith hee returned to their fhippe, wherein was their provifions, which alfo hee tooke. And well it chaunced hee found the marriners fo tractable and conftant, or there had beene fmall pofliblity he had ever efcaped. Norwithftäding there were ma. ny of the beft, I meane of the moft worthy in Iudge. ment, reafon or experience, that from their firf landing hearing the generall good report of his old fouldiers, and feeing with their cies his actions fo wel managed with difcretion, as Captaine wood, Captaine web, Captaine Mone, Captaine Pbitz-lames, Mr Partridge, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ white, $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Powelland divers others. Whens they perceived the malice and condition of Ratleffe, Martin, and Archer, left their factions; and ever refted his faithfull friends:But the wortt was, the poore Salvages that dailie brought in their contribution to the Prefident, that diforderlic côpany fo tormented thofe poore naked foules, by ftealing their corne, robbing The brench of their gardens, beating them, breaking their houfes, \& pecce mith; tbekeeping fome prifoners; that they dailie complained Salvages at tbe: to Captaine Smith he had broughtithê for protectors worfe enimies then the Monoans themfelues; which though till then, (for his loure) they had indured: they defired pardon, if hereafter they defended themfelues, fince he would not correct them, as they had long expecled he would : fo much they importuned him to punifh their mifdemeanores, as they offered (iftee would conduct them) to fighe for him againt them. But having feent 9 .daies in feeking to reclaine them, fnewing them how much they did abule themfelues, with

> An a fault by the Salvages with their great guilded hopes, of feas, mines, commo dities, or viidories they fo madly conceived. Then(fee ing nothing would prevaile with thenn) he fer faile for Lames Towne:now no fooner was the fhip vider faile but the Salvages affaulted thofe 120 in their fort, finding fome ftragling abroad in the woods they flew manie, and fo affrighted the reff, as their prifoners efcaped, \& they fcarfe retired, with the fiwords \& cloaks of thefe they had flaine. But ere we had failed a league our fhippe grounding, gaue vs once more libertie to fummon them to a parlie. Where we found them all fo franglie amazed with this poore fimple affault, as they fubmitted themfelues upon anie tearmes to the Prefidents mercie. Who prefentlie put by the hecles 6 or 7 of the chiefe offenders, the reft he feated gallatlie at Powbatan, in their Salvage fort they buill and pre tilie fortified with poles and barkes of trees fufficient to haue defended them from all their Salvages in Virginia, drie houfes for lodgings 300 acres of grounde The paniming of readieto plant, and no place fo ftrong, fo pleafant and Norffuh. delightful in Virginia, for which we called it vonfich. the Salvages alfo he prefentlic appeafed; redelivering New peace cò- to every one their former loffes. Thus al were friends, cluded. new officers appointed to command, and the Prefident againe readie to depart . But at that Inftant arrived $M^{\leftarrow}$ weft, whofe good nature with the perfwafions and compaffion of thofe murinous prifoners was fo much abufed, that to regaine their old hopes new turboiles arofe. For the reft being poffeffed of al their victuall munition and everie thing, they grow to that height in their former factions, as there the Prefidene

with the third Jupply in Virginia.

left them to their fortunes, they returning againe to the open aire at weft fort, abandoning Nonfuch, and he to lames Towne with his beft expedition, but this hapned him in that lournie.

Sleceing in his boat, (for the fhip was returned 2 csmith blowne daies before, accidentallie, one fired his powder bag, ${ }^{\text {vp wiblipoondss }}$ which tore his flefh from his bodie and thighes, 90 or 10. inches fquare in a moft pittifull manner; but to quench the tormenting fire, frying him in his cloaths he leaped over bord into the deepe river, where ere they could recover him he was neere drownd. In this eftar, without either Chirurgiö,or chirurgery he was to go neare roomiles. Ariving at Iames Towne catlfing all things to bee prepared for peace or warres to obtain provifiô, whileft thefe things were providing, Martin, Ratliffe, and Archer, beng to haue their trials their guiltie côfciences fearing a iuft reward for their deferts, feeing the Prefident vnable to ftand, \& neare bereft of his ienfes by reafon of his torment, they had plotted to haue murdered him in his bed. But his hart did faile hin that thould haue given fire to that mer- Abloody inten: cileffe piftol. So, not finding that courfe to be the beft they ioined togither to vfurp the government, thereby to efcape their punifhment, and excule themfelues by accufing him. The Prefident, had notice of their proiects:the which to withfand, though his old foul diers importuned him but permit the to take of their heads that would refilt his commaund, yet he would Tbe governe not permit them, But fent for the mafters of the fhips mentrvjurped. and tooke order with them for his returne for England.Seeing there was neither chirurgion, nor chirurgery in the fort to cure his hurt, and the fhips to depart the next daie, his commiffion to be fupprefled he knew not why, himfelfe and fouldiers to be rewarded he knew not how, and a new commiffion graunted they knew not to whom, the which fo difabled that aut thority he had, as made them prefume fo oft to thofe mutinies and factions as they did. Befides fo grievous were his wounds, \& fo cruell his torment, few expeCted he could liue, nor was hee able to follow his bufineffe to regaine what they had loft, fuppreffe thofe faetions and range the comutries for provifion as he intended, and well he knew in thofe affaires his owne actions and prefence was as requifit as his experience, and directions, which now could not be, he went pre. fently abord refolving there to appoint them governours, and to take order for the mutiners and their confederates. Who feeing him gone, perfwaded $M^{r}$ Perfie(to fay) and be their Prefident, and within leffe then an howre was this mutation begun and concluded. For when the company vnderftood Smith would leaue them, \& fee the reft in Armes called Prefidents and councellors, divers began to fawne on thofenew commanders, that now bent all their wits to get him refigne them his commiffion, who after many falt and bitter repulfes, that their confufion fhould not beattributed to him for leaving the country without go-

The carfes whis Smith left the countrie & bis commifione vernment and authority; having taken order to bee free from danger of their malice; he was not vnwilling they fhould fteale it from him, but never confented to deliver it to any. But had that vnhappy blaft not hapned, he would quickly haue quallified the heate of thofe humors and faetions, had the fhips but once left them and vs to our fortunes, and haue made that provifion from among the Salvages, as we neither feared Spanyard, Salvage, nor famine: nor would haue left Virginia, nor our lawfullauthoritie, but at as deare a price as we had bought it, and paid for it. What thall I fay? but thus we lott him, that in all his proceedings, made Iuftice his firt guid, and experience his fecond; ever hating bafeneffe, floth, pride, and indignitie, more then any dangers; thatnever allowed more for himfelfe, then his louldiers with him; that vpon no danger would fend them where he would not lead them himfelfe; thar would never fee vs want what he either had, or could by any meanes get vs; fhat would rather want then borrow, or farue then not pay; that loved actions more then wordes, and hated fallhood and cournage worfe then death: whofe adventures were our lites, and whofe loffe our deathes. Leaving vs thus with 3 hips, 7 boates, commodities ready to trade, the harveft newly gathered, Io weckes provifion in the fore, 490 and odde perfons, 24 peeces of ordinances, 300 muskets fraphanches, and fire lockes, fhot, powder, and match fufficient, curats, pikes, fwords, and mo. ryons more then men:the S alvages their language & habitationsw knowne to roo well trained and expertfouldiers; nets for fifhing, tooles of all fortes to worke, apparell to fupply our wants, 6 mares and a horfe, 5 or 600 fwine, as many hens and chicken, fome goates, fome fheep, what was brought or bread there remained, but they regarded nothing hut from hand to mouth, to confume that we had, tooke care for nothing but to perfit fome colourable cöplaints a gainft Captaine Smitt,for effecting whereof, 3 weekes longer they ftayed the 6 fhips tilt they could produce thé. that time and charge might much better hate beene fpent, but it futed well with the reft of their diffreations.
Tbefir copphints Now all thofe, Smith had either whipped, punifhand proofe againgl bim. ed, or any way difgraced, had free power and liberty to fay or fweare any thing, and from a whole armefull of their examinations this was concluded.
The mutiners at the Falles, complained hee caufed the Salvages affale them, for that hee would nut revenge their loffe, they being but 120 , and he 5 men and hinifelfe, and this they proved by the oath of one hee had of whipped for periurie and pilfering. The dutchmen that he had appointed to bee ftabd for their trea. cheries, fiw ore he fent to poifon them with rats baine. The prudent Councel, that he would not fubmit himfelfe to their folne authoritie.Coe \& Dyer, that fhould haue murdered him, were highly preferred for fwearing, they heard one fay, he heard Powbatan fay, that he heard a man fay: if the king would not fend that corne he had, he fhould notlong enioy his copper crowne, nor chole robes he had fent him : yet thofe alfo fwore hee might haue had corne for tooles It would not. The truth was, Smith had no fuch ingins as the king demanded,nor Poobhatan any corne. Yet this argued he would farue thera. Others complained hee would not let them reff in the fort ( to flarue ) but forced the to the oyfter bankes, to liue or flarue, a she lived himfflfe. For though hec had of his owne private provifi-ons fent from Englaind, fufficient; y et hee gaue it aH away to the weake and ficke, caufing the moft vitoward (by doing as he did) to gather their food from the vnknowne parts of the rivers $\&$ woods, that they lived( though hardly)that otherwaies would haue ftar ved, ere they would haue left their beds, or at moft the fight of Iames Towne to haue got their own victuall. Some propheticall fpirit calculated hee had the Salvages in fuch fubiection, hee would haue made himfelfe a king, by marrying Pocahontas, Powhatans daughter. It Pocaboniatas is true the was the very nomparell of his kingdome, $\& \mathbb{R}_{d \text { Pumbhtere }}^{\text {Pouht }}$ at moft not paft 13 or 14 yeares of age. V'ery oft thee canc to our fort, with what fhee could get for Captaine Smith, that ever loved and vfed all the Countrie well, but her efpecially he ever much refpected: \& fhe fo well requited it, that when her father intended to haue furprized him, fhee by fealeh in the darkenight came through the wild woods and told him of it. But her marriage could no way haue intirled him by any right to the kingdome, nor was it ever fufpected hee had ever fuch a thought, or more regarded her, or any of them, thë in honeft reafon, \& difcreation he might. If he would he might haue married her, or haue done what him lifted. Fur there was none that could haue hindred his decermination. Some that knewe not any thing to fay, the Councel inftucted, and advifed what to fweare. So diligent they were in thisbufineffe, that what any could remember, hee had ever done, or faid in mirth, or paffion, by fome circumftantall oath, it was applied to their fitteft vfe,yet not paft 8 or 9 could fay much and that nothing but circumftances, which all men did knowe was moft falfe and vntrue. Many got their paffes by promifing in England to fay much againft him. I haue prefumed to fay shis much in his behalfe for that Inever heard fuch foule flaunders, fo certainely beleeued, and vrged for truthes by many a hundred, that doc filll not ipare to fpread them, lay them and fweare them, th at I thinke doe fcarle know him though they meet him,nor haue they ether caufe or reafon,but their wills, or zeale to rumor or opinion.For the honorable and better fort of our Virginian adventurers I think they vnderftad it as I hauc writ it. For inftead of accufing him, I haue never heard any give him a better repore, then many of thofe witneffees themelues that were fent only home to teftifie againf him. Ricbard Pots, VV.P.

Tbe proceedings and accidents

When the fhips departed C. Davis arived in a fmal Pinnace with forme 16 proper men more, to thofe were added a company from Iames Towne vnder the command of Captaine Rat liffe to inlabit Point com. fort. Martin and $M^{\mathfrak{r}}$ we: t hauing lof their boates, and neere haife their men amongft the Salvages,were returned to James Towne, for the Salvages no fooner vnderftood of Captaine Smiths loffe, but they all revolted, and did nurder \& fpoile all they could incounter. Now were we all conftrained to live only of that which Smitt/ had only for his owne company, for the reft had confumed their proportions. And now have we 20 Prefidents with all their appurtenances,for $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ Perfe was fo ficke he could not goe nor fland. But ere all was confumed, $M$.wef tand Ratliffe each with a pin. nace, and 30 or 40 men wel appointed, fought abroad > with the thirdfupply in Virginia.

so trade, how they carried the bufineffe I knowe not, but Rat Lffe and his men were moft tlaine by Powhatan, Ratilife faix by thofe that efcaped returned neare flarved in the Pinnace. And $M^{\mathrm{r}}$ weff finding little better fiucceffe, fee faile for England. Now wee all found the want of Captaine Smith, yea his greateft maligners could then curfe his loffe. Now for corne, provifion, and contribution from the Salvages; wee had nothing but morrall wounds with clubs and arrowes, As for our hogs, hens, goats, fheep, horfe, or what lived, our commanders and officers did daily confume them, fome fmall proportions(fometimes)we tafted till all was devoured, then fiw ords, arrowes, peeces, or any thing we träded to the Salvages, whofe bloody fingers were fo im. brued in our bloods, that what by their cruetrie, our Governours indifcreation, and the loffe of our fhips; Of 500 , within 6 monthes after there zemained nor inany more then $60 . m$ oft miferable and poore creatures. It were to vild to fay what we endured; but the occafion was only our owne, for want of providence, induftrie, and governement, and not the barrenneffe and defect of the countrie, as is generally fuppofed,for till then in 3 yeares (for the numbers were landed vs) wc had never hinded fuffcient provifion for 6 months fuch a glutton is the fea, and fich good fellowes the marriners, wee as liettle tafted of thofe great proporti- Tbe fuitso ${ }^{\circ}$ it ons for their provifions, as they of our miferies, that $p$ ouideseres. notwithflanding ever fwaid and overruled the bufineffe:though we did lite as is faid, 3 yeares chicfly of what this good countrie naturally affordeth: yer now had we beeae in Paradice if felfe (wish thofe gover-

[^0] yetwas there fome amongftvs, who had they had the governement, would furely haue kept vs frö thofe extremities of miferies, that in 10 daics more would haue fupplanted vs all by death.

The arivall of $S^{\mathrm{r}}$ Tbo.Gates woith 150.
lamses Towne abandoned. fent Sir Thomas Gates, and Sir George Sommers, with a 150 men, mof happily preferved by the Berondoes to preferue vs.ftrange it is to fay how miraculounly they were preferved, in a leaking hip, in thofe extreame frormes and tempefts in fuch overgrowne feas 3 daies and 3 nights by bapling out water. And having givē themfelus to death, how happily when leaft expected that worthy Captaine Sir George Somers, having line all that time cuning the fhip before thofe fawlowing wanes, difcovered thofe broken Iles, where how plentifully they lived with fift&& flefh, what a paradice this is to inhabit, what induftrie they ved to build their 2 fhips, how happily they did tranfport them to Iames Towne in Virg inia, I refer you to their owne priated relations.

But when thofe noble-knights did fee our miferies (being ftrangers in the country)and could vaderftand no more of the caufe but by their coniecture, of our clamors and complaints, of accufing or excufing one an other, they imbarked vs with themfelues, with the beft means they could, and abandoning lames Towne fer faile for England.
The arival of ine Le. d Lamirre.

But yet God would not fo haue it, for ere wee left the river; we met the Lord de-la-ware, then governour for the coultrie, with 3 thips exceeding well furnifhed

with the third Jupply invirginia.

with al neceffaries fitting, who againe returned them to the abandoned lames Towne, the 9.0 Iune, ${ }_{16} 6_{10}$. accompanied with Sir Ferdinando wainman, and divers other gentlemen of fort. Sir George Somers, and Captaine Argallhe prefentlie difpatcheth to require the Bermondas to furnifh them with provifion: Sir Thomas Gates for England to helpe forward their fupplies:himfelfe neglected not the beft was in his power for the furtherance of the bufines and regaining what was loft. But evé in the beginning of his proceedings, his Lordfh:had fuch an incounter with a feurvy frekeneffe, that made him vnable to weld the ftate of his bo dy, much leffe the affaires of the colonie, fo that after 8.monthes fickneffe, he was forced to faue his life by his returne for England.

In this time Argall not finding the Bermondas, hat 2 ships fent to ving loft Sir George Somers at fea, fell on the coaft of ibe Bermundas Sagadabock, where refrefhing himfelfe, found a convenient fifhing for Cod. With a taft whereot hee resurned to Iames towne, from whence the Lord De-laware fent him to trade in the river of Patawomecke ${ }_{3}$ where finding an Englifh boy thofe people had preferved from the furie of Powbatan, by his acquaintãce had fuch good vfage of thofe kind Salvages, that they fraughted his fhip with corne, wherewith he returned so Iames Towne, and fo for England with the Lord governour, yet before his returne, the adventurers had fent Sr Tho.Dale with 3 fhips, men and cattell, and all The arivalofs: orher provifions neceflarie for a yeare, all which arived the 10 of May, 16 II.

Againe, to fecond him with all poffible expedition shere there was prepared for $\mathrm{Sr}^{\mathrm{r}}$ Tho Gates, 6 tale Chips with 300 men, and roo kyne, with other cattel, with munition and all manner of provifion could bee thoughe needfull, and they arived about the I ofAuguft next after lafely at Iames towne.
si George Somers arivall at the Bermondas anddietb.

Sr George Somers all this time was fuppofed loft:but rhus it hapned, miffing the Bermondas, hee fell allo as did Argallwith Sagadabock, where being refrefhed, would not content himfelfe with that repulle, but returned againe in the fearch; and there fafely arived.But overtoiling himfelfe on a furfeit died. And in this Ce dar fhip built by his owne directions, and partly with his owne hands, that had not in her any iron but only one bolt in her keele, yet well endured thus toffed to and againe in this mightie Ocean, til with his dead bothe arived in England at line, & at whitchurch in Dor. fet hire, his body by his friends was honourably buried, with many volies of fhot, and the rights of a fouldier. And vpon his Tombe was befowed this Epitaph

Heimibivirginia,quod tam citopraterit offas, bis Epitapb. 3
Autumnus fequitur, Seuict inde é byems. At ver perpetuum nafcetur, ou cinglialiata Decerpitflores, Floryda terratuos.

> Alas Virginia Somer fo foone paft Autume fucceeds and ftormy winters blaft, Yet Englands ioy full fpring with Aprill ihewres ${ }_{s}$ O Eloryda, hall bring thy tweetent flowers.

Since there was a fhip fraughted with provifion, and 40 meis, and another fince then with the like num ber and provifion to fay in the Countrie 12 months with Captainecesrgall.

The Lord governour himfelfe doth confidently determine to goe with the next, or as prefently as hee may in his owne perfon, with fundry other knights &\% gentlemen, with hips & men fo farre as their meanes will extend to furnifh: as for all their particular actions fince the returne of Captaine Smith, for that they haue beene printed from time to time, and publifhed to the world, I ceafe farther to trouble you with any repetition of things fo well knowne, more then are neceffarie. To conclude the hiftoric, leauing this affir. rance to all pofteritie, howe vnprolperoufly things may fucceed, by what changes or chances foever, The action is honorable and worthie to bee approved, the defect whereof hath only beene in the managing the bufneffe; which I hope now experience hath taught them to amend, or thofe examples may make others to beware, for the land is as good as this booke doth reportit.
FINIS.

CAptaine Smith I returneyou the fruit of my la. bours, as $M^{r}$ Crofbaw requefted me, which I beftowed in reading the difcourfes, & hearing the relations of fuch which haue walked, $& 2$ obferved the land of Virginia with you. The pains I took was great: yet did the nature of the argument, and hopes I conceaued of the expedition, gite me exceeding content. I cannot finde there is any thing, but what they all affirme, or cannot contradict: the land is good; as there is no citties, fo no fonnes of Anak: al is open for labor of a good and wife inhabitant : and my prayer fhall ever be,that fo faire a land, may bee inhabited by thofe that profeffe and loue the Gofpell.

Your friend
VV.S.

39999086145180

[^0]:    03
    nours)

